

WOMAN'S WORLD.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDANT OF JO-LIET'S SCHOOLS.

Chicago Education and Life—Modified MRS. A. Wynne's Woman Lawyer—Women in Justice Journalism—New Shadow Vell.

Miss Kate Henderson, who was recently appointed superintendent of the Jo-Liet schools, is the first woman to occupy that important position.

On the other hand, if too much sugar is present in the milk, the opposite effect is produced and the child suffers nearly as much from the retention in the system of matter which should have been eliminated.

It is only by watching the child carefully and striving to appreciate the changes which are taking place in its sensitive organism that the attempt to forestall serious disturbance of the alimentary canal will be made successful.

All through the greater part of the session one day recently a young, pretty and well dressed woman sat quietly in one of the rear seats in the courtroom.

She may not be trained for the nursery by it, but then neither does home life strain her for it, unless she has young sisters and brothers in whose care she takes a share.

Women in Active Journalism. Says Harry Holt Caborn, has been a brief one. There has been no proclamation of the fact that woman's day in the field of daily journalism is past.

Women are not as adaptable in business life as men are. The woman who writes is an exception to this rule.

The approach of hot weather is regarded with dread by many a sunny mother who understands the increased perils which surround the life of her little one at that time of the year.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDANT OF JO-LIET'S SCHOOLS.

Chicago Education and Life—Modified MRS. A. Wynne's Woman Lawyer—Women in Justice Journalism—New Shadow Vell.

Miss Kate Henderson, who was recently appointed superintendent of the Jo-Liet schools, is the first woman to occupy that important position.

On the other hand, if too much sugar is present in the milk, the opposite effect is produced and the child suffers nearly as much from the retention in the system of matter which should have been eliminated.

It is only by watching the child carefully and striving to appreciate the changes which are taking place in its sensitive organism that the attempt to forestall serious disturbance of the alimentary canal will be made successful.

All through the greater part of the session one day recently a young, pretty and well dressed woman sat quietly in one of the rear seats in the courtroom.

She may not be trained for the nursery by it, but then neither does home life strain her for it, unless she has young sisters and brothers in whose care she takes a share.

Women in Active Journalism. Says Harry Holt Caborn, has been a brief one. There has been no proclamation of the fact that woman's day in the field of daily journalism is past.

Women are not as adaptable in business life as men are. The woman who writes is an exception to this rule.

The approach of hot weather is regarded with dread by many a sunny mother who understands the increased perils which surround the life of her little one at that time of the year.

A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN.

Mrs. James J. Faye of New York is numbered among the most beautiful young women in America.

Shadow Vell. If you want a well warranted to insure good looks, get a shadow vell.

Shadow vells are sold with six or eight or ten of these lines, some of them running up high enough to cast their shadow over the mouth.

Not Weather Proof. "On broiling days," says a busy woman, "food is very distasteful. I find myself ignoring luncheon hour, and then in the middle of the afternoon I am exhausted in consequence.

A Woman's Clinic. The Women's clinic of Washington has been in existence five years.

Women and School Boards. In 23 states women can vote for directors of school boards.

Latex Cloth. Latex cloth is a pretty material for draperies, made in an openwork style, which the name implies.

Women's Thrift in Massachusetts. Women's capacity as a wage earner can be measured by the fact that the report of the Massachusetts savings bank.

Dean Matthews of Des Moines said in a recent sermon on "Young Women in Business Circles": "Young women, you have gone into the markets of the world as workers.

A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN.

Mrs. James J. Faye of New York is numbered among the most beautiful young women in America.

Shadow Vell. If you want a well warranted to insure good looks, get a shadow vell.

Shadow vells are sold with six or eight or ten of these lines, some of them running up high enough to cast their shadow over the mouth.

Not Weather Proof. "On broiling days," says a busy woman, "food is very distasteful. I find myself ignoring luncheon hour, and then in the middle of the afternoon I am exhausted in consequence.

A Woman's Clinic. The Women's clinic of Washington has been in existence five years.

Women and School Boards. In 23 states women can vote for directors of school boards.

Latex Cloth. Latex cloth is a pretty material for draperies, made in an openwork style, which the name implies.

Women's Thrift in Massachusetts. Women's capacity as a wage earner can be measured by the fact that the report of the Massachusetts savings bank.

Dean Matthews of Des Moines said in a recent sermon on "Young Women in Business Circles": "Young women, you have gone into the markets of the world as workers.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

The Spirit of Fun. If our girls and boys know but little else, we are certain they will assume promptly that they understand the spirit of fun.

But how is it that the mere beasts are usually so gentle in their play? A horse will do his best to avoid stepping on you, even in fun.

We once knew a parrot who was remarkably fond of play. She would walk after a bit of string, laugh and chuckle when she captured it.

The Artful. She says she is an artist. This little dovebird. You ever see a dovebird? If you could only see him.

For fun at a party the simple little game of "passing the clothes paper" is about as good as anything you can do.

Princess Dactyl. Princess Dactyl enjoys the distinction, according to London Lady, of being the only woman that the queen, in all the 60 years of her reign, has ever appointed to an executive office such as the governorship of the Isle of Wight.

Madam. "Madam," said the man who had a seat to the woman who had not, with some asperity in his tone, as the bridge car slowed up on the New York side of the bridge, "will you move to let me pass?"

Edinburgh Has a Women's Club. Edinburgh women have at last followed the example of their English and American sisters and now have a club of their own.

Old Fashioned Jewelry. The old style jewelry is coming into fashion again. Women are haunting the old curio shops trying to find beautiful old cameos like these worn by their mothers and grandmothers years ago.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

The Spirit of Fun. If our girls and boys know but little else, we are certain they will assume promptly that they understand the spirit of fun.

But how is it that the mere beasts are usually so gentle in their play? A horse will do his best to avoid stepping on you, even in fun.

We once knew a parrot who was remarkably fond of play. She would walk after a bit of string, laugh and chuckle when she captured it.

The Artful. She says she is an artist. This little dovebird. You ever see a dovebird? If you could only see him.

For fun at a party the simple little game of "passing the clothes paper" is about as good as anything you can do.

Princess Dactyl. Princess Dactyl enjoys the distinction, according to London Lady, of being the only woman that the queen, in all the 60 years of her reign, has ever appointed to an executive office such as the governorship of the Isle of Wight.

Madam. "Madam," said the man who had a seat to the woman who had not, with some asperity in his tone, as the bridge car slowed up on the New York side of the bridge, "will you move to let me pass?"

Edinburgh Has a Women's Club. Edinburgh women have at last followed the example of their English and American sisters and now have a club of their own.

Old Fashioned Jewelry. The old style jewelry is coming into fashion again. Women are haunting the old curio shops trying to find beautiful old cameos like these worn by their mothers and grandmothers years ago.