Legging's a vice we all regret
But it remains, forsooth
The best thing we've invented yet
As a substitute for truth.

For three months now the gentle sea
Should cultivate their muscles,
And beat and beat and wash and riot.
In every sort of tussle,
Then with each tendon strong and true,
And biceps firm and whopping,
They may be strong enough to do
Their usual Christmas shopping.

Pennsylvania Avenue.
In room No. 3 of the Patton public schools, of which Miss Gertie Holtman is the teacher, an election was held and a vote taken on Wednesday by the pupils as to what name should be given the alley west of the school building which runs north and south from Magee to Palmer avenues. Several names were proposed but the name of Pennsylvania avenue was chosen by a large majority. The object in having this street or alley named was for the purpose of teaching the pupils to properly give the boundary of the Patton public school property.

A Talk on Bargains!

Now when we say BARGAINS we mean all that the word implies. Our Fall and Winter Stock of Suits are now in the house and we want to tell you a word or two about them.

First we want to
Tell you about our new Suits. Now note the regular price and then the out price.
Men's all-Wool,
Good serviceable Suits that we always sold for $5.50. The out price in plain figures is $4.88.

The next one
Is a Suit that any man need not be ashamed to wear. It's worth every penny of $7.50. Note our price, $6.48. A saving of $1.02 on first one and some on the second suit.

Here is a
Fine Dress Suit of basket weave or Clay worsted that can't be bought in Patton for $11.50. Our out price is $9.98.

Then a beauty
In worsted, best we have we think, marked $12.50 and cut to $10.88. Count up the saving as you read.

We have some
Fine Scotch Plaids for young men and old men too, if they like Plaids, at $10.00 that we cut from $11.50 and $12.50 prices.

We also have received not less than 300 new and nobby Overcoats for Men and Youths, and it will pay you to read each item and price carefully, as it's saving you nice money on each item.

First one
Is a nice warm Overcoat that sells for $6.00. Cut to $5.38.

Second one
Is a nobby and dressy affair in Beaver that sells for $8.50, our out price $7.68. The next is a fine one and as good as most of them sell at $14.00. Our price was $11.50 and cut to $9.98.

Remember
The motto of this Store, "Penny Profits and Quick Sales." It's a winner too, for we are doing nice trade. Ask your neighbor if it ain't so.

Don't forget that we make suits to order. No money down. Pay if it pleases you.
