THE ELECTIONS.
Out of the other to concede defeat. In complete returns indicate the election of the Republican state ticket by from 10,000 to 12,000, but the result on the legislature is so close that no definite figures can be given on it.

The Democrats claim confidently a majority in both branches of the legislature, but give no figures on the number of state senators or representatives. The Republicans claim 54 representatives and 17 senators sure, or 71 votes on joint ballot, 73 being necessary to elect a senator. They also claim all of the 12 representatives whose counties have not been definitely heard from and all of which are in the doubtful list. Out of the five state senators yet to hear from they claim three, so that the result on the legislature cannot be determined till all the doubtful counties and districts are heard from.
Both sides are watching the count very carefully, especially on the legislative candidates that are in doubt.
The change from the result of last year shows that the Democrats have gained in all of the cities largely, except in Cleveland. The gains in Cincinnati and Columbus were very large. The Republicans gained in the rural districts, but most of the changes were due to the stay-at-home vote in the rural districts, which was fully 15 per cent.

VAN WYCK ELECTED.

Tammany Carried Greater New York by at Least 60,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Tammany's victory in the first municipal election in Greater New York is a sweeping one. Van Wyck's plurality can scarcely be less than 60,000 and may be larger than that. Van Wyck has polled a vote which falls possibly 40,000 under the combined vote of General Tracy, Republican, and Seth Low, Citizens' Union. The latter was successful to the extent of polling an aggregate vote in excess of the 40,000 pledges implied by the signatures to the petition upon which he became the candidate of an independent movement which, at the outset, offered to join hands with the Republican party organization in a concerted effort to exclude Tammany from power in the greater city to come into being Jan. 1, 1908, with a population the second in magnitude of the great cities of the world.

The offer was declined on the ground that in any such movement the Republican organization would participate only coincidentally with the other party to the compact, and the Citizens' Union on the other hand refused to recall its nomination of Mr. Low, in order that the form of selecting a candi-didate might be carried out conjointly with the Republican organization. The total number of votes cast was not far either way from 500,000. The indications are that Van Wyck received 210,000; Low, 145,000; Tracy, 100,000; and George. The aggregate is swelled by a few thousand votes cast for Gleason, independent Democrat; Daniel, Socialist; and Wardwell, Prohibitionist. On the city ticket with Judge Van Wyck, Bird S. Coles is elected comptroller and Adolph Gagenheimer, president of the municipal council.

Charles E. Fairchild, who was secretary of the treasury during Cleveland's first presidential term and whom the Citizens' Union put up for comptroller, did not hold the pace with Mr. Low. Ashbel Pritch, originally a Republican and afterwards a Democratic member of congress from a Tammany district of this city, was the Republican nominee for comptroller. He is defeated by about the same vote as the head of his ticket. He was nominated with General Tracy in recognition of the services he rendered in the presidential campaign last year fighting a gold standard issue against the Democrats who had accepted the 16 to 1 platform of the Chicago convention. Coles, the successful candidate, is new to public life.
Charles W. Dayton, late postmaster of the city, who was nominated for controller on the George ticket, polled probably half as many votes again as were given to Mr. George. The legislative branch of the city government is Tammany Democratic. It is a double-headed body, one branch being the municipal council consisting of the president and 25 members and the other, the board of aldermen, comprising 60 members. The precise number of Democrats chosen cannot be stated at the present writing. There appears to be a strong probability that the Democrats have won a majority of the county and borough offices along with the municipal places.

The vote of Van Wyck in New York county is approximately the same as was cast for Bryan in 1896, which was 135,624. General Tracy polled approximately 50,000 against McKinley's 154,339 in New York county, while the Bryan vote was 77,852 and Van Wyck's will be almost the same.
Against McKinley's vote of 109,133 General Tracy polled approximately 35,000, while Low's vote is approximately 65,000.

In these two counties the straight Republican vote shows a falling off of nearly 175,000, or in excess of the total vote of Seth Low while the Tammany vote equals, if it does not slightly exceed that cast for Bryan. The polling came within about 30,000 of the entire registration, which, considering the weather conditions, was all that could be expected. The day was wet, foggy and disagreeable to a degree. It was such a day as, in the years gone by, when the voters lined up in the streets to await their chance to cast their ballots to the "big tent" as called "good Democratic weather." Under the altered conditions, the voting being done within doors, this characterization cannot well apply. There was a general suspension of business, and nearly everybody who was qualified had the opportunity of voting. It was only in the outlying sections that the exercise of the right of franchise was attended with any inconvenience.

The indications are that the Democrats have a small majority of the members of the state assembly. In the greater city it is estimated from very meager returns, the representation will be 12 Democrats and 10 Republicans, while in the upper part of the state there are said to have been changes from Republicans to Democrats in 20 districts. In the last assembly the Republicans had a majority of 78. Conceding all that is claimed by the Democrats, the next house will have 10 Democratic majority. State senators were not elected this year.

Other estimates give a Republican majority in the assembly of 4.

Estimates of the majority of Parker, Democrat, for chief judge of the court of appeals, range all the way from $5,000 to 50,000.

Republicans Carry Iowa.

DES MOINES, Nov. 3.—The returns from about one-fourth of the 2,000 precincts of the state show that the Republican's plurality will be about 17,000. The Democrats have a net gain in the state of about 47,000. The legislative ticket returns are slow coming in. The best estimates obtainable here give to the senate 70 Republicans, 12 Democrats and 2 districts in doubt. Of the members of the house probably 65 out of the 100 will be Republican, giving them a safe working majority in both houses.

IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Worcester Elected Governor and Carried Democratic City of Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—For the second time in two years this city, ordinarily strongly Democratic, gave a substantial majority to Roger Wolcott, the Republican candidate for governor, at the state election. There was, however, a decided falling off in the vote for both candidates, and in this Wolcott suffered more than Williams. With a total of 1,100 over his opponent last year the governor this year had a trifle over 5,500 in a total vote of about 30,000. Wolcott's vote of 31,000 this year shows a decrease of 30 per cent from that given him last year, while the Williams vote of 24,000 shows less than 2 per cent decrease. The attempt to consolidate the legislative departments of the city in a single chamber was voted down by a majority of about 4,000.

John H. Sullivan, who last year was defeated for councillor by Isaac B. Allen, a colored man, was elected by a substantial majority over Stanley Rufan, another colored opponent. The election was remarkably quiet. The Republicans swept the state by a substantial majority, electing their entire ticket, as well as three-quarters of the members of both branches of the legislature.

BLOODY ELECTION RIOTS.

Seven People Killed in Kentucky and Others Wounded.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 3.—Election day opened here with a bloody tragedy. Before dawn occurred a riot in which Frank Egbert of the Frankfort fire department was riddled with bullets and Deputy Sheriff Teakins and two others were killed. The tragedy was the result of an attempt on the life of Ben Marshall and other political workers about midnight. The dead are: Howard Glone, Frank Egbert, Deputy Sheriff Teakins, Walter Gains, colored.

William Smith is probably wounded fatally. Several are wounded slightly by the shots fired.

MARYLENE, Ky., Nov. 3.—A number of to-gb characters created disturbance at the Crooked Creek precinct in this county. Sheriff M. H. Hines attempted to restore order, when a general shooting affray took place between the sheriff's posse and the disturbers, three of the latter being killed.

The dead are: Henry Langford, John Lawrence, Charles Payne.

PRESIDENT CAST A BALLOT.

Voted Like Any Other Citizen—Crowd Cheers.

CANTON, Nov. 3.—The president of the United States voted just like any ordinary citizen, and will no more show or formality. It was just 10:30 o'clock when he reached the precinct headquarters, and a moment later the voice of a clerk was heard reading: "William McKinley, 51 West Tackawasee street, number 164."

President McKinley then entered the booth, and was just one minute and its second fraction in the booth. The curtain of the booth rested on his shoulder, and he was in plain view of the crowd, who cheered lustily as he emerged.

The president was accompanied to the room from his mother's home, by Judges Hicks and McCarty, and George E. Freese. He greeted pleasantly the friends he passed on the street and spoke to those gathered about the polling place.

They received the election returns by two special wires and a long distance telephone instrument, in the private car Mayflower.

IN MARYLAND.

Republicans Carried Baltimore and the Legislature is in Doubt.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—The Republicans have elected their entire municipal ticket in this city and will control both branches of the city council. They have also carried all three of the Baltimore legislative districts, and the seat in the United States senate now filled by Arthur P. Gorman hangs in the balance so that a few votes may turn the scale.

The Republicans have carried 37 counties, and the Democrats 60. The Republicans, having 9 "hold-over" senators, their total on joint ballot would be 66, while the Democrats would have but 63. The only chance then apparently left for the Democrats is to elect 9 out of the 14 new senators, in which event they will control the legislature and elect a United States senator by one vote.

IN BRYAN'S STATE.

The Silver Platform Carried the State by Increased Plurality.

LEXINGTON, Neb., Nov. 3.—Nebraska renewed her allegiance to Fusion by electing the three candidates on that ticket by pluralities ranging from 10,000 to 25,000. Nothing like complete returns have been received, but enough are in to measure the result and indicate a great fusion victory than in the presidential year.

Detroit Elects Democratic Mayor.

DETROIT, Nov. 3.—The election of Mayor Mayby (Dem.) is accompanied with a plurality of about 2,000. Thompson (Dem.) is elected treasurer by about 4,000. Schmid Republican candidate for city clerk, is re-elected by a plurality of 2,000. Lumley (Rep.) went out for justice of the peace by 1,500 votes. Nine Republicans and nine Democratic aldermen were elected. The council will stand Twenty-nine Republicans, 18 Democrats, a gain of 2.

Result in New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The vote in New Jersey was light. The Democrats made gains in almost every county and the Republicans retain control of the state house of assembly by a narrow majority. They also have the senate, although the Democrats made gains.

Daniel Will Be Re-Elected.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 3.—A light vote has been polled all over the state. Majority of Democratic state ticket very large. The Democrats will have two-thirds of the legislature. This means the re-election of Daniel to the United States senate.
