The little candy is so strong.

From L. A. W. Bulletin.
Here's a reason why lots of life's sunshine is lost in the world's dreary fog:
There's too many a man quick to tie a tin can to the tail of another man's dog.
I like my wife when she calls me "Dear."
"Her dear," and "A Precious Boy."
And "Love" is a feast to my yearning ear,
And "Net" is a sound of joy.
But the tongue-tied word that her tongue can speak
Are those that she whispers when she presses her lips against my cheek
And murmurs, "I want a ten."

Hasn't Rested Since.
In beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Then he made the editor and the liberal advertiser and the prompt paying subscriber, and it was good. The next day a bilizard set in and he created a man who didn't believe in advertising and he rested. Then the devil got into the back room and created the man who takes the editor's paper for years and fails to pay for it. The devil then took a rest but the editor hasn't rested since.—Ed.
