S. E. Neifert, the genial and accommodating station agent at the Beech Creek railroad at the Mahaffey union station, has resigned his position to accept one in New York state. Mr. Neifert has a host of friends among the traveling public who will regret to learn of the change.

Interesting Services.
The services held in the Methodist Episcopal church during the holiday season were interesting and helpful. The Sunday school rendered a Christmas service on Sunday, December 28, and made a creditable offering for the work of the Sunday School Union. In the evening the pastor preached a Christmas sermon to a large and attentive audience. A service of praise, prayer and consecration was held on the last night of the old year, which was an inspiration to every one. Sunday, January 2, a special New Year's service was held at 10:30 a. m., at which time the pastor delivered an appropriate sermon. The evening sermon was based on the fourth commandment, and was much appreciated by the large congregation present.

The Junior League held a special rally on New Year's Day. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm. The Junior League, under the careful leadership of the earnest superintendent, Mrs. T. J. Fulton, is doing excellent work. The meetings are well attended and full of interest, and the members of this organization have not been lacking in the spirit of work. They have recently made a quilt and presented it to the Lock Haven hospital, and on Christmas Eve these little people presented the pastor, Rev. Chas. W. Wasson, and family with a beautiful parlor lamp.

A Pleasant Time.
Chest Springs, Pa.—Everyone called the social of New Years Eve superb, not only for the splendor of the entertainment, but for the young ladies who planned it. Festoons of natural flowers were daintily arranged in all the rooms. Several of the young ladies were thought napping under the mistletoe. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and discussing excellent music. After the delicious luncheon was served a delightful surprise was in store for the guests. A beautiful tree heavily laden with mysterious packages, each numbered. Those holding corresponding numbers were richly rewarded by an obscure personage representing "Santa Claus." The climax of the evening was reached at the examination of the parcels. Those present were: Misses Reedy, Litzinger, Callahan, Cramer, Perry, D. Litzinger, M. Callahan, E. Perry, and M. Ferguson, of Ebensburg; Messrs. McDonald, Conrad, Charles, W. J. Little, Randall, Conroy, Callahan, F. Callahan, W. Randall, F. Callahan and Kelley. All extend their deepest appreciation to Misses J. Callahan and M. Perry, and hope fate will favor us to all meet again under as an enjoyable circumstance, to bid adieu to "1898" and welcome '99.
