Then, as fish after fish flashes into the other compartment, the bow settles, and when the dory is on an even keel the hand-liner pulls back to the vessel.

The trawlers balt with fresh berting, mackerel, and squid; the handiners with salt clams. The catch of both is split and salted, and the vessel has a full "fare," or catch, when she has "wet her salt," that is, used up all ber ealt-and is full of fish. There is judgment in knowing where to fish, or how long to stay over a certain spot; and even the quickness with which a tine to hanled to will make a perceptible difference at the end of a day's fishing. It means something to be "high fine," as they call the best fisherman, at the end of a voyage, and those who win this distinction time and again, as some do, become known as "killers"

Spitzbergen Hotel The hotel recently erected in Spitz bergen is thus described: Built in Norwegian style, it has a large hall, and a quantity of smaller rooms, with thirty beds. It is also provided with a book for visitors' names, among which may snow be seen those of Sverdrup, Fulda, Prince Hohenlohe-Schillingsfuerst, E. Vely, and others. The climate of Spitzbergen is said to have the most favorable influence on persons suffering from chest diseases.
