MAKING A Ten Strike!

Our Game is Business. Every Pin a Bargain. Every Ball a Strike in this Ten Pin Game.

We want the young men (and old men too) to look us up on prices on Suits made to Order.

We make a business Suit for $12.00 that you can't buy elsewhere for $20.

We make a Dress Suit, Clay or Serge, for $15 that others can't put up for $23.

Our $20 Suit is as good as can be made for $7 more.

The beauty of our Suits to Order is the fit and styles. They are made by Tailors and Cutters who are artists in their profession.

We make three times the Clothing to order that any other concern does and the reason, why its plain. Our fits, styles and prices tell you that.

The old prices of 20 years ago are played out and the men are getting their eyes open to the fact.

Look in our east window for patterns. Come in and see 500 more pieces and you will leave an order.

Our motto still remains the same: Penny Profits - Big Sales.

THE KEYSTONE CLOTHING AND SHOE CO.

The next Democratic State convention will be held in Altoona June 28th.

It is said that the Cresson summer resort will be turned into a picnic resort.

Cabbage, apples, potatoes, onions, parsnips, carrots and radishes at Cash Grocery.

Attend the Epworth League entertainment at M. E. church Friday night. Admission free.

E. J. Severin and W. P. McBride spent Sunday and Monday with friends at Curwensville and Clearfield.

A young man named Geo. Hammell, was run down by an engine on the Pennsylvania railroad at South Fork Saturday night and killed.

Wm. Gallagher, of Allegheny township, Cambria county, has caught 25 coons during the past winter. He sells coon oil as a remedy for rheumatism.—Coalport Standard.

John F. Thomas, of near town, who is a special agent of the Agricultural Department of Pennsylvania left Monday for Pittsburg. He is making his annual tour for the inspection of phosphate for the western part of the state.

F. B. Morey, of Patton, Pa., is in town this week making arrangements to remove his family and household goods to their new home at Patton, where Mr. Morey is engaged in mercantile business, being a member of the firm of the Patton Supply Co. Patton is such a thriving town that Mr. Morey has been unable to procure a house since he went into business there early last summer. Mr. and Mrs. Morey have been residents of Punxsutawney long enough to make many friends who are genuinely sorry to see them go away, and Patton gains a good family when they settle there. Mr. Morey is public spirited and always takes an interest in the morals and commercial advancement of the town where he lives and Patton should not be slow to extend to him and his family a warm welcome.—Punxsutawney News.

Fred S. Kelly, of Johnstown, made a business trip to Patton Monday.

The Glen Campbell Comet says that the members of the Glenwood Cycle Club, of that place, were recently met and made some necessary steps toward the construction of a cycle path. It is thought that the new Opera House will be in a suitable condition to hold the festival in at the closing of the bean guessing contest on May 16.

A miners mass meeting was held in Firemen's hall Tuesday night to consider a proposition made by the Patton Coal Co., which was to the effect that operation at the Ashcroft colliery would be suspended indefinitely and that the company would pay the district price at the Reilly and Flanagan Run collieries. The proposition, however, was not accepted.

Ringling Bros' Excursions.

Arrangements have been completed by which all who wish to attend the performances of Ringling Bros' world's greatest shows in Johnstown May 11 can secure special excursion rates on all lines of travel. This will be the only point in this vicinity where the great show will exhibit during the season, and those who fail to see it will miss the grandest amusement event of the year. Since last season Ringling Bros' famous exhibition has been doubled in size and is now beyond all question or doubt the largest and best combined circus, menagerie and hippodrome in the United States. The performance is given by over 300 high salaried specialists, in three rings, on two stages, in mid-air and upon a huge quarter-mile hippodrome track. The grand free street parade which takes place at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition is the most magnificent display ever seen. Don't miss it.

L. W. Cook, Opera House Block, ALTOONA, PA.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry street, Altoona, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50-cent sizes for sale by Patton Pharmacy, C. W. Hodgkins.
