The Soldiers Farewell.
He was ready to start for the scenes of strife
And bid adieu to his loved ones,
And kissed his mother dear,
But he paused to give his parting pep
In the chest where his food was kept,
When he just collapsed in a dizzy heap
And went and never came back.

The hot heads at Madrid turned out and held a jollification meeting over the reported capture of the Paris and their supposed victory at Manila. Now they are in a mood to lynch the editor of the paper which printed the canards.
The Circusville Review says that a Phillipsburg young man, named Somerville, employed in a barber shop in that place, has been sick for some time. A short time ago he went to Phila. for treatment, but received no benefit, and was sent home to die of consumption. Last Monday he was seized with a violent fit of coughing, during which a toad as large as a turkey egg was ejected. Since getting rid of the toad the young man has steadily improved in health. He cannot account for the presence of the toad in his stomach but that it was there and coughed up is vouched for by responsible parties.

Every Ball a Strike in this Ten Pin Game.
We want the young men (and old men too) to look us up on prices on Suits made to Order.
We make a business Suit for $12.00 that you can't buy elsewhere for $20.
We make a Dress Suit, Clay or Serge, for $15 that others can't put up for $23.
Our $20 Suit is as good as can be made for $7 more.
The beauty of our Suits to Order is the fit and styles. They are made by Tailors and Cutters who are artists in their profession.
We make three times the Clothing to order that any other concern does and the reason, why its plain. Our fits, styles and prices tell you that.
The old prices of 20 years ago are played out and the men are getting their eyes open to the fact.
Look in our east window for patterns. Come in and see 500 more pieces and you will leave an order.

INTERESTING WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., May 2.—The war is going to get started in good earnest during the next few days, probably this week, by the landing of a portion of the regular army in Cuba. The capturing of prizes, and the silencing of a few Spanish batteries in Cuba by the well directed fire from our warships was merely a little prelude, just to give the dons an idea of the marishmanship of Uncle Sam's gunners. The full program is likely to be delayed until some of the Spanish warships can be found to act as targets, then look out for trouble.

The organization of the volunteer army is being pushed as rapidly as possible, in order that the men may be gotten into camps of instruction and seasoned for a campaign in the field. Some of its officers have already been selected, and the remainder will be announced in a few days. It is definitely settled that the command of the first section of the army of Cuban invasion will be given to Brig. Gen. Shafter, of the regular army, who has been selected for one of the volunteer major generals.

Congress will probably at once pass the bill authorizing the enlistment of about 12,000 men for immediate service in Cuba who have had the yellow fever, it having been stated to the President that it would be an easy matter to secure such men in the extreme south. These enlistments will be in addition to the 125,000 first called by the President. Every day the President is compelled to decline offers of regiments of men, because he has no authority to accept them, the states having chosen to furnish their quota of volunteers for their national guard, and in nearly every case having protested because their quota was not large enough. Pennsylvania sent word that it would gladly have furnished the entire 125,000. Should there be a second call, which at this time looks very doubtful, some of the regiments which have been offered will be given a chance for service.

In addition to the share of $50,000,000 recently appropriated by Congress allotted to the War Department, Secretary Alger has been compelled to ask Congress to appropriate more than $24,000,000 to meet war expenses of that department during the two months remaining of the present fiscal year. The money will be promptly voted. It appears that Representative Dingley was speaking by the card when he said the other day that the war expenditures had exceeded $25,000,000 a month since March 1, and would go much higher shortly.
