The Use of the Great Toes.
The negroes of the West Indies use the great toe constantly in climbing. Several years ago, while spending some time at one of the famous resorts in Jamaica, I had an opportunity to observe the skill with which the black women, who do a great part of the manual labor, carried stone, mortar and other building materials on their heads to the top of the five-story tower in a part of the hotel not then finished.

Much of the unerring accuracy with which they (women and girls) chased each other up and down the long ladder, with heavy loads skillfully poised on their waddy pates, was due to the firmness with which they grasped each rung of the ladder with the great toe. They did not place the ball or the hollow of the foot on the rung, but the groove at the juncture of the great toe with the body of the foot, and they held fast by making the back of the other toes afford the other gripping surface. In much the same way the Abyssinian native cavalry grasp the stirrup. And I have seen an one-armed Santo Domingo black, astride a lead mule with a rein held between his great and second toes, while his only arm was devoted to cradling his teamster's whip—Overland Monthly.

STRONG STATEMENTS.

Three Women Relieved of Female Troubles by Mrs. Pinkham.

From Mrs. A. W. SMITH, 50 Summer St., Hildesford, Me.:
"For several years I suffered with various diseases peculiar to my sex. Was troubled with a burning sensation across the small of my back, that all-gone feeling, was despondent, fretful and discouraged; the least exertion tired me. I tried several doctors but received little benefit. At last I decided to give your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The effect of the first bottle was magical. Those symptoms of weakness that I was afflicted with, vanished like vapor before the sun. I cannot speak too highly of your valuable remedy. It is truly a boon to women."

From Mrs. MELISSA PHILLIPS, Lexington, Ind., to Mrs. Pinkham:
"Before I began taking your medicine I had suffered for two years with that tired feeling, headache, backache, no appetite, and a run-down condition of the system. I could not walk across the room. I have taken four bottles of the Vegetable Compound, one box of Liver Pills and used one package of Sanative Wash, and now feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work."

From Mrs. MOLLIE E. HERREL, Powell Station, Tenn.:
"For three years I suffered with such a weakness of the back, I could not perform my household duties. I also had falling of the womb, terrible bearing-down pains and headaches. I have taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and feel like a new woman. I recommend your medicine to every woman I know."

CONGRESS.

SENATE.

While the war revenue measure was not passed by the entire senate Friday, two very important votes were taken, one on a proposition to coin the silver dollar in the treasury and to issue silver certificates against the coin, and the other on the bond proposition presented by the Republican majority of the committee on finance.

In lieu of the seigniorage amendment proposed by the majority of the finance committee, Mr. Woodruff (Dem., Cal.) proposed an amendment directing the secretary of the treasury to coin the silver dollar in the treasury and to issue silver certificates against it. After some discussion a vote was reached and the amendment was agreed to, 45 to 21, several Republicans voting for it. Mr. Aldrich (Rep., R. I.) then pressed the amendment of the minority of the finance committee, providing for the issue of $100,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness and $200,000,000 of bonds to be used exclusively for the payment of the expenses of war. After an extended debate the question was brought to an issue and by the decisive vote of 45 to 21 the bond amendment was incorporated in the bill, as a substitute for the amendment to issue legal tender notes.

The war revenue bill passed the senate Saturday. It is thought highly probable a Spanish official of his rank would make a statement of this kind unless it were made in a formal treaty. Another evidence is the sending of Senor Castillo to Washington, which is considered an indication of the government's intention to move toward securing peace. With this comes the report of the serious embarrassment of the Bank of Spain, on which the government has been debating and which is considered the desperate condition of the Spanish forces at Manila, Santiago and Havana. Spain should be solicitous at this time for peace. But while Spain is thought to be anxious to secure peace, she appears to be unable to secure the services of a disinterested party to take the initiative.

The attention of the public at Madrid is absorbed in the condition of the Bank of Spain, which is considered more serious than any reverse of the war, inasmuch as the impossibility of the bank to help the government means the impossibility of continuing the war, the expenses for conducting which amount to $27,000,000 a month. The bank last Wednesday. All classes of people were represented, and many were looking upon the matter as a return to change notes into silver, fearing the notes would soon be subjected to a discount.

The government continues there is danger of the bank's stock of silver becoming exhausted, which would compel the government to resort to a forced currency, issuing notes of small denomination. The financial outlook of Spain is rather dark. The government has endeavored to raise the interest on its obligations for a loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent, which sum is to be used for the war. The bank will endeavor to raise the loan at home and abroad.

The House practically without debate passed Thursday the emergency deficiency bill, providing for emergency expenses of the army and navy department incident to the war. It was based upon estimates received recently from the departments, and carries items contemplated in the Philippine expedition and the early movement upon Cuba.

In committee of the whole Mr. Cannon's chairman of the appropriations already made on account of the war and likely to develop as essential, including the first six months of the coming fiscal year, at $350,000,000. In response to a question from Mr. Dingley, Mr. Cannon said the war would cost approximately $600,000,000, provided it should continue one year.

SPAIN FAVORS A PEACE MOVEMENT.

SHE IS HELPLESS.

The Embarrassment of the Bank of Spain and the Desperate Condition of Her Troops a Hint as to Cause for a Cease of Hostilities.
The belief is growing in the best informed Government circles that Spain is sincerely anxious to make peace, and that even now she is seeking a favorable opportunity to make overtures in that direction.

Numerous evidences of this have come to the attention of the authorities here, but up to this time no actual move has been made toward ascertaining on what basis the United States would consider peace. It is thought highly probable a Spanish official of his rank would make a statement of this kind unless it were made in a formal treaty. Another evidence is the sending of Senor Castillo to Washington, which is considered an indication of the government's intention to move toward securing peace.

LAYS OF CONFEDERATE STATES VALID.
So Decides the United States Supreme Court in a Recent Decision.
An opinion was rendered by the Supreme Court at Washington in the case of Martinez J. Badley vs. John H. Hunter, administrator, affirming the validity of investments in Confederate bonds during the civil war. In rendering the opinion of the court Justice Harlan said: "The transactions between persons actually residing within the territory dominated by the government of the Confederate States were not invalid, for the reason only that they occurred under the sanction of the laws of the Confederate States, and the government recognizing its authority. The preservation of order, the maintenance of the regulations, the protection of property, the enforcement of contracts, the celebration of marriages, the settlement of estates, the descent and descent of property and similar or kindred subjects were during the war, under the control of the Confederate States, and the laws of those States constituted the so-called Confederate States. What occurred or was done in respect of such matters under the authority of the laws of these de facto governments should not be disregarded or held invalid merely because the government which organized in hostility to the union established by the National Constitution."

Trade Review
Considering the War, There Was Not For Failure
The following are the first full months of actual war, the fact that the cotton market has been smaller, even though but little than in the corresponding months last year, is nearly 10 per cent smaller than in May, 1906, is somewhat encouraging. It is a sign that the cotton market is beginning to show signs of improvement. Large failures were eight in manufacturing, for $2,345,000 last year, against thirteen for $2,965,000 last year, and in trading for $1,000,000, against ten for $1,572,000 in 1907. Hesitation in extending usual credit soon after war began, and the consequent weak more than strong concerns.

A Remarkable Case.

The following case was printed originally in The Monitor, a newspaper published at Newford, Ontario. Doubtless raised as to its truthfulness, consequently a close watch was kept on the case for two years and the original statement has now been completely verified.
Mr. Petch had been a hopeless paralytic for five years. His case has had wide attention. He was confined to his bed, was blocked almost beyond recognition, and could not take solid food. Doctors called the disease spinal sclerosis, and all said he could not live. The Canadian Mutual Life Association after a thorough examination, paid him his total disability claim of $1,500 regarding him as forever incurable. For three years he lingered in this condition. After the day I followed some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People there was a slight change. It followed a tendency to swing freely. He felt in his limbs. This extended by a pricking sensation, and he was induced to take some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. He was restored to his old-time health. A reporter for The Monitor recently called on Mr. Petch and was told: "You may say there is no doubt as to my cure being permanent. I am in better health than when I gave you the first interview and certainly attribute my cure to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." "These pills are sold by all druggists and are considered by them to be one of the most valuable remedial agents known to science."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.
The following simple example of reparative is attributed to W. S. Gilbert. The dramatist was at an evening party, and chanced to be standing near a lady seated in a chair. As the lady departed in a hurry, he mistook him for a waiter. "Call me a four-wheeler, will you?" "Sir," replied the ready author of "The Mikado" and a round dozen other operas, "you are a four-wheeler." "The great was startled by this reply. "Why," he exclaimed, "what the—?" "But Mr. Gilbert interrupted him with an elaborate protest at apology. "I couldn't call you hansom, you know, could I?"

Rights of Newsboys.
The judgment comes from the District court at the national capital that the sale of newspapers on the streets is a legitimate business, and that newsboys have a right to enter street cars and sell newspapers to passengers provided they behave themselves and leave the car when their business is finished. One newsboy was forcibly ejected from a car in Washington some time ago and had a leg crushed by a car running on the other track. He has just obtained an award of $5,000 damages from a jury under instructions to the above effect by the judge.

Well, said the great importer, "you want a position as tea-taster, do you? Have you ever had any experience in this business?" "No," the applicant replied, "but I've boarded around and eaten at restaurants so long that I know I'd be a good one at it. I could tell the genuine tea right off, because it would be so different, you know."—Chicago News.
