

"Bottled Up."
Where, O where, O where, is Corveta?
Where, O where can he be?
He sailed to Santiago harbor
To see what he could see.
The harbor's small and shallow
And room for only one fleet;
Samson or Schley will buy it,
Or give up the "hide and go seek."
O, Schley was an athlete,
And Samson was the same;
But if they don't catch Corveta,
They won't give up the game.
They'll play a good and honest game,
Like do all players true,
And "dearly" think they'll take the land,
I guess we think we do.

The Coal Trade.
Boston.—The market for bituminous coal is very narrow. There is almost no new business, and the present movement is nearly all on contract trade. Two cargoes of Georges Creek coal are here on the market and it is very difficult to find purchasers at any reasonable price.

Philadelphia.—Bituminous trade is moving along nicely although the orders at tide are small in number at present, but that will last for a short time only.
New York.—The soft coal trade shows fair tonnage going forward. There is some complaint that business is slow, and it is generally thought that a fall in freights will bring more orders into the market.

Baltimore.—Orders for bituminous coal from the eastern markets are scarce.

List of Unclaimed Letters.

D. K. Peights, Mrs. Maria Roland, John Reynolds, Miss Jennie Wilson.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they are advertised.
E. A. MELTON, P. M.

A Correction.
EDITOR COURIER:—In last week's COURIER, under the heading of Memorial Services at Patton, the following statement appears: "Everything from the decorating of the dead heroes' graves at St. Augustine and St. Lawrence, to the services conducted in the apple grove below the school building, etc., etc." There was no delegation from Patton or elsewhere in St. Augustine on Memorial Day. The services here were under the auspices of the Veterans of this place, and were largely attended. Your correspondent was mistaken. Please correct in this week's COURIER.
VETERAN,
St. Augustine, Pa., June 5, 1898.

The Cuban question and political issues sink into insignificance with the man who suffers from piles! What he desires, is relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles. C. W. Hodgkins, Patton Pharmacy.

Democratic Convention.
The following were elected at Ebensburg Saturday as delegates to the Democratic convention in Altoona from Cambria county: Herman Banmer, of Johnstown; H. J. Hopple, of Barr township; Frank J. O'Connor, of Johnstown; W. A. Mellon, of Patton; M. D. Bearer, of Ebensburg; E. A. Goodfellow, of Hastings, and J. P. Farrell, of Wilmore. The committee on resolutions introduced a plank to endorse Guffey for governor and A. D. Dively, of Altoona, for lieutenant governor, but the convention let delegates go uninstructed.

THE WONDERS OF SCIENCE
Lung Troubles and Consumption Can be Cured.

An Eminent New York Chemist and Scientist Makes a Free Offer to Our Readers.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Slocum, demonstrating his discovery of a reliable and absolute cure for consumption (Pulmonary Tuberculosis) and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stubborn coughs, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh, and all conditions of wasting away, will send THREE FREE BOTTLES (all different) of his New Discoveries to any afflicted reader of the PATTON COURIER writing for them.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple professional duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial of his infallible cure. Science daily develops new wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has pronounced results as beneficial to suffering humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death. Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 85 Pine street, New York, giving post-office and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition by telling the Doctor that you saw his offer in the PATTON COURIER.
