

100 DROPS

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

Vegetable Preparation for Assisting the Food and Regulating the Stomach and Bowels of INFANTS, CHILDREN, INVALIDS, WEAKLY AND DELICATE PERSONS.

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mezerol. NOT NARCOTIC.

Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

The Sundry Signature of Wm. B. Child NEW YORK.

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Watson

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

A DOUBLE SETBACK.

Millionaire Wanamaker's Campaign Gains Spiked Twice Within a Few Days.

HIS FORCES DEMORALIZED.

His Alliance With the Democracy and Prohibition Forces to Capture the Legislature Is in a Bad Way.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Oct. 4.—Two incidents of the past few days have been a source of annoyance and disappointment to the Wanamaker-Democratic-Prohibition alliance in their efforts to capture the Pennsylvania legislature in the campaign to elect the Philadelphia millionaire, or a Democrat, to the United States senate. One of Wanamaker's newspapers in the Quaker City, which when not opposing the election of regularly nominated Republican candidates for the legislature, is booming Prohibitionist Swallow for governor, has been attempting to make capital in their Democratic-Prohibition campaign by charging that the Republican state organization is opposing the re-election of Congressman Charles W. Stone, in the Warren-Venango district.

STANDING BY HON. C. W. STONE. This campaign invention was quickly exploded when Colonel William A. Stone, the Republican candidate for governor, and United States Senator Boies Penrose went up to Hon. C. W. Stone's district and practically opened the Republican state campaign. Both Colonel Stone and Senator Penrose addressed meetings from the same platform with Hon. C. W. Stone, and their cordial and earnest words of commendation of his public services and appeals to Republicans to rally to his support, in the fight made against him by Free Silverite Sibley, was the most complete refutation that could be given to the malicious misrepresentations of the Wanamaker organs.

The publication in the newspapers of the 30th ult. that the sum of $50,000 had been paid to State Treasurer Beacom by Receiver Barlow, of the People's bank of Philadelphia, was coupled with the announcement from the state treasurer that he had to close their complete indebtedness due the state from insolvent banks was wiped out.

EVERY PENNY PAID THE STATE. "I am happy to say," said Treasurer Beacom to an interviewer, "that with this check for $50,000 the state of Pennsylvania gets every penny due her from banks that have had to close their doors. The money which was deposited in the Chestnut Street bank, of which the late William M. Singery was president, was made good some time ago."

A favorite theme for attacks on the Republican party by Wanamaker and his supporters has been "the broken banks, in which the state had deposits. The allegations on this score now fall to the ground. It is a matter of official record that since 1840 the state of Pennsylvania has not lost a dollar of the $223,000,000 handed by the state treasurer. No financial institution in this or any other county can show as good a record in the handling of such sums of money as the treasury of the state of Pennsylvania.

The Wanamaker forces are in a bay way for new campaign thunder.

Frank Willing Leach Taking a Hand in the Senatorial Contest.

The declaration of Frank Willing Leach in favor of the re-election of Colonel M. E. Quay to the United States senate, and his assuming the direction of the canvass in his interest, has already given dash and spirit to the senatorial campaign. Mr. Leach in an interesting letter to the senior senator points out that he could no longer be affiliated with the so-called "reform" movement, the primary and ultimate purpose of which, as Mr. Leach says, "is Mr. Wanamaker's election to the United States senate through a combination of disaffected Republicans, Prohibitionists and Democrats in the legislature."

"If eight or ten months ago," continues Mr. Leach, "before any primaries had been held, he had concluded to come out into the open as a Republican candidate against you for the United States senate, I should have supported him as vigorously as in 1896. But I could not follow him into a Democratic alliance. First, as a matter of conscience, having had a taste of that sort of thing in 1882, and secondly, because I knew he never could win such a contest, for his Democratic allies would surely cheat him at the end and vote for a member of their own party."

Mr. Leach points out that Colonel James M. Guffey, the free silver leader, is the secret candidate of the Democracy for United States senator.

In a manly way, Mr. Leach frankly tells Senator Quay in his letter, that from April, 1896, to March, 1898, he had refused to follow his leadership, because he felt obliged "to vigorously oppose the domination of those of your lieutenants whom you had unwisely permitted to direct the party organization." He is now convinced that Senator Quay has reassumed his full functions as leader of the party in the state, in fact as well as in name, and he has agreed to take an active part in the canvass for the senator's re-election.

When interviewed by a representative of the Philadelphia Inquirer, at Atlantic City, Senator Quay, in commenting upon Mr. Leach's declaration, said:

"I have received through the mail the letter of Mr. Leach, which appears in this morning's Inquirer, and am much gratified that our recent estrangement is to terminate. It has been pretty certain to my mind for some time that the course of those with whom he has for two years been fraternizing, politically, must be becoming obnoxious and disgusting to him, and he has merely verified my expectations. His friendship just now is exceedingly grateful and he can render me valuable service. I wrote him today suggesting a conference, and shall ask him to take charge of so much of my campaign as he cares to assume."

Origins of Pale Ale. It is not generally known that India pale ale is so called because it was originally made solely with a view to the climate of the East Indies. Once a vessel containing a number of Bass' bogsheads for the east was wrecked in the channel, but the greater part of the cargo was saved. Among other salvage, the underwriters sold the barrels of ale in London. The new beverage was warmly praised by the Londoners who happened to drink it, and in the course of a short time a demand sprang up throughout the English speaking countries for India pale ale.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Privileged Pair. Hojak—Silence is golden, I believe? Tomdik—So they say. Hojak—Then the nuptials of a deaf mute couple might be called a golden wedding.—Detroit Free Press.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

PATTON WOODEN MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
Manufacturers of and Dealers in—
Lumber of all Kinds, Planing Mill Work, Sash and Doors of all Kinds.

WORKMANSHIP AND MEMBER OF GUARANTEED.
Prices and terms reasonable. We have just received a car load of doors and sash to which we call your special attention.

OFFICE
At Mill and in Room No. 7 of Good Building.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve
Cures Piles, Scalds, Burns.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers,
The famous little pills.

Hastings Furniture & Undertaking Co.
UNDERTAKERS,
EMBALMERS,
FUNERAL DIRECTORS,
ETC.,

All calls promptly attended to. Office in Corneliuss building, next to Commercial hotel, Patton Pa., and Spencer building, Hastings, Pa. Also office in Spiece building, Barnesboro.

H. C. EASLY,
Manager.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

DR. C. ERNEST CHASE,
Surgeon - Dentist,
PATTON, PENN'A.
Office in Solomon Building, opposite City Restaurant, Fifth Avenue.

DR. W. I. DOWLER,
Physician and Surgeon.
Office in Mellon block, next door to Postoffice, Patton, Pa.
All calls, day or night, promptly responded to.

DR. S. W. Worrell,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office in Good Building, Room No. 3.
General Surgery and the Eye a Specialty. All calls will receive prompt attention.

Dr. V. A. Murray,
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.
Office in Arlington block, next to Postoffice, Patton, Pa. All night calls responded to promptly. Disease of the ear, nose and throat given special attention.
OFFICE HOURS—7 to 9 a. m. and 12 to 2 p. m.

Reuel Somerville,
Attorney-at-Law,
PATTON, PA.
Office in the Good Building.

JAMES NOLAN,
Attorney-at-Law,
Patton, Pa.
Office in Good Building—107f.

W. M. DAVIS,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
Ebensburg, Pa.
All legal business promptly attended to. Office in Barker Building.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS
The finest line in Patton at
G. J. FITZPATRICK'S
Restaurant on Magee avenue, near P. R. R. depot.
MEALS AT ALL HOURS.

Your Watch may need
Regulating. Let us look at it. No charge for examination. If it needs attention we'll tell you, and if you would have us put it in shape we'll do it well at a regular charge that you won't object to.
JOEER, The Patton Jeweler.

MAHAFFEY HOUSE
Mahaffey, Clearfield Co., Pa.
Accommodations first-class. Best of Liquors and Wines at the bar; stabling attached.
GEORGE FERGUSON,
Prop'r.

CREST SPRINGS FOUNDRY.
We are prepared to do all kinds of Casting. Machinery, iron kettles, stoves, stove repairs, plow points, plow repairs. Our charges are reasonable. Old metal taken in exchange for new work.
4-177 CREST SPRINGS, PA.

Parnell & Cowher,
Agents for—
FIRE, LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE.
REAL ESTATE AGENTS.
Good Building, Patton, Pa.—Phone No. 2.

Get Your
FIRE INSURANCE
from—
James Mellon, J. P.
Good and reliable companies.
Office corner of Fifth and Magee Aves. Patton, Pa.

First Nation's Bank
OF PATTON.
Patton, Cambria Co., Pa.
CAPITAL PAID UP, $50,000.00.
SURPLUS, $40,000.00.
Accounts of Corporations, Firms, Individuals and Banks received upon the most favorable terms consistent with safe and conservative banking.
Standing tickets for sale for all the leading lines. Foreign Drafts payable in the principal cities of the Old World.
All correspondents will have our prompt and personal attention.
Interest paid on time deposits.
A. E. PATTON, WM. H. SANDFORD,
President. Cashier.

R. F. Notley,
—Dealer in—
Wines, Liquors, Beer, Etc.
D. Lutz & Son's Beer a Specialty.
Our Bottled Beer and Porter for family use cannot be excelled. Prices are reasonable.
FLASKS, CORKS, JUGS, ETC.
HASTINGS, PA.

Corks.
At a London club there is the most unique pair of corks in existence. This portiere is formed of hundreds of champagne corks, taken from every known brand of champagne, each of which bears the tin top which adorned it when the cork was in its parent bottle. The corks are made into strings, there being 60 of them to each string. Between every cork there are three big Chinese beads of turquoise blue. Altogether there are 24 strings, and at from 12 to 16 a cork, the portiere represents a total expenditure of about £1,000. The corks are tied to a white enameled pole, with fancy ends, and big snags of blue ribbon adorn the brass knobs. The total effect is distinctly pretty. What makes this unique portiere doubly valuable is the fact that each cork bears the autograph of a famous actor or actress of the present day.—London Standard.

Nothing Plebeian About It.
She was an honored member of one of the hereditary societies and was astonished to learn that she was accused of wire pulling in connection with an election of officers.
"Wire pulling!" she exclaimed. "Such an insult! Why, it is common, positively common. People do that in politics."
"Very true," returned her husband consolingly, "but in politics it is probably just common, ordinary wire, while I have no doubt in your case the reference was to the very highest grade of insulated copper wire."
Naturally that made it seem different.—Chicago Post.

Happy Returns.
Many amusing stories are told connected with dueling. One has recently been told in which an English peer and a politician figured, and we venture to repeat it because we think it worth preserving. The peer, for some offense, was called out by the politician and promptly responded to the challenge. On arriving at home again after the duel his lordship gave a guinea to the coachman who had driven him to and from the ground. The driver appears to have been an exceptionally honest, simple man. He was surprised by the largeness of the sum presented and said: "My lord, I only took you to —"
"Yes, yes; I know that. But the guinea is for bringing me back, not for taking me out. I enjoyed the drive home very much, but not the drive out. That is what I pay you for."—Harper's Round Table.

Telephone Nausea.
A St. Louis man has discovered a new disease which he calls "telephone nausea." The other day, after sending a telephone message, his face grew pale, his lips twitched and he pressed his hand against the pit of his stomach.
"I'm deathly sick," he remarked to a friend. "Telephoning does it. Every time I talk through one of the things I'm overcome with nausea, which seems seated right in my stomach. Sometimes it is an hour or so before I recover."
"That is just my fit exactly," said his friend. "I am made ill every time I use the telephone. Sometimes I feel as if I would faint."—New York Tribune.

Origins of Pale Ale. It is not generally known that India pale ale is so called because it was originally made solely with a view to the climate of the East Indies. Once a vessel containing a number of Bass' bogsheads for the east was wrecked in the channel, but the greater part of the cargo was saved. Among other salvage, the underwriters sold the barrels of ale in London. The new beverage was warmly praised by the Londoners who happened to drink it, and in the course of a short time a demand sprang up throughout the English speaking countries for India pale ale.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Privileged Pair. Hojak—Silence is golden, I believe? Tomdik—So they say. Hojak—Then the nuptials of a deaf mute couple might be called a golden wedding.—Detroit Free Press.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

Frank Willing Leach Taking a Hand in the Senatorial Contest.

The declaration of Frank Willing Leach in favor of the re-election of Colonel M. E. Quay to the United States senate, and his assuming the direction of the canvass in his interest, has already given dash and spirit to the senatorial campaign. Mr. Leach in an interesting letter to the senior senator points out that he could no longer be affiliated with the so-called "reform" movement, the primary and ultimate purpose of which, as Mr. Leach says, "is Mr. Wanamaker's election to the United States senate through a combination of disaffected Republicans, Prohibitionists and Democrats in the legislature."

"If eight or ten months ago," continues Mr. Leach, "before any primaries had been held, he had concluded to come out into the open as a Republican candidate against you for the United States senate, I should have supported him as vigorously as in 1896. But I could not follow him into a Democratic alliance. First, as a matter of conscience, having had a taste of that sort of thing in 1882, and secondly, because I knew he never could win such a contest, for his Democratic allies would surely cheat him at the end and vote for a member of their own party."

Mr. Leach points out that Colonel James M. Guffey, the free silver leader, is the secret candidate of the Democracy for United States senator.

In a manly way, Mr. Leach frankly tells Senator Quay in his letter, that from April, 1896, to March, 1898, he had refused to follow his leadership, because he felt obliged "to vigorously oppose the domination of those of your lieutenants whom you had unwisely permitted to direct the party organization." He is now convinced that Senator Quay has reassumed his full functions as leader of the party in the state, in fact as well as in name, and he has agreed to take an active part in the canvass for the senator's re-election.

When interviewed by a representative of the Philadelphia Inquirer, at Atlantic City, Senator Quay, in commenting upon Mr. Leach's declaration, said:

"I have received through the mail the letter of Mr. Leach, which appears in this morning's Inquirer, and am much gratified that our recent estrangement is to terminate. It has been pretty certain to my mind for some time that the course of those with whom he has for two years been fraternizing, politically, must be becoming obnoxious and disgusting to him, and he has merely verified my expectations. His friendship just now is exceedingly grateful and he can render me valuable service. I wrote him today suggesting a conference, and shall ask him to take charge of so much of my campaign as he cares to assume."

Origins of Pale Ale. It is not generally known that India pale ale is so called because it was originally made solely with a view to the climate of the East Indies. Once a vessel containing a number of Bass' bogsheads for the east was wrecked in the channel, but the greater part of the cargo was saved. Among other salvage, the underwriters sold the barrels of ale in London. The new beverage was warmly praised by the Londoners who happened to drink it, and in the course of a short time a demand sprang up throughout the English speaking countries for India pale ale.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Privileged Pair. Hojak—Silence is golden, I believe? Tomdik—So they say. Hojak—Then the nuptials of a deaf mute couple might be called a golden wedding.—Detroit Free Press.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

Frank Willing Leach Taking a Hand in the Senatorial Contest.

The declaration of Frank Willing Leach in favor of the re-election of Colonel M. E. Quay to the United States senate, and his assuming the direction of the canvass in his interest, has already given dash and spirit to the senatorial campaign. Mr. Leach in an interesting letter to the senior senator points out that he could no longer be affiliated with the so-called "reform" movement, the primary and ultimate purpose of which, as Mr. Leach says, "is Mr. Wanamaker's election to the United States senate through a combination of disaffected Republicans, Prohibitionists and Democrats in the legislature."

"If eight or ten months ago," continues Mr. Leach, "before any primaries had been held, he had concluded to come out into the open as a Republican candidate against you for the United States senate, I should have supported him as vigorously as in 1896. But I could not follow him into a Democratic alliance. First, as a matter of conscience, having had a taste of that sort of thing in 1882, and secondly, because I knew he never could win such a contest, for his Democratic allies would surely cheat him at the end and vote for a member of their own party."

Mr. Leach points out that Colonel James M. Guffey, the free silver leader, is the secret candidate of the Democracy for United States senator.

In a manly way, Mr. Leach frankly tells Senator Quay in his letter, that from April, 1896, to March, 1898, he had refused to follow his leadership, because he felt obliged "to vigorously oppose the domination of those of your lieutenants whom you had unwisely permitted to direct the party organization." He is now convinced that Senator Quay has reassumed his full functions as leader of the party in the state, in fact as well as in name, and he has agreed to take an active part in the canvass for the senator's re-election.

When interviewed by a representative of the Philadelphia Inquirer, at Atlantic City, Senator Quay, in commenting upon Mr. Leach's declaration, said:

"I have received through the mail the letter of Mr. Leach, which appears in this morning's Inquirer, and am much gratified that our recent estrangement is to terminate. It has been pretty certain to my mind for some time that the course of those with whom he has for two years been fraternizing, politically, must be becoming obnoxious and disgusting to him, and he has merely verified my expectations. His friendship just now is exceedingly grateful and he can render me valuable service. I wrote him today suggesting a conference, and shall ask him to take charge of so much of my campaign as he cares to assume."

BUY THE CINDERELLA STOVES AND RANGES.

It is a Great Comfort
TO A TIDY HOUSEKEEPER TO HAVE A GOOD STOVE.

THE CINDERELLA AIR TIGHT

Is one of the most perfect heating stoves, for household use, ever placed upon the market. All the latest and best ideas are incorporated into its construction. Every feature to promote durability, cleanliness and economy has been well planned and developed.

Produces the Greatest Heat From the Least Fuel

The cold air is drawn from the floor, and discharged through the sides and top, thoroughly heated. This method of circulation

PREVENTS COLD FLOORS
And establishes that much desired uniform temperature in all parts of the room.

Will Burn Any Kind of Coal! Will Keep Fire Twenty-four Hours! Can be Used as a Single or Double Heater! All the Good Points—None of the Evils!

EXAMINE THE CINDERELLA BEFORE YOU BUY

For Sale by
J. E. Kirk Hdw. Co.

I SAY, OLD MAN!

Have you been to see the fine line of

Dry Goods

At G. S. Good's store? We have them.

Moderate Prices

Are what most people look for nowadays. If you want GOOD value come to us and get it.

IT'S PRACTICAL ECONOMY

To buy Groceries at this store. Qualities are not sacrificed to price, and yet prices are never high. We get the best things and sell them as close to cost as we can.

Geo S. Good,

Patton, Pa.