WONDER will the politicians of the little town over the hill be so kind as to invite the candidates, whom they tried to defeat, over to banquet with them?

ALREADY persons aspiring to be elected to borough offices have commenced to "figure" on securing the nomination.

AN EXTRA SESSION. The probability of an extra session of Congress in the spring is much stronger, now that it is certain that the Republicans will have a majority in the next House.

A STRAIGHT TIP. Things look a little threatening in connection with the peace negotiations at Paris. That is, from the European point of view.

Missionary Entertainment. On Friday evening, November 18th, a Missionary Entertainment will be given in the M. E. church in Patton.

About noon Friday John McNicola, of this place, was terribly injured by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of W. R. Jones. At Hastings Opera House.

Tony Farrell's company appears this season in a new play, "Garry Owen," which is termed an Irish comedy drama and has an unusually interesting story running through the play. It is entirely unlike the ordinary run of Irish comedy dramas, as the author was particularly careful to avoid utilizing any of the old conventional and threadbare features, which generally preclude Irish plays.

A Very Heavy Vote.

Figures made from official returns from some counties and unofficial figures from others show a total of 958,816 votes cast for the three leading candidates last week. This is the heaviest vote ever cast for Governor, and has been exceeded only in the Presidential elections of 1888, 1892, and 1896.

Two Infants Dead.

John, the 19-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Watkins, of Lang avenue, expired Sunday morning of brain fever, after an illness of about two weeks. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Klucker, were held at the home Tuesday afternoon, after which interment took place at the Patton cemetery.

A Handy Calendar.

The COURIER is in receipt of the 14th annual edition of the Columbia desk-calendar, issued by the Pope Manufacturing company, of Hartford, Conn. This handy reminder has been for years one of the most pleasing of advertising features.

Sheridan Troop Still in Service.

The Sheridan Troop, Tyronne's cavalry organization, of which J. R. Cornelius, of this place, was a member, is still in the United States service, though the furlough expired last Friday and the men have been examined preparatory to being mustered out, which is expected to take place soon, probably this week.

Not Visible in This Vicinity.

Those who so anxiously scanned the heavens Sunday and Monday nights in search of the meteoric display, were disappointed by a heavy fall of stormy clouds that shut off the view. In some portions of the country clouds did not appear and it is said that there was quite a brilliant display, but that none of the shooting stars approached near enough to the earth to penetrate the clouds.

Public Sale.

A public sale will be held at the home of Chas. E. Walters, at Hunter & Baughman's mill, east of Patton, at 1 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 30th. All household goods, wagons, sleds, harness and in fact all personal property will be offered for sale.
