

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors. E. WILL GREENE, Editor.

CHURCH NOTICES.

EPISCOPAL—Rev. D. M. Chinn, pastor. Services at 8 o'clock p. m. every Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

ROYAL Baking Powder. Made from pure cream of tartar. Safeguards the food against alum.

Nice fresh bread at Daus' bakery. H. J. Easley came over from Hastings Saturday.

A. P. Shoff, of Madera, spent Monday in Patton. See the groceries offered for $1.00 at Cash Grocery.

The styles, the goods, the lowest prices, at Goldstein's. The school teachers have again settled down to business.

Winter suits and overcoats at one-half price at Goldstein's. Severin's Imperial Orchestra, fully equipped and up-to-date.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

High-class furnishings for gentlemen at Goldstein's.

G. H. Parker, of Phillipsburg, spent Tuesday in our midst. Leave your laundry at Scheid & Wilkins' barber shop.

An infant of Mr. and Mrs. George Gearheart died Tuesday. Pure rye or corn chop at the Patton Feed and Buckwheat Mills—266t.

W. E. Thun, of Johnstown, made a business trip to Patton Tuesday. M. H. Haines, of Gazzam, Pa., was a visitor to our town one day last week.

H. W. Braugher and lady, of Cherrytree, spent Sunday among friends in town. John Parnell, of Hontsdale, is the guest of his brother, J. E. Parnell, this week.

Your attention is called to the new ad of L. W. Cook, of Altoona, elsewhere in this paper. You cannot do better than to call on Gonid & Besser for first-class plumbing, etc.

H. Gansman, representing the Wasserman Cigar Co., of Altoona, was calling on trade in Patton Tuesday. Prof. Fulton, principal of the Patton public schools, has been confined to his home by illness during the past few days.

Miss Virginia Lingle, of Patton, is the guest of her numerous young lady friends in this place. — Phillipsburg Ledger.

S. A. Rishel, representing J. M. Bannell, music dealer of Johnstown, was looking after business interests in town Tuesday. Mrs. Sarah J. Lent and daughter, Mary, of Wellboro, Tioga county, Pa., are visiting at the home of A. S. Lent on Fourth avenue.

Scalp Level, in Richland township, was made a borough by a decree of court last week. It has some four or five hundred population. Save Your Teeth.

With every 50 cents worth of goods purchased at our store you will be presented with a ticket and the person bringing the largest number of same to us on New Years Day, 1909, will be given a $3.00 pair of shoes free. GOLDSTEIN'S MAMMOTH DEPT. STORE.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Parke.

WORTH YOUR ATTENTION! The Attraction of Worth—We have a lot of goods which are attractive in themselves, but are furthermore attractive from the attractive price we make on them.

You Cannot Do Better Than by calling at our store and inspecting our immense line of CLOTHING, GENTS FURNISHINGS, SHOES, ETC.

WOLF & THOMPSON, PATTON, PA. Good Building.

Webster Griffith, a prominent lumber merchant of Ebensburg, transacted business in Patton Monday, and while here made the COURIER office a pleasant call.

W. H. Denlinger, of Phillipsburg; J. B. McIntyre, of Jersey Shore, and R. A. Shillingford, of Sale, Pa., were among the many visitors to our town Tuesday. The change of the arrival and departure of passenger trains of the Beech Creek and Pennsylvania railroads in Patton, appears to meet with hearty approval by all concerned.

Dominick Stevens left Wednesday for New York, where he will embark on a steamer for his former home, Rome, Italy. He expects to remain in his native country for about four months. On Friday Willis, son of James Cramer, met with a painful accident at the Magee & Lingle colliery, where he is employed.

Mrs. D. H. C. Warren was called to the home of her parents at Gipsy, Indiana county, Saturday, owing to the serious illness of both her brother and sister, Ernest Buchanan and Mrs. Vay Spotts. Councilman W. C. Hubbard, Dr. S. W. Worrell and Geo. S. Good returned Wednesday night on Beech Creek road from a three days' hunting expedition in the wilds of Clinton county. Their game, (?) however, did not arrive on same train.

Charles Langbein, of Carrolltown, a well-known harness maker, was in town Saturday looking for a location to engage in business here. Mr. Langbein decided to come to South Fork we believe it would be a paying venture for him.—South Fork Record.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. C. W. Hodgkins, Patton Pharmacy.—236t.

Did you ever notice the cats about the oyster stands of the city? asked a gentleman who takes an interest in zoology. "They are invariably as fat as butter. That is because they get plenty of shellfish to eat, and, by the way, the fondness of cats for that kind of diet is a mystery which I'd like to hear some evolutionist explain."

Women Nameless in Korea. The Korean woman has not even a name in her childhood she receives a nickname, by which she is known in the family and by her near friends, but which when she arrives at maturity is employed only by her parents.

REQUIRES THOUGHT.

To buy Clothing now-a-days requires thought. You must guard against shoddy and yet must not pay too much.

GOOD CLOTHING

Is cheap and looks well. But poor apparel is dear and looks cheap. Often you must be the judge, and there's the danger: Come to us and you have the assurance that there is

No Cheap Grade In Our Stock.

Men's Suits and Overcoats, $4.50, $5.50, $6, $7, $9, $10 and up to $15.

Elegantly trimmed and well made. See our prices and be convinced That We Are The Reliable Clothiers.

SPECIAL PRICES THIS WEEK IN Ladies' Misses' and Children's Coats.

Also Fur Collarettes. You cannot afford to miss seeing our line. Prices are cheaper and stock larger than ever.

Shoe Department.

If you want to save Fifty Cents on the Dollar come to our Shoe Department this week.

DRY GOODS A SPECIALTY.

See Our Line. Mirkin & Kusner, Good Building.

Next to Bank. PATTON, PA.

Are you looking for some

BARGAINS

That are all the name implies.

Look over these prices carefully: Men's $1.25 fleeced-lined Underwear at 96c the suit.

Men's $2.50 fleeced (all-wool) Underwear $1.88. All Underwear at same proportion.

Men's 50c Gloves 38c. " 35c " 25c. So on up the line.

Men's 50c Caps 38c. Men's 50c Overalls 38c.

Talk about Suits and Overcoats. Well, here is where you find the big stock—any price you may want.

Come and see us, and our Motto Still is: "Penny Profits—Big Sales."

The Keystone Clothing Co.

Next Week

The Patton Supply Co. will occupy this space with an ad which will be of interest to you.