What Shall Be Done

FOR THE DELICATE GIRL

You have tried iron and other tonics. But she keeps pale and thin. Her sallow complexion worries you.

Scott's Emulsion

The oil will feed her wasting body; the glycerine will soothe her cough, and the hypophosphites will give new power and vigor to her nerves and brain.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by Patton Fire Co. No. 1, in Honor of Claud Potter.

At a regular meeting of the Patton Fire Co. No. 1, held December 14, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, in view of the loss of our member, Claud Potter, the deceased our friend and associate, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the relatives of the deceased on his dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him, Who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be printed in the PATTON COURIER and Philadelphia Journal in memory of our departed friend.

Resolved, That the bereaved relatives of the deceased, ED. HUNTER, R. A. LILLY, JOS. GILL, F. ANDERSON, PADDY MERRILL, Committee.

Resolutions of Kili Beck Tribe, No. 269, I. O. R. M.

WHEREAS, The Great Spirit and Supreme Ruler of the universe has, in His infinite wisdom, called to the happy hunting grounds our beloved brother, Claud Potter, and

WHEREAS, The long and intimate relations held with him and the faithful discharge of his duties in this Tribe, make it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this Tribe and prove a serious loss to the community and the public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express and hope that ever so great a loss to all may be overruled by Him, Who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That for the period of 30 days our charter be draped in mourning in remembrance of our brother removed from our council fires.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Tribe, and a copy printed in the PATTON COURIER and Philadelphia Ledger, also a copy forwarded to the bereaved relatives.

Heaven Enough for the Editor.

An editor who died of starvation was being escorted to heaven by an angel.

"May I look at the other place before I ascend?" asked the editor.

"You may take a cursory view," replied the angel, so they went below.

The angel lost track of the editor, but finally espied him sitting behind a big furnace fanning himself and gazing with rapture upon a lot of people in the fire.

There was a sign on the furnace; it read: "Delinquent subscribers."

"You go on," said the editor, "I am not coming, this is heaven enough for me."

WHAT SHALL WE DO?

A serious and dangerous disease prevails in this country, dangerous because so deceptive.

It comes on so slowly yet surely that it is often firmly seated before we are aware of it.

The name of this disease which may be divided into three stages is, First, Kidney trouble, indicated by pain in the back, rheumatism, lumbago, frequent desire to urinate, often with a burning sensation, the flow of urine being copious or scant with strong odor.

If allowed to advance, this reaches the Second stage, or Bladder trouble, with heavy pain in the abdomen low down between the navel and water passage, increasing desire to urinate, with scalding sensation in passing, small quantities being passed with difficulty, sometimes necessary to draw it with instruments.

If uric acid or gravel has formed, it will prove dangerous if neglected.

The Third stage is Bright's Disease. There is comfort in knowing that Dr. Kilmer, the great kidney and bladder specialist, has discovered a Remedy famous for its marvelous cures of the most distressing cases and known as Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

It is sold by all druggists. As a proof of the wonderful virtues of this great remedy, Swamp-Root, a sample bottle and book of valuable information will be sent absolutely free by mail on application to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

When writing kindly mention that you read this liberal offer in the PATTON COURIER.

Cresson Station May be Moved.

It is said the committee of Cresson citizens who went to Altoona last week and interviewed Superintendent Shepard, of the P. R. R., on the subject of moving the railroad station at Cresson eastward into that town met with a very encouraging reception.

The party was composed of Conrad Wentroth, C. J. Hogue, Alex Buck and Charles Conrad.—Johnstown Tribune.

While William Elms, a young pupil of the public schools, was passing along the street near the Patton Pharmacy he was accidentally run down by a horse and sleigh, but fortunately did not receive any serious injury.

Boys returning from the schools should keep a close watch on moving teams, and drivers should particularly keep on the look out at this place for school children. Accidents will be avoided if both do their duty.

An exchange gives the following sound advice to business men: If you expect to conquer in the battle of today, you will have to blow your trumpet in a firm and sturdy way.

If you toot your whistle and lay away your horn, there is not a living soul will know that you were born. The man that owns his acre is the man that plows all day, and the man that keeps a humming is the man that's there to stay.

But the man that advertises with a sort of sudden jerk, is the man that blames the printer because it wouldn't work. The man that gets the business uses lots of printer's ink, not a clatter, not a splatter, but an ad that makes you think.

And plans his advertisement as he plans his shelves and stock, and the future of his business is as solid as a rock.
