

TERRIBLE MISTAKE IN ORDERS.

TWO TRAINS COLLIDE.

Seventeen Dead and Thirty Nine Persons Injured at Dunellen, N. J.—Tender Crashed Through a Passenger Coach.

Just as the engineer of an excursion train was trying to pass a passenger train approaching West Dunellen, N. J., on the Lehigh Valley railroad last Monday, a second train, heading in the opposite direction, struck it, and the collision, which was a head-on one, resulted in the destruction of the passenger train, and the death of seventeen persons and the injury of thirty-nine others.

The collision occurred at Dunellen, N. J., at about 11 miles an hour. The passenger train, which was carrying about 100 passengers, was struck by the excursion train, which was carrying about 100 passengers. The passenger train was derailed and the excursion train was derailed. The collision occurred at Dunellen, N. J., at about 11 miles an hour. The passenger train, which was carrying about 100 passengers, was struck by the excursion train, which was carrying about 100 passengers. The passenger train was derailed and the excursion train was derailed.

C. BA NOT YET FREE.

So Says Gen. Gomez in a Letter to Him.

Gen. Maximo Gomez, from his camp 200 miles westward from Havana near Baracoa, has addressed a proclamation to the Cuban army advising the army to disband until the proceedings at Washington regarding the pay of the insurgent troops have been completed. It is dated December 29, and is in part as follows:

The moment has arrived to give a public explanation of my conduct and my purposes, which are always in accord with my sense of duty to the country I serve. I believed it was my duty not to move, for any political or other object, from the spot where I had drawn my sword so long as the enemies of the army had not completely evacuated the island.

WHOLE POPULATION AROUSED.

Thirteen Open a Sab at Ashburan, Mass. and Secure $1,000.

The safe of the Ashburan bank, Mass., formerly known as the First National, was blown open Tuesday morning and $1,237 stolen. The thieves escaped, but Deputy Sheriff W. H. Richardson says the case has been looked by the burglars in their evident haste to get away. The explosion was violent, completely destroying the office and arousing the entire population of 2,300 or 2,350. The town affords no waterworks. Residents were sent fleeing to the hills, and about 500 Cubans are handling quartermaster's stores at the wharves and elsewhere, 200 Cubans are cleaning the streets and 200 more are cleaning the public buildings.

Two Hundred Troops Killed.

Official news received from the Congo Free State says that a column of 200 troops, commanded by Lieutenant Stevens, was defeated on November 4 by the insurgent tribe of the Congo. Two officers, one sergeant and 200 native troops were killed, one officer and two sergeants were wounded.

Four Killed in a Wreck.

Four dead, two injured—one of these perhaps fatally—and the loss of property of the Southern railway to the amount of about $100,000 is the result of a wreck which occurred Sunday morning on the Knoxville and Ohio branch of the Knoxville division of the Southern railway, one and one-half miles west of Elk Valley, Tenn.

Set for Closing on Fire.

Ide Price was fatally burned in her room in Cincinnati a few days ago by having coal oil thrown over her clothing and then fired.

VERSE TELEGRAMS.

A. D. Henriksen, of Janesville, Wis., a paralytic, has not tasted food for 40 days.

Polish and gas assisted five persons in committing suicide at Chicago last Sunday.

Laurence Harrison, one of the best known police officials in the country, died at St. Louis last week.

Swift & Co., of Chicago, pork packers, have increased their capital stock from $15,000,000 to $17,000,000.

Admiral Sampson's daughter, Olive, was married to Henry Scott, of San Francisco, last Wednesday evening.

Secretary Alger last Saturday decided to send four regiments of infantry to the Philippines by way of the Suez Canal.

Gen. Shafter has left Washington for San Francisco and will again take charge of the department of California.

George Tyler, while engaged in a prize fight with Thomas Foster of New York, received a blow which broke his neck.

William Neeb, editor and proprietor of the "Frederic-Freeman" of Frederic, Wis., with which he was connected 52 years, died, aged 76.

The Chicago University has just received $100,000 in land value from wealthy citizens and $34,000 cash from John D. Rockefeller.

The commissioner has made application for Admiral Dewey's position at Manila as soon as the latter retires from active service.

A syndicate wishes to buy up all of the Chicago street car franchises and offers to give a 3-cent fare. Council is now considering the proposition.

Elizabeth Ann, Charles Lacy, of Detroit, were seriously burned last Sunday and their 2-year-old son fatally, by the explosion of a gasoline stove.

In defiance of Gov. Roosevelt's protest against the high salaries paid some of the New York city laborers, Mayor Von Wyck has increased their wages.

On the charge of murdering her 13-year-old daughter Henrietta McRea of Bessemer, Ala., is now awaiting trial. The girl had a lover and the mother objected.

Joseph Leiter and the Rothschilds of Europe have secured control of the Lido Island and economic works. The plant will manufacture appliances for wireless telegraphs.

An unknown man took refuge in a lime kiln at Brooklyn last Sunday. Monday a fire was started and the man's head was burned completely off before the body was discovered.

Attorney General Monnett, of Ohio, was quoted as saying that the officials of the Standard Oil Company should be sent to jail for contempt of court in refusing to produce their books.

Pennsylvania oil men are now receiving $1.19 per barrel from the Standard. The claim that consumption exceeds production and in fair speculation is thought to receive $1 for their crude oil.

Elizabeth Jane Pace, the other night, entered a Washington mission and requested that she be prayed for. Just as the service commenced she fell dead of heart disease. Aged 35 years.

At a meeting of the Ohio centennial commissioners a committee consisting of C. M. Spitzer, I. E. Knisely and S. H. Schenck, of Washington, asked for $50,000 for the Ohio centennial.

The Ohio miners in convention at Columbus endorsed the attitude of Governor Tanner, of Illinois, in the recent mining troubles at Pana, and in the Cuban army advising the army to disband until the proceedings at Washington regarding the pay of the insurgent troops have been completed.

A number of Philadelphia wholesale merchants have decided to refund the railroad fare of the retail merchants who come to make purchases from the smaller towns. This move will keep the retailers from going to New York.

H. Wurster, night telegraph operator for the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company at Bingen, Pa., was murdered last Saturday night by Lewis Stout, 17 years old, who was traced by the tracks he left in the snow.

By a Supreme court decision the title of Pullman, Ill., will in a few days pass out of the hands of the corporation and become a free community. The Kingrick residences and public buildings will be sold to the highest bidder.

The office of County Attorney Van R. Brown, of Red Lake, Minn., was attempted last Thursday. A dynamite bomb was placed over his office door, and fell when Brown was explaining with terrific force. Brown was knocked senseless.

At Eagle City, Alaska, on December 11, Jack Jolly, saloonkeeper and gambler, who had gathered around him a gang of toughs and was terrorizing the mining camps, was arrested by a vigilance committee to leave. He refused and the next day was lynched.

Andrew Jackson day banquets were held in many cities. At the one in Chicago William J. Bryan declared that the Democratic party is arrayed against expansion. The starting growth of trusts under the McKinley administration called forth many warnings.

About 1,200 Cubans are now working on the new branch of the railroad from the government dock at Havana with connect with the main line. 500 Cubans are handling quartermaster's stores at the wharves and elsewhere, 200 Cubans are cleaning the streets and 200 more are cleaning the public buildings.

Three people were killed and several others quite seriously injured in a fire at the Hotel Richelieu, Pittsburgh, last Sunday morning. The list of dead includes: Amos R. Landis, aged 28, Grapeville, Pa., suffocated; George A. Waters, aged 28, Camden, N. J., suffocated; Mrs. Kate Boyle, aged 23, Pittsburgh, suffocated.

Husband Opens a Court Wit.

A story of horrible inhumanity has come to light in Vienna. John Braun recently lost his fortune in business and his wife, Anna Braun, told him she was hungry and he should shoot himself so she could get the life insurance. Braun shot himself but not fatally, and on his recovery his wife told him to hang himself. He was found dead soon after hanging to a beam. Later Mrs. Braun hired a workman to kill her mother, whose only heir she was. The workman told the police and Mrs. Braun was arrested.

Successful Child Preacher.

There was a large crowd in Mt. Olivet church New York last Sunday to hear the 5-year-old negro evangelist, Lawrence Dennis, who has recently been astonishing New Jerseyites with his precocity. Lawrence is still in dress and wears a hat. He preaches a vigorous doctrine of salvation by faith and leads the singing. After the services he brought out a bunch of his photographs and offered them at 25 cents apiece. The church authorities interfered with the sale.

DETERMINED TO RESIST AMERICA.

STUBBORN NATIVES.

Philippines Has Saturated Their Buildings at Iloilo With Keroseene—United States Soldiers Killed by a Rebel.

The proclamation of the United States government made public to the Philippines last week has not been received with favor by the natives. Although they were promised all possible liberty and advantages the rebels still insist on independence.

Colonel Pollock, the special embassy of General Otter between Manila and Iloilo, has arrived at Manila with dispatches. The situation, when he left Iloilo was practically unchanged. The streets were barricaded, and it was expected that the principal buildings threatened to be destroyed the whole business section by fire at the first shot of bombardment.

The banks were shipping their treasure to the United States transport Newport and other vessels. The family of the American vice consul has gone to the Newport.

Colonel Pollock's proclamation that President McKinley's proclamation had been typewritten aboard ship, as the printer on shore declined to do the work, and when the text of the proclamation was read to them ridiculed the notion that conciliation was possible.

A syndicate wishes to buy up all of the Chicago street car franchises and offers to give a 3-cent fare. Council is now considering the proposition.

Elizabeth Ann, Charles Lacy, of Detroit, were seriously burned last Sunday and their 2-year-old son fatally, by the explosion of a gasoline stove.

In defiance of Gov. Roosevelt's protest against the high salaries paid some of the New York city laborers, Mayor Von Wyck has increased their wages.

On the charge of murdering her 13-year-old daughter Henrietta McRea of Bessemer, Ala., is now awaiting trial. The girl had a lover and the mother objected.

Joseph Leiter and the Rothschilds of Europe have secured control of the Lido Island and economic works. The plant will manufacture appliances for wireless telegraphs.

An unknown man took refuge in a lime kiln at Brooklyn last Sunday. Monday a fire was started and the man's head was burned completely off before the body was discovered.

Attorney General Monnett, of Ohio, was quoted as saying that the officials of the Standard Oil Company should be sent to jail for contempt of court in refusing to produce their books.

Pennsylvania oil men are now receiving $1.19 per barrel from the Standard. The claim that consumption exceeds production and in fair speculation is thought to receive $1 for their crude oil.

Elizabeth Jane Pace, the other night, entered a Washington mission and requested that she be prayed for. Just as the service commenced she fell dead of heart disease. Aged 35 years.

At a meeting of the Ohio centennial commissioners a committee consisting of C. M. Spitzer, I. E. Knisely and S. H. Schenck, of Washington, asked for $50,000 for the Ohio centennial.

The Ohio miners in convention at Columbus endorsed the attitude of Governor Tanner, of Illinois, in the recent mining troubles at Pana, and in the Cuban army advising the army to disband until the proceedings at Washington regarding the pay of the insurgent troops have been completed.

A number of Philadelphia wholesale merchants have decided to refund the railroad fare of the retail merchants who come to make purchases from the smaller towns. This move will keep the retailers from going to New York.

H. Wurster, night telegraph operator for the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company at Bingen, Pa., was murdered last Saturday night by Lewis Stout, 17 years old, who was traced by the tracks he left in the snow.

By a Supreme court decision the title of Pullman, Ill., will in a few days pass out of the hands of the corporation and become a free community. The Kingrick residences and public buildings will be sold to the highest bidder.

The office of County Attorney Van R. Brown, of Red Lake, Minn., was attempted last Thursday. A dynamite bomb was placed over his office door, and fell when Brown was explaining with terrific force. Brown was knocked senseless.

At Eagle City, Alaska, on December 11, Jack Jolly, saloonkeeper and gambler, who had gathered around him a gang of toughs and was terrorizing the mining camps, was arrested by a vigilance committee to leave. He refused and the next day was lynched.

Andrew Jackson day banquets were held in many cities. At the one in Chicago William J. Bryan declared that the Democratic party is arrayed against expansion. The starting growth of trusts under the McKinley administration called forth many warnings.

About 1,200 Cubans are now working on the new branch of the railroad from the government dock at Havana with connect with the main line. 500 Cubans are handling quartermaster's stores at the wharves and elsewhere, 200 Cubans are cleaning the streets and 200 more are cleaning the public buildings.

Three people were killed and several others quite seriously injured in a fire at the Hotel Richelieu, Pittsburgh, last Sunday morning. The list of dead includes: Amos R. Landis, aged 28, Grapeville, Pa., suffocated; George A. Waters, aged 28, Camden, N. J., suffocated; Mrs. Kate Boyle, aged 23, Pittsburgh, suffocated.

Husband Opens a Court Wit.

A story of horrible inhumanity has come to light in Vienna. John Braun recently lost his fortune in business and his wife, Anna Braun, told him she was hungry and he should shoot himself so she could get the life insurance. Braun shot himself but not fatally, and on his recovery his wife told him to hang himself. He was found dead soon after hanging to a beam. Later Mrs. Braun hired a workman to kill her mother, whose only heir she was. The workman told the police and Mrs. Braun was arrested.

Successful Child Preacher.

There was a large crowd in Mt. Olivet church New York last Sunday to hear the 5-year-old negro evangelist, Lawrence Dennis, who has recently been astonishing New Jerseyites with his precocity. Lawrence is still in dress and wears a hat. He preaches a vigorous doctrine of salvation by faith and leads the singing. After the services he brought out a bunch of his photographs and offered them at 25 cents apiece. The church authorities interfered with the sale.

NEW SILVER CERTIFICATES.

First of Secretary Gage's Uniform Design Put in Circulation.

Four thousand $1 silver certificates of the new uniform design that Secretary Gage has arranged shall apply to each denomination of bill, whether silver certificates, treasury notes or United States notes, reached the United States sub-treasury at New York Tuesday. They were quickly distributed to individuals and banks.

Each note has printed in blue on its face a large figure of the treasury department seal. The other figures denoting the denomination of the note are all large and bold. Treasury notes and United States notes are each to have their denomination and seal printed in blue on the reverse side of the note.

It was the belief of many financiers that Mr. Brice was a multi-millionaire. Many believed that his fortune would be valued at from five to ten million dollars, and the comparative small amount of $200,000 was a great surprise. Mr. Brice left no will.

BRICE WORTH $600,000.

It Was Generally Thought That He Was a Multi-Millionaire.

A petition for letters of administration on the estate of ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice, who died on December 14, 1894, was filed in the surrogate's office by attorneys, for Mrs. Calvin Brice, the widow. The petition states that no real property was left by the decedent, and that his personal estate was valued at $600,000.

Mrs. Brice gave the name of the heirs as Stewart M. Helen O. Marzetti K. Walter Kirkpatrick, and John Brice, who are all of full age, and reside with their mother in New York city. The petition was granted. Brice was appointed administrator.

It was the belief of many financiers that Mr. Brice was a multi-millionaire. Many believed that his fortune would be valued at from five to ten million dollars, and the comparative small amount of $200,000 was a great surprise. Mr. Brice left no will.

CUBAN LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.

Gen. Sangulany Defies the Order Which Forbids Him to Depart in Uniform.

Major General Ludlow, military governor of the department of Havana, has recently requested the Cuban General Julio Sangulany to stay outside the city, or in the event of his entering it, not to wear his uniform in public. Sangulany was informed in writing that he would be severely dealt with in the event of his disobeying the order.

But Tuesday he was seen around the city conspicuous in a white duck suit and wearing the three gold stars of a major general. Attended by eight or ten friends, curling his long gray mustache and ostentatiously posing in the cafes utterly without regard to General Ludlow's direct order, he seems to be looking for trouble.

Though unpopular with the Cuban people, he is a large soldier and a lower class. The attention of General Rodriguez will be called to this obnoxious behavior, and it is expected that he will be ordered to leave the city.

STANDARD DEFIES THE COURT.

Will Not Produce Its Books and May be Ousted From Ohio.

In the arguments before the supreme court of the state of Ohio, a few days ago of the motion of the attorney-general to dismiss the master commissioner's investigation of the Standard Oil Company in open court, Hon. Virgil P. Kline, of Cleveland, attorney for the oil company, was forced to make some very positive statements and admissions. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers. He declared in the first place, in response to the question of the court, that the company will not under the former order of the court produce its books and papers.

CITY TREASURER FOUND MURDERED.

SAFE ROBBED.

William Blevins Finds His Father Dying in His Office at New Castle—Large Reward Offered for the Assassins.

City Treasurer John Blevins, of New Castle, Pa., was Saturday night murdered in his office in City hall. The floor of his office was covered with blood; while there was plain evidence on every side that after committing the crime of murder the guilty ones had ransacked the place.

Almost fainting at the sight, he rushed outside, found a policeman, Dr. Pollock, and the three entered the office. Dr. Pollock raised Mr. Blevins' head and at that instant the latter breathed his last.

The office was an awful sight. The private room was covered with blood, and Mr. Blevins' face was battered almost out of human semblance. The nose was broken, the lower jaw shattered, a great hole in the back of the head, and there were no less than a dozen cuts and bruises on his head. He had evidently made a desperate struggle, for there were blood pools in a score of places about the room and splashes on the walls. His hands were torn and bleeding. One hand was almost severed, showing that he had endeavored to resist the attack.

It is not known just how much money was taken, but it is thought the robbers got about $200. The two cash boxes had disappeared. The police are of the opinion that the crime was committed by some one who was well acquainted with the office and with whom the dead man was also well acquainted.

The business is conducted was always security locked, and that, too, from the inside, so that a person who was entering the office could not reach the vaults to wear his uniform in public. Sangulany was informed in writing that he would be severely dealt with in the event of his disobeying the order.

Mr. Blevins, to the best knowledge of the police, never accompanied with his father, never went very well to go inside and this is why the officers think that the crime was committed by someone he knew well. They reason that the murderer, as soon as he knew that he was recognized by Mr. Blevins, became terrorized and made the murderous assault.

The city council and county commissioners met Sunday afternoon and each body offered $2,000, making a total of $4,000, for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers. The city is in a state of excitement beyond belief. There was no more popular man in the county than the dead man, and his murderer is caught it is not too much to say he would speedily meet his end.

Mr. Blevins was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, February 3, 1828, but came to Lawrence county with his parents in 1831. He was elected treasurer of the county in 1875 and served three years and was appointed city treasurer to fill an unexpired term in 1884. Since then he has been elected term after term and was the only candidate for re-election at the coming spring election.

Fast Disposed of the Policemen.

Two marked men early Tuesday morning captured a policeman at Fort Scott, Kan., took him a mile into the woods, bound and gagged him, and with rare coolness held up and robbed nine men in the Cottage and the Kansas City, Ft. Scott & Memphis hotels, on prominent business streets. Alfred Meade, an engineer on the Kansas City, Ft. Scott & Memphis one of the victims, was shot by one of the robbers, while George H. Young, a negro, was mistaken for one of them and shot. Several hours after the robbery the police identified the bandits as they boarded the St. Louis bound M. K. & T. passenger train and had a pitched battle with them, but they got away.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.

An infernal machine exploded in the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham depot, New Albany, Miss., last Tuesday and five men were seriously injured. The machine was shipped to Jesse Swain, who is under indictment for killing a man several months ago. Swain and four friends gathered around the box and opened it. There was an explosion and the five men were hurled in all directions and the depot was partially wrecked. There is no trace of the sender.

Internal Machine Injures Five Men.