ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone today as the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Trouble Over the Hull Army Bill.—The Chief Charge to be Aired.

Washington, Feb. 14.—A battle royal is on between the President and the Senators who oppose the Hull army bill, which was recently passed by the House, and which, after being slightly amended in committee, has been reported to the Senate. These Senators say the bill will not be allowed to pass, and offer as a compromise, to authorize the maintenance of the present status of the regular army for another year from the first of next July. The President rejected the compromise, and served notice on those who tendered it, that if the Hull bill was not passed, he would call an extra session of the next Congress as soon as the present session ends. The Senators say they will fight the Hull bill to the end and that they can stand an extra session if the President can. There the matter stands. If one or the other doesn't give way, an extra session is certain, and many think it certain, regardless of the army bill, by reason of the probable failure of some of the appropriation bills, and regard the fight over the army bill as merely an attempt by politicians to place the responsibility for an extra session on the other side. Everybody says it will be the action of non-action of the Senate that will determine whether an extra session will be held. How doubtful that body is may be judged by the following words, said to have been used by Speaker Reed, in a recent conversation: "God only knows what the Senate will do, and he won't tell."

According to the latest from General Otis there is no longer an organized army of the Filipinos on the island of Luzon. That army was doomed from the hour that Aguinaldo was foolish enough to order it to attack our troops at Manila. In one short week it has been whipped as fast as our troops could get at them, and is now no more. General Otis has been allowed to conduct the whole business to suit himself, and nobody need be surprised at any time to get news that he has captured Aguinaldo, although it might be best for all concerned if Aguinaldo should escape and go to Europe and enjoy some of the money he has stolen in the Philippines.

While President McKinley's special message to Congress, pointing out the pressing need for a cable controlled by the United States to Hawaii and the Philippines, does not in so many words say that it would be best for the government to lay and maintain a cable itself and have no dealings with private corporations, it is generally given that interpretation in Congressional circles. The military court of inquiry ordered to investigate the embalmed beef charges made by General Miles, will meet in Washington Wednesday of this week. Friends of the President are glad that he has taken this open and above-board method of giving General Miles a chance to show whether his proofs are good or not, regardless of the declaration in the report of the war investigating commission that the beef issued to the army was good. As this court will be strictly a military affair, it will have no authority to compel civilians to testify, but there should be military testimony enough obtainable to settle this matter for good and all. Either had beef was issued or it was not.

THE TWO HOUR TRAINS

Between Philadelphia and New York via Philadelphia & Reading Railway.

For luxurious, swift and at the same time perfectly safe traveling the above trains cannot be excelled, a special notable feature is the entire absence of smoke, soot and cinders, the engines burning only hard coal. The introduction of these trains by the Philadelphia & Reading was a great boon to the business men of both cities, and the patronage by this class of passengers has steadily increased as well as that of other persons for pleasure or business purposes. It is a common practice by these travelers to leave home in Philadelphia after breakfast, and spending the day in New York return in time for 7 o'clock dinner.

Pullman cars are attached to all these trains, and the 7:30 a. m. to and 4 p. m. from New York also have Pullman Buffet parlor car. To specially accommodate the gentlemen the 8:30 a. m. to and 4:30 p. m. from New York, also have a parlor smoking car attached.

For time tables apply to any Philadelphia & Reading ticket agent, or address Edson J. Weeks, General Passenger Agent, Reading Terminal, Philadelphia.

To Florida.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company's third tour of the present season to Jacksonville, allowing two weeks in Florida, will leave New York and Philadelphia by special train of Pullman palace cars Tuesday, February 21. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth), and meals en route in both directions while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: New York, $50.00; Philadelphia, $48.00; Canandaigua, $52.85; Erie, $54.85; Wilkesbarre, $50.35; Pittsburg, $53.00 and at proportionate rates from other points. For tickets, itineraries, and full information apply to ticket agents; Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York; 789 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.; or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agt., Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

A New Library for the State College.

Mr. Carnegie's offer to give $100,000 for the erection of a library building for the use of The Pennsylvania State College has attracted very wide and favorable comment. The only condition attached to his offer is that the State shall provide a sufficient sum for its annual maintenance. Mr. Carnegie says: "The College is doing such great work for the State that I do not think any individual should contribute money to it for additional buildings, unless the State agrees to maintain them. It is a duty which the State owes to its bright young men who attend the College of their own State instead of going to other states for their education. Born Pennsylvanians, they grow up Pennsylvanians."

"Out in the Streets." A popular drama, entitled "Out in the Streets," will be presented by a home talent company in Amusement Hall, Westover, Pa., Saturday evening, February 18th. Following are those who will compose the cast of characters:

Col. Jasper Wayne... J. J. Coffey
Solomon Davis... Chas. Westover
Matt Davis... Perry Moore
North Carolina Pete... E. R. McDowell
Dr. Medford... Archie Westover
Mrs. Bradford... Pearl Lower
Mrs. Wayne... Myrtle Curry
Nina Wayne... Emma Park
Miss Bradford... Isabelle Kuhn
Policeman... S. A. Kuhn

All are invited to attend. Admission 10 and 20 cents. Doors open at 7:30. Play begins at 8 o'clock sharp.

A Noteworthy Departure.

It has been considered wonderful to publish a magazine for 10 cents containing as much reading matter as would be given in 50 columns of the average newspaper. But the great Philadelphia Sunday Press comes to the front with the announcement that, beginning next Sunday, February 19, it will be so enlarged that each number will contain six times as much reading matter as any ten cent magazine. Just think of it! For five cents you can get The Philadelphia Sunday Press and find as much entertainment and instruction as if you spent 60 cents for magazines. Look out for next Sunday's Press. It will be wonder.

Special Announcement.

The members and friends of the Baptist church desire to announce to the general public that they are making elaborate preparations for Washington's birthday, February 22nd next, when a program of elaborate excellence will be presented, consisting of solos, quartettes, etc., vocal and instrumental, rendered by Patton's best talent. The whole will conclude with one of Pastor Kluecker's most happy lecture efforts, "Getting On in the World."

"Detectives."

There are probably not less than a score of men walking about New Orleans today who are decorated under their lapels with large tin stars bearing the catalytic word "detective." They are patrons of the various private agencies of the north that advertise for "shrewd men as operatives in all parts of the country," and supply the tin star and a beautifully lithographed "certificate" for the trifling sum of $5. The wearers of their insignia labor under the hallucination, as a rule, that they are treated with some special right to collar their fellow men. The same agencies do a land office business in wages, false bank and other disguises which the amateur sleuth believes firmly are part of the necessary equipment of the profession.

Now and then one of these deluded individuals, who are to be found in all large cities, gets himself into trouble by attempting to make an arrest, but, as a rule, the man is harmless and his victims confine themselves to prowling through side streets and looking suspicious. They find great joy in putting on board in those circles and hearing folks say in awed undertones, "Do you know Mr. So-and-so is a detective?" It is one of the queerest of all queer phases of city life.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Both Are Married.

The ordinary paragraph in referring to a marriage nearly always says that Mr. John Smith or Mr. James Brown was married to Miss Nellie Green or Miss Fanny White. It would lead one to think that the man only was married, while the fact is both were married. The woman is as much married as the man. The man was not simply married to the woman. The woman and the man were married, and the announcement should be that Mr. So-and-so and Miss So-and-so were married. Rev. Dr. Sunderland wrote a series of articles on this subject some years ago which were published in this city. He laid down the general principle that he did not marry the man to the woman, but that he married the man and the woman, and married one just as much as he did the other. He discontinued the issuing of wedding cards by parents that their daughter was married to any particular person, and said he did not want to perform any marriage ceremony in which any such announcement was made.—Washington Star.

Peabody and the Boatman.

Many years ago John Bright and George Peabody, the philanthropist, were fishing in a little Irish stream. Late in the evening, after a hard day's work, the party arrived at the landing stage, and Bright, accosting the inevitable policeman on the bank, said: "What is the proper price to pay these boatmen, constable?" He replied, "Seven shillings and sixpence, yer honor, but some gentlemen give them 10 shillings."

Bright, turning to his companion, said, "I have no change, Peabody; have you three half crowns?" The millionnaire produced the coins and gave them to one of the boatmen. "Is that all ye're giving me?" asked the latter. "That's all," said Peabody. Holding the coins in the open palm of his hand, and slowly scratching his head with the other, the boatman said: "And they call ye Peabody, don't they? Well, I call ye Paynoody."

Nauseous Doses.

Nauseous medicines nowadays possess none of the terrors that many of us remember when "powders" were given in jam and castor oil in hot milk, as pharmacists have invented so many ways of giving the nastiest drugs without any favor at all. Castor oil, cod liver oil and things of that disagreeable kind are made up in little flexible capsules, which slip down the throat like a strawberry. These capsules are also made in two parts, so that any one can buy them empty and put the powder or other drug in himself, sealing them and then swallowing them without knowing that the drug has a taste. Then there is the round wafer paper, in which can be inclosed any kind of bolus, pill or powder and which, when moistened, can be swallowed with ease. New York World.

A Clever Witness.

In a recent county court case in which a man sued another for balance of wages the defendant called a witness. Witness—I beg pardon, your honor. Before I give my evidence I want my expenses. Judge (to defendant)—Pay him 7s 6d. The defendant having done so, the judge said, "Now that you have had your expenses, what do you know of the case?" Witness—Nothing at all, your honor.—London Tit-Bits.

Cautious Tennyson.

A clergyman is quoted by Sir M. E. Grant Duff in his memoirs as authority for the story that on the occasion of Hallam's going down to Richmond to be godfather to Tennyson's eldest boy the historian asked, "What is to be the child's name?" "Hallam," answered the poet. "I don't like surnames for Christian names," said the other. "Why not call him Alfred?" "What if he were to turn out a fool?" was the reply.

George IV's Will.

Mrs. Byrne, in her "Social Hours with Celebrities," tells this anecdote of George IV's will: "I remember one of the Rev. Mr. Wagner's stories concerned some nobleman who had enjoyed an unenviable reputation for assiduity. It had been suggested to the king to confer on him an order of the Thistle, which had become vacant. (Give the Thistle to ——" exclaimed the king. "Why, he'd eat it!"

Eschenburg Man is Great Luck.

Mr. Abel Lloyd, of Lloyd Springs, Eschenburg, is one of the nine Pennsylvanians who compose the Barker's Gold Mining company that has struck it rich in Colorado. The company's mine is near the Isabella mine of Cripple Creek, whose ore is running $24,000 to $200,000 per ton. The shaft is down 125 to 150 feet with assays of $17 per ton, and on a direct line with the Isabella lead. Their mines are also surrounded with rich paying mines such as the Emma No. 1 and No. 2, Buena Vista and others.—Mountaineer-Herald.

THE KIDNEY COMPLEXION.

The pale, sallow, sunken-cheeked, distressed-looking people you so often meet are afflicted with "Kidney Complexion." Their kidneys are turning to a papyrus color. So is their complexion. They may also have indigestion, or suffer from sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia, brain trouble, nervous exhaustion and sometimes the heart acts badly. The cause is weak, unhealthy kidneys. Usually the sufferer from kidney disease does not find out what the trouble is until it is almost too late, because the first symptoms are so like mild sickness that they do not think they need a medicine or a doctor until they find themselves sick in bed. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root will build up and strengthen their weak and diseased kidneys, purify their diseased, kidney-poisoned blood, clear their complexion and soon they will enjoy better health. You can get the regular sizes at the drug store, at fifty cents and one dollar, or you may first prove for yourself the wonderful virtues of this great discovery, Swamp-Root, by sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent to you absolutely free by mail. When writing kindly mention that you read this liberal offer in the PATTON COURIER.
