

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
E. WILL GREENE, Editor.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
One copy, one year, in advance, $1.00
No papers discontinued until all arrears are paid, unless at the option of the publishers.
Entered at the Postoffice at Patton as second-class mail matter.

Another Version.
Mary had a little calf—
It worried Mary so—
For every where that Mary wheeled
Her calf was sure to show.
It followed her to a store one day,
But this little calf, so true,
But the dealer quickly smoothed it
In a knee-high leather shoe. —L. A. W. B.

The finest line of loose coffees in town at the Cash Grocery.

H. C. Brew, of Bellefonte, Pa., spent Friday of last week in town.

Note change in Ed. A. Mellon's Cleveland bicycle ad this week.

The work of paving Magee avenue has commenced in good earnest.

H. and R. W. Gittings, of Veters, were visitors to this place Friday.

Michael Gray, who lives near Spangler, had his hand amputated Saturday.

The Mahaffey Gazette and the Glen Campbell Graphic are having a child's spat.

Gus Wolf, of Curwensville, was looking after business interests in Patton Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff Elmer E. Davis, of Ebensburg, transacted business in Patton Friday.

John Hunter is home from Nant-y-go, where he has been engaged for the past six months.

John A. Craig, of Johnsonburg, was among the many strangers who visited this place last week.

John Nedmyer, one of St. Lawrence's leading citizens, was seen on our streets Saturday.

W. T. Runyon, a traveling salesman of Harrisburg, was a guest at the Commercial hotel Saturday.

The COURIER office has just turned out 150 by-laws for Marcellus Council No. 446, Y. M. I., of Patton.

A little over five weeks till the 4th of July. Is Patton going to be left behind in a celebration this year?

See change in C. W. Hodgkins ad this week. He has something to say in regards to flags for Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lupper and son Arthur, attended the Knight Templar conclave held at Altoona this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, celebrated their 25th (silver) anniversary Saturday, June 20.

Mrs. C. E. Patton and son, John, left Saturday last for a visit in Ebensburg, Cambria county.—Curwensville Review.

The storm of Wednesday of last week was a little too much for the big iron liberty pole in the public school grounds.

Joseph Parnell, wife and child, of Patton, spent Sunday with the former's parents in this place, returning home on Monday.

It is stated that a number of business men of Carrolltown have organized a company and will build a creamery in the near future.

Frank Pennington, formerly a resident of Patton, but who now resides at Windber, Pa., was a visitor to this place the first of the week.

Word from Washington announces the appointment of M. J. Halney as postmaster at Coupon, Cambria county, vice Henry Hagen, resigned.

The Ebensburg Mountaineer-Herald of last week contained three splendid half-tone cuts of views of scenery and prominent buildings at that place.

A correspondent at St. Boniface says that the parties of that section who have reserved coal have had no occasion to regret it. While the price paid fifteen years ago was ten to twelve dollars per acre, to-day some of the people of that vicinity refuse to sell for less than $150 per acre.

"Rex" Photo's 10 for 10 cents. Day or night, open Sundays.

W. C. Williams, of Kermoor, Pa., was a visitor to our town Friday.

Reuben McPherson attended the Knights Templar Conclave at Altoona Tuesday.

Nicholas Fryckland, of Osceola Mills, is the guest of his son, Landlord A. R. Fryckland.

Sam'l Kelley and F. A. Hurd, of Chest Springs, were seen on Patton streets Monday.

A. W. Palmer, a commercial salesman of Philadelphia, registered at the Palmer house Friday.

R. C. Edleblute, of the firm of the Gallitzin Bottling Company, of Gallitzin, spent Friday in Patton.

J. L. Rich, the popular shoe salesman of Philadelphia, was circulating among his customers one day last week.

Fred. Heller, employed by a lumber firm at Ashville, was shaking hands with old friends in town Saturday.

Wm. Gill has been appointed by the Burgess to act as chief of police until an election can be made by the Borough Council.

Miss Isabelle H. McGee, of McGee's Mills, Pa., spent Saturday in Patton. She was here for the purpose of organizing a class in music.

Everybody is invited to attend a festival in Goldstein's hall to be held for the benefit of Baptist church of Patton, Memorial Day, May 30.

Monday morning all the trains on the Windber and Dunlo branch of P. R.R. which were cancelled pending the smallpox fight, resumed their regular running.

The damage to crops and buildings of farms of this section of North Cambria, caused by the storm of last Wednesday is estimated at several thousands of dollars.

Mrs. James McCrossin, of Clearfield, spent a few hours in Patton Saturday, while en route to Vintondale, where her husband is interested in the manufacture of lumber.

Master Howard Bloom is now an employe of the COURIER office. He is learning the art of all arts—in other words, is acting in the capacity of the "printer's devil."

Mrs. Sam'l Edmiston received a letter Monday from her son Millard, who is now a member of Troop E, Seventh Cavalry, U. S. A. He is stationed at Pinar del Rio, Cuba.

Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Rice and daughter, of Hastings, who had been in this place with friends during the past few days, returned home Friday evening.—Johnstown Democrat.

R. L. Druckenmiller, who looks after the outside interests of Porch Bros., music dealers of Johnstown, was in town Monday and while here made the COURIER a pleasant call.

The foundation for Chas. Rhody's new brick building on Fifth avenue is about completed. Contractor Joseph Hubbard will soon commence the work of framing the structure.

Miss Sarah Jones, formerly a teacher in the Patton Public schools, accompanied by her sister Miss Minnie Jones, both of Indiana, Pa., visited friends in Patton Friday and Saturday.

Chas. Paclor, who was so seriously burned during the powder explosion at Patton Coal company's No. 6 colliery one day last week, left for his home at Blossburg, Tuesday morning.

R. S. Tozier, the jeweler, has received one of the '99 Victor bicycles, of which he is the exclusive agent for this place. It is a very pretty wheel and of a high grade manufacture.

To those who drink whiskey for pleasure; Harpers whiskey adds zest to existence. To those who drink whiskey for health's sake; Harpers whiskey makes life worth living. Sold at Palmer House.

The Carrolltown News says that Conductor John Treese, of the Susquehanna branch passenger train made his first trip on Monday, after 8 weeks illness, about 3 weeks of which time he spent in a sanitarium at Roaring Springs, Blair county.

C. R. Lord, who has been employed as miller at J. W. Gill's chop mill in this place for several years, left on Sunday for Patton where he will be employed in a similar capacity in the mill of J. B. Wilber. Chet. is a No. 1 miller as well as a first-class young man, and we wish him success in his new location.—Coalport Standard.

Wall paper at Fisher's 3j cents a roll.

Early Wakefield cabbage plants at the Cash Grocery.

Oysters all the year throughout at the City Restaurant.

Strike or no strike, the Cash Grocery can save you money.

All flavors of soda water at Hodgkin's Patton Pharmacy.

Onions, radishes, rutabarb and lettuce at the Cash Grocery on Saturday.

Call at the Cash Grocery and get prices on groceries and you will surely buy.

Patrick McCamely, a mine foreman of Spangler, made this place a visit Monday.

The new race track at this place was surveyed Monday, and preparations are being made to commence work at once and push it to a speedy finish.—Spangler Sentinel.

Miners are not the only people who strike for higher wages. The employes of the Keystone Paving Co., who were doing the grading on Magee avenue for street paving "enjoyed" a strike Monday noon.

The Ebensburg Mountaineer says that Webster Griffith's saw mill at Benlah, which is in charge of Mr. Elisha Mahan, sawed 28,000 feet one day recently, which is considered a good day's work for an ordinary mill.

Conductor John Myers, who had his leg broken recently, is rapidly improving, and we expect to see him on the streets within a few days with his leg enclosed in plaster paris and his locomotion assisted by the use of crutches.

Last week a delinquent subscriber said he would pay Saturday if he lived. He's dead. Another said, I'll see you tomorrow. He's blind. Still another said, I hope to pay you this week, or go to the devil. He's gone.—Ex.

M. J. Stolz has resigned his position with the Patton Hardware company and has accepted the position of bartender at the Mountain House, Ebensburg. He expects to take up his residence there as soon as he can get a house.

Whoever wants to go to Paris in 1900 should look up the splendid course of self instruction French lessons now running in The International Magazine of Chicago, Ill., under Prof. Max Maury. A sample copy by mail costs 10 cts. in stamps.

We are glad to announce that Walter Mellon, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, is improving rapidly. Great hopes are entertained for his speedy recovery unless some unforeseen complication sets in to mar his convalescence.

The commencement exercises of the Pennsylvania State College, will be held June 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th. The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Lawrence M. Calfeit, D. D., of Philadelphia, on Sunday, June 11th, at 10:30 a. m.

It is said that Max Foust, who recently recovered from an attack of smallpox at Hastings, has brought suit to recover damages from the Pennsylvania Railroad company for being put off of the train on the main line at Lilly, Pa., on Monday, May 8th.

Aside from destroying gardens, etc., the most serious damage sustained by the storm last Wednesday afternoon, was that of washing away of the bridge on West Magee avenue and the destroying of the bridge leading to the mill of W. J. Donnelly & Co.

M. G. Voelker, traveling passenger agent of the Pennsylvania Division of New York Central & Hudson River Railroad and J. D. Lawton, traveling freight agent, also of the same road, were visitors to Patton Tuesday and while here made the COURIER a friendly visit.

The business of the postoffice at this place is still increasing as is evident by Postmaster Ed. A. Mellon receiving notice Friday of an increase of $100 in the salary, which now is $1500 per year. This is a sure indication of the steady increase of population of our town.

Mr. Hickman, who has been connected with the Spangler Sentinel for some time, was in the city yesterday, en route to Windber, where he will do work for the Era, Windber's new paper. Mr. Hickman called at this office to inspect the new press.—Johnstown Democrat.

Wm. P. Barndollar, representing Halpin & Greene, wholesale grocers, of Philadelphia, was looking after business interests in this vicinity the first of last week. Mr. Barndollar, who is an exceptionally pleasant gentleman, is a genuine hustler in his line and knows how to make business and to keep it.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

"Rex" Photo's are the real thing. Fresh shad, catfish, eels, bass and herring at the Cash Grocery.

Peter Campbell, of Carrolltown, was a visitor to our town Friday.

Barney McClain, of Spangler, transacted business in Patton Monday.

The employes of the Pennsylvania railroad wish to extend their sincere gratitude to Mr. H. S. Buck and Marcellus Council Y. M. I., for the use of hall Tuesday evening, in making presentation to Mr. Moore.

Frank Squires, of Ebensburg, was a welcome visitor to Patton Monday. Mr. Squires is proprietor of the Ebensburg Steam Laundry which is one of the most complete establishments of the kind in this section of the country. It is equipped with all modern machinery and the work which is turned out there speaks for itself.

An angry advertiser rushed into the office of a provincial paper recently, and shouted: "See here, our ad ought to read 'Thousands of patrons are wearing trousers of our own make.'"

The foreman of the composing room looked up and meekly said, "Well?" The irate advertiser threw down a copy of the paper containing the ad. The compositor had made it "matrons."

W. R. Hoover, of Clearfield, wounded and afterwards captured a large white swan which was dispersing over the river near his residence recently. The bird is a beauty, and measured 7 feet 2 inches from tip to tip. It is recovering from the wound and has become quite gentle in captivity. More than 100 persons visited it on Sunday.—Lock Haven Express.

The Democratic county committee of Cambria county will meet at the court house in Ebensburg on Saturday the 31 day of June, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing seven delegates to the state convention and to elect a county chairman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. D. Dearer and to transact such other business as may come before the committee.

Isaac Markle, a well known and prominent citizen of Newburg died at his home in that place Friday, May 12th, in the 60th year of his age. Mr. Markle was well known to the writer a quarter of a century ago when Newburg-Hurd-Lalose was a mere hamlet of a dozen or so houses. He leaves a widow, two sons and three daughter to mourn a kind husband and loving father.—Curwensville Review.

J. W. Lupper, who has been acting in the capacity as manager of the large store of Geo. S. Good, has resigned his position to take effect the first of June, to accept a similar position with M. B. Courtright & Co., at Hastings. Mr. Lupper has been in Patton nearly two years and while here made many warm friends by his courteous and obliging manners. In taking up his new field of labor the COURIER extends best wishes.

C. A. Repsher, who has been foreman of the mechanical department of the COURIER office for the past five years, has resigned his position and will leave for Pittsburg where he expects to seek employment in one of the large job printing establishments of that city. Mr. Repsher was a good, faithful and obedient employe and we trust he will be successful in securing a steady and lucrative situation of which he is deserving of.

F. T. Barnum, the great showman, who traveled extensively and was a keen observer, once said: "show me a place where there are no churches and where preachers are never seen, and I will show you a place where old hats are stuffed into windows, where the gates have no hinges, where the women are slipshod, and where maps of the devil's wild land are printed on men's bosoms with tobacco juice—that's what I will show you. Let's consider what these things have done for us before we lightly esteem them."

John Wananmaker will erect a gigantic stone building at Thirteenth and Market street, the sight of his present store, in Philadelphia. The proposed structure is to be twelve stories high and will probably be completed in two years. The new structure is to be 500x250 feet in size and it is proposed to build it in such a fashion that the operation of the present store shall not be interfered with. To do this the new store will be constructed in four sections, each section to represent a quarter of the building. It is understood that when finished the building will have cost $4,000,000.

It makes no difference how cheap you can buy groceries elsewhere, I can still save you some money, quality of goods considered.
THE CASH GROCERY.

Grand Opening.
The grand opening of Patton Fire Company's Park will take place on Tuesday, May 30th, when a grand dance will be held in the afternoon and evening. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. Finest music in the country has been secured. Everybody invited.

Will You wear NEW SHOES For Spring?

THE NEW SHOE.

Last year's shoes are not what you want. Buy with us. Buy the new '99 shoes. They are up-to-date, and you will start out wearing them prejudiced in their favor. They are made right and will be sold right. We claim that our prices are the lowest for equal quality, but many claim that. We, to clinch it, offer to refund the money if you find as good shoes elsewhere at a lower price.

NEVER in the history of the PATTON SUPPLY CO. has there been shown such an up-to-date, stylish and complete line of NEW SHOES as now displayed here.

Don't Buy Your Shoes until you see our line. We have the best and largest line of shoes to select from. Come and see for yourself. Our prices are the lowest.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT? The "Sorosis." THE $3.50 SHOE FOR WOMEN.

We are sole agents for this shoe. The modeling and draughting of "Sorosis" shoes, as well as certain peculiarities in construction, prevent that common trouble, the flattening of the arch of the foot. They support the instep and make walking easy and painless.

"Sorosis" is the only Shoe ever manufactured for woman practically, mechanically and hygienically perfect, and is superior to any other shoe you can purchase, no matter what the price. No better shoe is made.

"Sorosis" is a revelation in footwear, and has become the standard of the world. They are worn by the most fashionable ladies of the large cities.

What is more attractive than a handsome foot? "Sorosis" will make yours so, no matter what size you wear. Dainty shod are those who wear "Sorosis."

New Shoes For Boys and Girls.

The famous Hill & Green line. No better line of shoes was ever put on the market. Over $2,000 worth of children's shoes alone to select from. Mothers it will pay you to call and see them.

New Shoes For Babies.

One of the largest and prettiest lines ever showed in Patton. We have them in all colors. We have shoes for all—Men, Women, Boys, Girls and Babies in Tan and Black, all styles, at 15c to $3.50 per pair.

WE HAVE THEM.
Come and See Them—WASH GOODS—Madras, Ginghams, Percales, Diapers, Zephyrs, Batiste, Organadies, Lawns, Pipe (in all colors), Ribbons (the very latest), Laces and Embroideries (over $400 worth to select from). Belts in all colors and styles. This Department has budded out in all its spring loveliness. There is a revelation of beauty and newness coming to hand. We are showing the vanguard of things that are fashionable and that will be worn by ladies of good taste in all of the large cities this season. No end of new things in this line, and to our large assortment we add the additional inducements of low prices that can't be approached elsewhere.

PATTON SUPPLY CO.
The Busy Store

FOR $8.25

This Bedroom Suit Only $15.00.

I sell a 20-year gold filled case and an American movement guaranteed for two years. I give you my guarantee with this watch and it is also guaranteed by the manufacturer. Come in and see it.

Fine Furniture in every conceivable pattern to suit all tastes. A short time spent looking over our line will convince you that we have the goods and sell at prices that catch the orders.

Undertaking, Embalming, Etc., Etc.,

Promptly attended to. All modern methods used. The best of satisfaction guaranteed.

H. S. BUCK,
Next to Hotel Patton.

TOZER,
The Patton Jeweler.