SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

- FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it. SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well. THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength. FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.

PLAIN TALK IN A PRAYER.

Rev. Jordan's Position in Raleigh's Wicked People.

The Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer says a sensation was created there on Sunday in church circles by the Rev. J. M. Jordan, Mr. Jordan, who has preached the gospel in nearly every Baptist church in the state at one time or another, has been in Raleigh for some time superintending the publication of a history of his life and labors.

Sunday morning he attended the First Baptist church, and was called on by Dr. Carter, at the conclusion of his sermon on "Christian Growth," for a prayer. And such a prayer it was! The venerable preacher, with bowed head, seemed to be talking familiarly with God, telling Him of the sins of the people, man by man, and asking the Almighty for mercy and indulgence till they could be called to repentance. "O, God," he said, "Thou knowest the majority of Christians are like wasps—larger at birth than at any other time. And they grow smaller and meaner as time goes on. Thou knowest, also, that a great many members high up in the church drink beer and whisky and go to dances. O, Lord they shall them Germans, but that's just to fool the people. They are regular old dances—nothing in the world but fiddling and dancing. We read the paper this morning and there they had printed the names of all the gals and their partners. O, Lord, have mercy on these miserable rascals.

"Then, O, Lord, a lot of them are giving card parties around here, going into saloons, visiting places of ill fame, and playing the devil generally. No wonder that when they ask a sinner to turn from the evil way he replies, 'Go way, you old devil, we know you.' We heard only this past week of a prominent church member who has been drinking beer ten years, and who went home and found his little boy dead drunk and as limber as a dishrag. Oh, Lord, have mercy on these miserable sinners, who pretend they are following Thee, but who go around with their breath smelling like an old swill tub. We have a little grandchild, Lord, that we were thinking of sending to school, but, oh, Lord, this is such a degraded, fearfully wicked city that we are afraid to send her here. Then there is a college here where the young men are encouraged to give dances. O, Lord, have mercy on the President of that institution.

"Thou knowest there are only a few righteous people in Raleigh. All the rest are wicked, and were it not for these few good people the whole city would go to the devil. God would rain down fire and brimstone and destroy it like Sodom and Gomorrah."

A Record to be Proud Of. Peter Campbell, of Carrolltown, has the distinction of having represented his district in the Republican County Convention for forty-one years and a member of the County Committee for thirty years. We believe this distinction not held by any other Republican in the county, if in the State.—Barnesboro Sentinel.

The Bowers Critic.

The critic was the most prominent leader of Bowers society. He is slow of speech and hesitates, sometimes painfully, but when he does speak every word hits. He does not go about, as is the manner of less cultivated speakers, but strikes home with few words, mainly figurative. Although he is full of the instinctive aversion and tastes of a man of action, he is a refined gentleman and spends most of his time in an unobtrusively dirty saloon.

"You must do it on de level," said the leader of society, giving preliminary instructions. "You must give us de real ting. Tain't no cake walk, dis hard walk. Walk jest as if you was walking on de lane [Bowers] wid yer bundle [girl] on yer arm. Anybody kin look tough, but I want you to look as hard as de real ting, de talk on de Bowers, and no harder."—Atlantic.

"I and Me." The number of cultured, refined, educated people who slip into error in the use of "I" and "me" is large and appears to be continually growing. Their trouble lies in their inability to separate the first person from the third, where both are referred to, as in the expression, "Tom asked he and I if," etc.

I heard a very clever man say yesterday, "George said that him and me were the only two in the store. A lawyer in Pine street, well known as a man of unusual ability, gets it wrong nearly every time by striving hard to get it right. He is so afraid that "my client and I" is incorrect that he compromises on "my client and myself." He knows my "client and me" will not do.

By separating the first and second persons this stumbling block is instantly removed, and even a child cannot err. "George said that him and me were" might fool some people, but "George said that him was" could not trip any one. Neither could "George said that me was." Now, altogether, "George said that he was, George said that I was, therefore George said that he and I were."—New York Press.

Not Wanted on Her. This happened to the wife of a well known merchant who is rather conspicuous for his devotion to the church. His spouse, dressing one Sunday morning, got into a waist that more than put Joseph's coat in the shade. She was conscious of the color scheme, but decided to ask her husband's aid. Her father's opinion before wearing the garment to church. They agreed, poor men, that she was delightfully dressed and that the waist could hardly be improved upon.

So they went to church, the wife with secret misgivings, which, as the case turned out, were well founded, for they were no sooner seated in Grace Episcopal church than the Rev. Dr. Werthington gave out the text. "We will read," the reverend pastor said, "from the gospel of St. Matthew, the sixteenth chapter and eighth verse. To what purpose is this waste?"

The good woman collapsed in her pew and never raised her head during the remaining portion of the service.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Old Dances in Old Times. In Edward Scott's "Dancing in All Ages" are some curious details about the dances used by our forefathers. "Joan Sendersin" was a "jolly dance" in Mr. Scott's definition, for before it was ended each lady had kissed all the gentlemen twice, and each man had been equally enterprising. Mary Stuart danced the "Volta," though "not so high and so dispoisedly" as Elizabeth. In King Charles' time people danced "Trenchmore," the "Cushion Dance," "Ominum Gatherum" and "Hoits cum Toits."

"All I's a Garden Green," "Gathering of Peascods," "Lamps of Pudding," "Dader and Over," "The Bath," "The Slaughter House" and "Have at Thee, Coat, Old Woman," are dances not quite so old.

Reflected Greatness. When, as a boy, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha visited the island of Barbados, his wishing was done for him by a negress named Jane Ann Smith, who was over 6 feet in height. She was so puffed up at being patronized by royalty that she claimed precedence at once over all the other washerwomen and retained it for many years.

Love is a Flat. "You don't care for a big house and lots of servants, do you?" he asked. "Not at all," she replied promptly. "Don't you think that love in a flat would be delightful?" he persisted. "Yes," she answered. "Love in a flat, but not life with one."—Chicago Times Herald.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's pain balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. The Coal Under Old St. Joseph's. The church authorities at Carrolltown, have decided to sell the coal on the property occupied by the old St. Joseph's church, north of Carrolltown, and this has raised a slight breeze in the congregation and those adjoining, says the Cambria Tribune. This church is the oldest in this section of the country, and for a long time had for its congregation all of the Catholics who now constitute the parishes of Carrolltown, Hastings, Spangler, Nicktown, St. Boniface, and others. Some of the older members of these latter congregations are of the opinion that the title to the old church property is not vested in the Carrolltown congregation, and that the coal should not be sold without the consent of all those who were once members of the St. Joseph's church. This, however, seems to be a mistake, and the coal will probably be sold. Prospectors are now at work on the property, which contains about twenty acres, and if the coal has not been robbed, as was that on the property adjoining, it is very valuable. Of course that under the church and cemetery will be reserved.

The Best in the World.

We believe that Chamberlain's cough remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisement in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by C. W. Hodgkins, Patton Pharmacy.
