Here's a marriage notice with comment that appeared in a North Dakota paper: Married at Plintstone, by Rev. M. Windstone, Nehemiah Whitestone, and Wilhelmina Sandstone, both of Limestone. This is getting mighty "rocky," and there's bound to be a "blasting" of these "stony" hearts before many "pebbles" appear on the connubial beach. The grindstone of domestic infelicity will sharpen the ax of jealousy and discord, and sooner or later one or the other of this pair will rest beneath a tombstone. Then look out for brimstone. — Ex.

The strike of the miners at the Nanty-Glo plant continues, with indications that the end is far away. As already stated the strike, is not the result of employes. The differences exist in regard to the employment of a Check-weighman, the company maintaining that his wages shall not be collected through their offices. Over 100 men are off work. It is claimed that if the men do not return to work shortly, new men will be given work there.

A farmer in Clay county, Ia., has a bin containing about 800 bushels of wheat. About a month ago he proposed to market the grain, but on going in the bin he discovered that a hen had established her nest on the wheat, was sitting there and that to remove the grain would "break her up." He decided not to disturb her, but wait until she came off with the chicks. In the meantime the price of wheat advanced until the farmer discovered he had gained over $100 by allowing the hen to sit it out.

England is going to inaugurate measures insuring the safe and pleasant traveling of canine pets for whose comfort a sort of palace car will be added to every train. Each dog will have a species of horse box constructed on highly luxurious plan and hygienic principles, provided with running water elegantly nickled food receptacles and even thick and velvety mats to lie down upon, while plate glass windows will allow them to admire the landscape as they are carried along at full speed.

The verbosity of lawyers is well touched upon in this paragraph: "If I were to give you an orange," said Judge Foote, of Topeka. "I would simply say I give you this orange," but should the transaction be intrusted to a lawyer to put it in writing he would adopt this form: "I hereby give, grant and convey to you all my interest, right, title, and advantage of and in said orange, together with its rind, skin, juice, pulp and pits; and all rights and advantages therein, with full power to bite, suck, or otherwise eat the same, or give away with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pits; anything hereinbefore or in any other deed or deeds, instruments of any nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding." — Ex.
