 —It is said that at least two applicants from Patton will ask for a whole sale liquor license at the next session of the license court.
 —Mrs. Jas. Ardell, of Phillipsburg, returned home Wednesday after a visit at the residence of her son, John Ardell on Magee avenue.

County Commissioner T. M. Sheehan was in town last Thursday and in company with John R. Cordell made this office a pleasant social call.
 —Mrs. H. A. Roobk announces a special sale of wrappers and shirt waists in a new advertisement in another column. Read it.
 —Mr. and Mrs. I. Goldstein left Saturday for an extended visit at Hot Springs, North Carolina. They expect to be absent two or three months.
 —Ex-Congressman Hicks is secured of entertaining an ambition to re-enter Congress, and his friends are already "covering the wires" with that object in view.
 —An exchange says that a man who won't buy a paper because he can borrow one has invented a machine by which he can cook his dinner by the smoke of a neighbor's chimney.
 —The PATTON COURIER desires correspondents in every part of Northern Cambria county and will make it to your interest to send us the news of your neighborhood each week. Write for particulars.
 —How is your stock of printed stationery? The COURIER can do your work as cheap and as well as any other concern in Pennsylvania. Come in and let us give you some figures for first-class work.
 —John L. Sexton, the veteran editor of the Blossburg Advertiser, was renewing acquaintances in Patton last week and this. Mr. Sexton's paper exerts a wide influence and numbers many subscribers in this section.
 —Don't forget that the COURIER's job printing department is better equipped than ever to do all kinds of commercial and book printing. Give us a trial order and you will be sure to come again. Lowest prices and best work.
 —To make room for spring stock, the J. E. Kirk Hardware and Furniture Co. are making a big cut in prices on everything they handle. Their advertisement in this issue will tell you all about it. The figures named are bargain makers.
 —A thirty-day inventory sale has been inaugurated at Goldstein's Department store and the place is a rendezvous for bargain hunters. Choice bargains are offered in every department and the careful buyer cannot afford to miss this sale.
 —The Beech Grove grangers will hold a grand ball on Saturday evening, February 2, at the Beech Grove grange hall near the Beaver Dams. Good music has been provided and an oyster supper will be served at midnight. Everybody invited.
 —Owing to the difference of time, about five hours, between this section and England, the news of the death of Queen Victoria was known in Patton at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, although she did not pass away until 6:30 p. m. the same day.
 —Stephen Fabo, a Slavish miner of Vintondale, died Tuesday from a fractured skull, caused by a blow on the head with a jug, Saturday, during a fight. The coroner's jury held John and Steve Mudroe responsible for his death. The men have not yet been arrested.
 —Is the COURIER you are now reading your own, or are you borrowing your neighbor's each week by borrowing his? Why not come in and subscribe? It costs less than two cents a week and you are wearing out more than that amount of shoe leather running after your neighbor's, besides making an intolerable nuisance of yourself.
 —The town council of Houtzdale awoke to the fact the other day that a coal operator named Glenn was about to make an opening in the town and undermine a portion of the resident portion of the place. The borough fathers immediately demanded that Mr. Glenn give bond, in the sum of $10,000, for any damage that he might cause, before proceeding with his explorations after black diamonds.
 —Mrs. Walter Shoff, wife of engineer Shoff, who was killed a short time ago by being struck by an open car door on a passing freight train, intends to sue the Pennsylvania Railroad company for damages, it is said, and has retained United States Commissioner MacLeod, of Altoona, as her attorney. Mrs. Shoff has refused to accept the $500 due her by her husband's being a member of the Pennsylvania Railroad re-licf association.
 —Rev. T. Dewitt Tabmage knew exactly what he was talking about when he said: A newspaper whose columns overflow with ads. of business men has more influence in attracting attention and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated.

Royal Gem.

The above is the name of a new Flour we have lately added to our list of celebrated Minnesota Flours. If you have not yet tried it, better let us send you a sack. We fully guarantee it to be one of the very best flours on the market; if not we refund your money. Remember in each sack of our flour you will find a coupon. When you get a set of these from one to five, return them to us and receive a beautiful present.

While Buying FLOUR

Don't forget that our line of Staple and Fancy Groceries is the best the market produces. If you want value for your money let us furnish you your Groceries, but if it is cheap trash you're after don't bother us. We don't handle it. All our goods are sold on their merits.

FINEST LINE IN TOWN.

We make a specialty of Ladies' Fine Shoes, as we have the exclusive agency for the famous line of Drew Selby shoes for ladies, which are known throughout the United States, and are the acknowledged standard of excellence in woman's footwear. Two years ago the shoe wanted to come here. The best shoe wants the best store and the best store wants the best shoe. The conditions fit.

WE LOOSE; YOU GAIN!

A few pair of all-wool Blankets left that we are going to close out at a great reduction.
 Better buy quick, the price will sell them even if you will not need them till next winter.

FELT BOOTS.

In order to be ready for early spring we want to close out all our line of heavy winter gums and felts, and to do this we have cut the price away below what they are worth. Don't wait until the sizes are all gone, but come at once.

When You Need

Anything in Dry Goods or Groceries let us figure with you, as we are here to do business and will not be undersold by anyone, quality of goods considered.
 We are still on the old ground, only a little farther back on the lot, with one price to all.

Yours For Trade,
