—C. M. Robinson, of Altoona, the architect of the new Patton M. E. church, was in town over night Monday.
—W. A. Stradden, of Mahaffey, and Wm. Wynn, of Philipsburg, attended the social ball held here on Friday evening.
—Save your cash register coupons and secure a high grade refrigerator free of charge at Mellon's Cash Grocery.
—An enjoyable hop was held at Dunnelly's Hall on Friday night, which was attended by quite a number from out of town.
—The roads in the country adjacent to Patton are reported to be in bad shape, with snow drifts of all sizes and descriptions.
—David D. Pryce, of Ebensburg, has been appointed janitor of the clock room at the house of representatives at Harrisburg.
—An order for 41 locomotives of various designs has been placed at the Altoona shops by the Pennsylvania railroad company.
—W. E. Probert is the agent for the Empire Steam Laundry, Lock Haven. Basket goes every Tuesday. Satisfaction guaranteed.

—Henry Dill, a former Pattonite who makes his headquarters in New York, was renewing acquaintances in town over Sunday.
—Read the new advertisement of Miller's shoe store in this issue. A great reduction sale is now on and big bargains are offered.
—Chief-of-Police Gill is on the sick list suffering from an attack of pneumonia. J. D. Blair is attending to his duties as public guardian.
—Councilman Frank Nelson slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk on Monday and received injuries that necessitate his using a cane to assist locomotion.
—Call and examine our line of coats, capes and collarettes. Former prices from $3 to $12.50. Sale prices from 50 cents to $6.
—Francis Reilly, one of the progressive citizens of St. Augustine, was in town Wednesday and did not forget to make the COURIER office a call.
—Mrs. Harry Culp, of Pittsburg, Mrs. Elijah Kieckard, of Grafton, and Mrs. James Cyphers, of New Haven, are visiting at the residence of Richard Rowland.
—J. Zimmerman, of Punxsutawney, was in town Friday night. Mr. Zimmerman is interested in coal lands and his visit here was in connection with business of that nature.
—The Vivian De Monte Co. played to a crowded house at Fireman's Hall on Friday evening and judging from the applause the audience was well satisfied with their efforts.
—5,500 people read the COURIER every week. Mr. Merchant, don't you want to talk to these people about your business? Advertising rates made known on application.
—A project is on foot in Johnstown for the erection of another large hotel. C. B. Hamm, who recently sold the Merchant's to J. B. Denny, is reported to be at the head of the scheme.
—Remember only twenty days more of Goldstein's inventory sale. Call and be convinced that we sell cheaper than the cheapest.
—How is your stock of printed stationery? The COURIER can do your work as cheap and as well as any other concern in Pennsylvania. Come in and let us give you some figures for first-class work.
—W. H. Sandford, of this place, and Dr. P. C. Jones, of Ebensburg, will represent Cambria county at the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Association of School Directors to be held at Harrisburg on Feb. 14th.
—In order to facilitate the recruiting of the army up to the full strength, the Pennsylvania district has been divided into ten sub-districts, with an office in charge of each. Altoona and Heilbrunn are two of the sub-districts.
—There are 211 applications for liquor licenses in this county this year, as against 228 last year. There are 156 licenses in the county, of which Patton has 5. The time for filing applications expired at midnight Saturday.
—The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has put a number of new Pullman coaches into service. They are painted red like the other cars of the Pennsylvania company and one is named Cresson while another is named Wilmore. They make up part of trains 20 and 21.
—The Republicans of Altoona in convention met adopted a resolution calling upon Pennsylvania representatives in the United States Senate to oppose the confirmation of H. P. Wilson, who was appointed postmaster of Altoona on recommendation of Congressman Thropp.
—The new three cent piece authorized by congress is to be of nickel, the size of the old bronze one, only thicker, and in the center is to be a hole the fourth of an inch in diameter. The new coin is so designed that it can be readily recognized by sight or touch. A hole in an American coin is a new device that will seem rather odd.
—An exchange remarks that there is hardly a married man, except editors, who does not carry in his pocket the picture of an attractive young woman who is not his wife. Yes, and we violate no confidence when we say that her name is Miss Anna Wilkes Williams, of Philadelphia, and her picture ornaments the silver dollars which all of us use whenever we can get them.
—A firm at Toronto have just made a pile of money by a clever advertising dodge. "On receipt of $1 we will send, securely sealed, a beautiful bound book of 400 pages, full of good things. Every sport should have one. The most wonderful book ever written. French and English translation. Prohibited in some countries. Write at once." The detective department, scenting the circulation of improper literature, sent a dollar and received a 15 cent Bible. They have not interfered with the sale, not caring to curtail the propagation of the gospel.

Royal Gem.

The above is the name of a new Flour we have lately added to our list of celebrated Minnesota Flours. If you have not yet tried it, better let us send you a sack. We fully guarantee it to be one of the very best flours on the market; if not we refund your money. Remember in each sack of our flour you will find a coupon. When you get a set of these from one to five, return them to us and receive a beautiful present.

While Buying FLOUR

Don't forget that our line of Staple and Fancy Groceries is the best the market produces. If you want value for your money let us furnish you your Groceries, but if it is cheap trash you're after don't bother us. We don't handle it. All our goods are sold on their merits.

FINEST LINE IN TOWN.

We make a specialty of Ladies' Fine Shoes, as we have the exclusive agency for the famous line of Drew Selby Shoes for ladies, which are known throughout the United States, and are the acknowledged standard of excellence in woman's footwear. Two years ago the shoe wanted to come here. The best shoe wants the best store and the best store wants the best shoe. The conditions fit.

WE LOOSE; YOU GAIN!

A few pair of all-wool Blankets left that we are going to close out at a great reduction. Better buy quick, the price will sell them even if you will not need them till next winter.

FELT BOOTS.

In order to be ready for early spring we want to close out all our line of heavy winter goods and felts, and to do this we have cut the price away below what they are worth. Don't wait until the sizes are all gone, but come at once.

When You Need

Anything in Dry Goods or Groceries let us figure with you, as we are here to do business and will not be undersold by anyone, quality of goods considered.

We are still on the old ground, only a little farther back on the lot, with one price to all.

Yours For Trade,
