 -Tom McKenzie, formerly with the Keystone Clothing Co., is now chief mixologist at the Central Hotel.
 -Wm. B. Shaffer, a former resident of Patton, now located at Vandergrift, was in town the first of the week.
 -The Junior Epworth League of the M. E. Church will hold an ice cream festival on Thursday evening, July 12th.
 -Save your cash register coupons and secure a high grade refrigerator free of charge at Mellon's Cash Grocery.
 -Sam Kelly, of Chest Springs, was in town several days last week disputing supremacy with the local quail champions.
 -Jesse E. Dale was in Indiana from Friday until Monday, having been called there by the illness of his daughter, Miss Virginia.
 -Miss Leah Daggett has returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Tioga, where she went after the close of the Mansfield normal school.
 -It has been officially announced that the next meeting of the Pennsylvania state grange will be held at Johnstown the first week of December.
 -For Sale-One of the best mills in Northern Cambria county. Doing a good business. Good reasons for selling. For particulars address this office.
 -Monday was an exciting day in the local stock exchange and some of the bulls helped the bears replenish their exchequer to a considerable degree.

-A. E. Patton has been elected a member of the board of managers of Dickinson Seminary and has made it a gift of $500 with which to start a new reference library.
 -Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Lingle returned from their wedding trip Tuesday evening and were tendered a reception at the residence of the groom's parents on Beech avenue last night.
 -The Catholic picnic at Short's Grove last week was a record breaker as far as receipts are concerned. Exactly two dollars more were taken in than during the same period last year.
 -There is no truth in the report that the decline of over three points in the Pennsylvania railroad stock on Monday was caused by the decision of the officials to build a new union station in Patton.
 -In another column will be found notices that applications will be made to the governor for charters for intended corporations to be called the Bakerton Water Co. and the Bakerton Coal Mining Co.
 -The pure food commission is preparing for another whirl in this section. W. J. Weakland, of Patton, is accused of selling adulterated plum jam, and Ed Cowan, of Carrolltown, of handling adulterated lemon extract.
 -Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation, has purchased the Adam Rudolph farm near Loreto, the consideration being $3,500. The property adjoins Mr. Schwab's summer residence.
 -Clearfield will hold a special election on August 3 for the purpose of obtaining the assent of the citizens to increase the indebtedness of the borough $12,354.57. The money is to be used in street paving and extending the stone walk along the river front.
 -The retreat for the priests of the Pittsburgh diocese will begin at St. Francis college, Loreto, July 15 and 22. Half of the 250 priests will attend the first and half the second week. The priests of the orders and those who will receive dispensation will hold their retreats later.
 -The Public Spirit of Clearfield is issuing a daily edition during the session of Byron W. King's summer school of oratory and it is not impossible that it will be made a regular feature. It is a neat paper typographically, brim full of local news and ought to be appreciated by the people of that section.
 -After the Beech Creek road begins to receive its new engines, which will come at the rate of three a month, the intention is to increase the traffic. If possible 1,000 cars east and 1,000 cars west daily will be handled. This will be an increase of several hundred over the present number, and will mean the employing of many more train crews.
 -The changes made in the internal revenue laws went into effect on the 1st inst. The merchants who have been handling goods that required revenue stamps have been going over their stock and making the necessary affidavits to receive the rebates allowed by the government. Checks and notes, and all legal documents do not now require a revenue stamp.
 -The new Methodist hymnal, which will contain 600 hymns, will be published in about four months. The committee aims at preserving the old Methodist fervor and spirit, combining with them newer church music of a higher and better school. The book will be used by about 5,000,000 worshippers who attend the Methodist Episcopal churches in this country.
 -The mining situation has improved considerably during the past week and almost full time is being worked by the employees of the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Co. The car supply has likewise been adequate and on Wednesday there were 260 empties in the yard at this place. The next pay day will be on Saturday, July 20th, and considerable money will be put in circulation, more than for some months past.
 -A syndicate composed of James Kerr, of Clearfield, A. G. Palmer, of Corning, D. W. Michaels, of Jersey Shore, and ex-Sheriff Frank Smith, of Clearfield, has purchased the Bastrass farm of fifty acres, on the high ground between Jersey Shore and the Junction, and on Monday a surveyor was put to work cutting the farm into building lots. It is reported that the company will build a house on every lot for the purpose of sale or rent. Would that the syndicate would extend its operations to Patton.
 -Ecklenrode sentenced.
 -Editor W. H. Eckenrode, of Carrolltown, who was found guilty of libeling Constable W. P. Jackson, of this place, at the last term of court, was sentenced by Judge Barker on Monday. He was fined $25 and ordered to pay the cost of prosecution. There had been a motion for a new trial pending, which was withdrawn by Mr. Eckenrode's attorney before sentence was imposed. The Judge said that there was nothing in the case that would call for a severe sentence; that the jury must have found negligence only, since there was no malice, either actual or legal, evident from the testimony developed at the trial.

TESTIMONY

SAID a stylish young fellow—one of our customers—to us the other day:

"My friends ask me where I have my clothes made. When I tell them that I get them at Wolf & Thompson's, ready made, they seem inclined to doubt it until I show them the label."

This gentleman's friends could see no difference between his garments and those made by the best tailors. Neither can you or any one else. They are identical in cloth, tailoring, trimmings and style. As to fit—we'll leave that to you or your friends. Bring back any garment not satisfactory and get your money.
 When it comes to prices we can save you about one-half on your tailor's bill.
