Special train leaves Phillipsburg at 7:30 a. m. Tickets will also be good going and returning on regular trains above date. Twelve young men in Jersey City some time ago hit upon the plan of hiring a freight car in which to make an economical trip to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. The idea has since attracted the favorable attention of so many of their friends that enough of them to fill nine similar cars have decided to join this novel excursion. Banks will be fitted up along the sides, and they will live in the cars during the trip, which will last four weeks. It is not generally known that Lieutenant Peary, to whose relief expedition has just been sent, is a native of Cambria county. Peary was born near Chest Springs about 50 years ago. His father was a lumber dealer and shoemaker, the staves being bundled and shipped to Cuba, there to be made into barrels for the sugar and molasses market. The elder Peary and the late Hon. A. A. Barker were contemporaries. Judge A. V. Barker, of Ebensburg, and the younger Peary were companions in their boyhood days. Is this your paper?
