 -The Windber Fire Co. No. 1 went through Patton on a special car Monday en route to the firemen's convention at DuBois.
 -Chas. M. Schwab, the president of the United States Steel corporation, spent the first of the week with his family at Loretto.
 -Samuel Weakland returned from Indiana county on Monday, where he purchased two good horses for use in his livery business.
 -Street Commissioner Storm and a force of men commenced the work of removing the "hump" on Magee avenue this morning.
 -Mrs. Ida Graff, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. K. Snyder, for the past month, returned to her home at Corajolis Tuesday.
 -If you don't know what cake perfume is, look at the J. E. Kirk Hardware and Furniture Co. ad. this week and learn a few things.
 -The Gallatin Times came out this week under the new management and improved in every way. It is well edited and its typographical appearance is neat and tasty.

-A fair sized delegation from Patton Fire Co. No. 1 attended the convention at DuBois this week. Fred Kinkead was the delegate from this place.
 -The United Mine Workers picnic at Spangler will be held on Tuesday, August 13th, instead of Thursday, August 15th, as at first announced.
 -If you want fine laundry work, leave your laundry with W. E. Probert, the barber, Magee avenue, the agent for the Empire Steam Laundry.
 -If you are in need of a new suit of clothes, don't fail to see our new line of fall suitings just received.
DINSMORE BROS.
 -Frank L. Baker, a former manager of the Patton telephone exchange, but now located in Pittsburg, was in town last week calling on his many friends.
 -Dinsmore Bros. have just received a new line of fall suitings and invite a careful inspection of the same. Don't buy a new suit until you have seen this display.
 -Grand Secretary P. H. McGuire, of the Pennsylvania jurisdiction of the Young Men's Institute, will be at the meeting of the Patton Council to be held this evening.
 -S. S. Gannett and J. H. Rees, of Washington, D. C., who are employed in making a geological survey for the government, are in Patton and will remain here for a month or more.
