Like apple blossoms fall in the spring after a shower of rain when the wind blows through an orchard, so do tears fall from the eyes of spectators during a production of "Uncle Josh Sprucey."

Just received a new and complete line of overcoats. The noblest in the market. Over two hundred patterns to select from.

"The Vermont Girl" on Saturday night played to a small house on account of the wet weather.

An operation was performed on Mrs. John Abel, who resides below town, on Friday. She lived until Monday.

John A. Gunn spent Sunday with friends in town.

Dr. Rice spent part of the week in Philadelphia.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me any good until I took Kodol dyspepsia cure."

In anaemia, the most women's ailment, the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and strength out of food is imperfect so that the patient is weak, wan, nervous and dyspeptic.

Corn-brokers' sprained wrists' barbed-wire cuts, burns, bruises, severe lacerations and external injuries of any kind are promptly and happily cured by applying Ballard's snow liniment.

Lewis Ockerman, Goshen, Ind. "DeWitt's little early risers never bend me double like other pills, but do their work thoroughly and make me feel like a boy."

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt., says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's witch hazel salve.

J. Odgers of Frostburg, Md., writes: "I had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's kidney cure which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles."

Do you suffer from piles? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. DeWitt's witch hazel salve will act more quickly, surely and safely, saving you the expense and danger of an operation.

Chas. R. Wessmer, Evanston, Ill., writes: "My boy 2 years old had a severe cold which refused to yield to any treatment until we tried Foley's honey and tar. He was completely cured before using one bottle."

For sprains, swellings and lumbago there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's pain balm. Try it. For sale by C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

A. B. Clark, of the firm of Lantz & Clark, has purchased Mr. Lantz's interests here and will continue the business as A. B. Clark.

The H. A. C. having failed to get a game with the Altoona Monarchs or Johnstown, have disbanded for the season with a record of one defeat out of thirteen games played.

Eugene Zimmerman, the popular iveryman of Johnstown, and family and Miss Sue Kellogg are spending a few days with R. F. Notey.

Miss Gertrude Gould is visiting Patton friends this week.

Thos. B. McClain drove to Loreto on Wednesday.

DeWitt's little early risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all the impurities from the liver and bowels.

Backache should never be neglected. It means kidney disorder which, if allowed to run too long, may result in Bright's disease, diabetes or other serious and often fatal complaints.

We have seen the frail infant when the infant struggle for existence seemed almost ended, resuscitated and made strong by the use of White's cream verifuge.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets.

S. A. Ingalls, Crown Point, N. Y., writes: "My wife suffered from kidney trouble for years. She was induced to try Foley's kidney cure and in less than a week after she began using it, she was greatly improved and three bottles cured her."

A "stitch in time saves nine," and a dose of Ballard's horehound syrup at the beginning of a cold will save you many weary hours and even days of distressing and harassing cough.

A report from Supt. J. C. Gluck, reform school, Pruntytown, W. Va., Oct. 18th, 1900. "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's honey and tar exclusively in the West Virginia reform school. I find it the most effective, and absolutely harmless."

When suffering from racking cough, take a dose of Foley's honey and tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced.

It will be better. Sunday North American announces it will maintain high standard of first issue.

All records, both as to quality of matter and number of sales, were broken by the Sunday North American last Sunday, when its first issue was offered to the public.

The sheet music supplement, which is printed on heavy paper and is in every way equal to the music purchased in stores, will be "Ida from Idaho," by John H. Flynn, the author of that great success, "Annie Moore."

In the Women's Supplement, in beautiful colors, are illustrated pages of new fall jackets and some of the latest mourning costumes; the very latest silk waists, which will interest those who make their own clothes;

McDonald contributes wonderful stories for children, besides which there is a puzzle picture and some interesting illustrations.

In the comic supplement there is an exciting funny series by Walt McDougall, called "How Bimbo Lost the Election."

It is a wonderfully striking color page and will attract national attention. There are ten more pages of attractively illustrated and genuinely interesting new features.

It happened in a drug store. "One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Dr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y.

"She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain cough remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid."

In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy."

It is for sale by C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

To make good tea and coffee the water should be taken at the first bubble. Remember, continued boiling causes the water to part with its gases and become flat. This is the cause of much bad tea and coffee.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medicinal triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghams, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
