

Patton Courier.

HOME HAPPENINGS.

—Musical.
 —Pay day Saturday.
 —Thanksgiving next.
 —Is this your paper?
 —Foot ball Saturday.
 —Patton vs. South Fork.
 —Mother's bread at Mellon's.
 —Winter whiskers are sprouting.
 —Politics are warming up a little.
 —Where are your summer wages?
 —"The scar and yellow leaf" is here.
 —The hunting season opened Tuesday.
 —W. J. Mellon is now located at Pueblo, Colorado.
 —E. W. Cowher was in Madera this week on business.
 —Fresh bread, cakes, buns, pies, etc. at Mellon's, daily.
 —Mrs. Bart Young is on a visit with friends at Patton.
 —John Prindible left this morning on a business trip to Kentucky.
 —Garfield Irvin, of Altoons, was visiting friends in town Sunday.
 —Thos. J. Graham made a business trip to Mahaffey on Wednesday.
 —Robert Giles and Ed Gallaher, of Coatsport, were in town on Sunday.
 —For a good shave, hair cut or shampoo call on Garfield Wilkins, Fifth avenue.
 —Ed A. Mellon made a business trip to Harrison county, West Virginia, last week.
 —T. A. Bradley, of Lilly, deputy factory inspector, was a Patton visitor this week.
 —Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Snyder are visiting relatives and friends at Mt. Union, Pa.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Pitt were among the Patton people in Buffalo last week.
 —Mrs. Mary Coyle and Miss Jane Bradley, of Houtzdale, are visiting relatives in town.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Dale have been visiting the Pan-American exposition this week.
 —Mrs. A. H. Burkey and her mother, Mrs. Farbaugh, are visiting relatives at Penn Station.
 —Mike Stoltz, the proprietor of the Mountain House at Ebensburg, was in town Wednesday.
 —Mrs. Harry Atkinson and daughter, of Windber, are visiting relatives, in town this week.
 —John and Arthur Dinmore were on a hunting trip in Jefferson and Indiana counties this week.
 —J. Lawrence Dole was at Arcadia this week on business for the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Co.
 —Just received a fine line of children's cloaks, hats, caps, etc.
EVANS SISTERS.
 —If you are in need of a good shave, hair cut or shampoo Garfield Wilkins, the Fifth avenue barber, will suit you.
 —If you want a stove set up with good hand made pipe of the best quality and in a hurry, see J. E. Cordell & Co.
 —Don't forget the musicale under the auspices of the choir of St. Marys church on Wednesday evening, October 24th.
 —A grand tea party for the benefit of the church at St. Augustine will be held on Saturday evening, Oct. 26, 1901.
 —R. F. Jackson, the genial postmaster and one of the prominent citizens of Westover, was in town on Tuesday.
 —Rev. Earnest Fryklund, of Patton, and his bride, are visiting their friends in this neighborhood. — Phillipsburg Journal.
 —Wm. Martz, who is working on a mining machine at Shamrock, Somerset county, is home for a few days' vacation.
 —Dr. D. S. Rice, of Hastings, has rented an office in the Good building and will locate here for the practice of his profession.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schwem, of Reynoldsville, were visiting at the residence of Freeman Williams several days last week.
 —R. L. Bower, of Blandburg, the Democratic nominee for Prothonotary, was interviewing the voters of Patton on Wednesday.
 —Kid gloves, ladies' and children's handkerchiefs and notions of every description, a complete line just received at Evans Sisters.
 —Mrs. W. H. Sandford was called to Phillipsburg last week on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Steiner.
 —M. G. Lewis has been transferred from the mining department to the paymaster's office of the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Co.
 —The State Fish Commission has sent out instructions to arrest all Sunday fishermen. This order may include Sunday hunters, too.
 —Our stock of fall millinery is now in. A complete assortment of ready trimmed hats and everything in up-to-date millinery. EVANS SISTERS.

—The Spangler Coal & Coke company is erecting a compressed air machine plant at its mines near Spangler.
 —If you want fine laundry work, leave your laundry with W. E. Probert, the barber, Magee avenue, the agent for the Empire Steam Laundry.
 —Wm. McPherson, president, and Mike McTaggart, secretary-treasurer of sub-district No. 1 of district No. 2, U. M. W. of A., were in town on Saturday.
 —Jos. P. Fisher, of Pittsburg, special agent of the Citizens Insurance Co., of St. Louis, with his wife spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in town.
 —Peter, the venerable canine owned by Chas. F. Pitt, turned up its toes and took an excursion train for dog heaven one day last week, aged umpty-steen years.
 —John A. Schwab, of Loretto, father of Charles M. Schwab, will leave in about two weeks to spend the winter in Southern Europe and Northern Africa.
 —A dwelling owned by the estate of David H. Davis at Burnside was destroyed by fire Friday. Loss $1,500. Insured with Parnell, Cowher & Co. for $600.
 —Misses Anna Martin and Alice Lomire have opened a dress-making establishment in the building recently vacated by Judge Boone on Fifth avenue.
 —A little scrap between two belligerents on Magee avenue at noon on Monday attracted a large crowd and furnished considerable amusement. No fatalities.
 —Boys' and children's suits form the subject for a new advertisement of the Keystone Clothing Co. in this issue. Some low figures are given that will pay you to look up.
 —Miss Virginia Lingle has returned to school at Philadelphia. She was accompanied to the Quaker City by her mother, Mrs. W. C. Lingle, who returned home last Friday.
 —Johnstown is now suffering from an epidemic of typhoid fever, due it is believed to the low water supply. There are thirty-four cases in the Memorial hospital alone.
 —The report of the First National Bank of Patton will be found in this issue. The showing is a most excellent one, as a glance at the array of figures presented will readily show.
 —The Bon Ton store has some interesting shopping news in a new advertisement on the fourth page. Figures are quoted, too, that will be of especial interest to the careful buyer.
 —The miners' strike at the operations of the Bloomington Coal Co., near Carrolltown, has been settled and the men have returned to work. Both sides to the controversy made concessions.
 —Mrs. Sophia Hesson, of Clearfield, is visiting in town and on Sunday morning rendered a very pleasing solo at the M. E. church, which was much appreciated by all who were fortunate enough to be present.
 —The division freight agent of the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central railroad, with Superintendent Crowley and other officials, has just completed an inspection of the Beech Creek and Fall Brook districts.
 —The poorhouse directors have advertised for bids for the erection of a wagon shed at the poor farm at Ebensburg. The building is to be 24x50 feet, two stories high, and weather boarded with No. 1 poplar. Bids must be in by Oct. 21.
 —A strike has been declared by the miners employed by ex-Congressman Joseph E. Thropp at his mines near Kearney, Bedford county. They claim unjust treatment, and that Mr. Thropp has failed to keep certain promises.
 —C. W. Myers, a Beech Creek fireman, has been promoted to the position of traveling fireman of the Beech Creek district, with headquarters at Jersey Shore, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of John P. Martin to engineer.
 —Brother Sawyer, of the Windber Journal, is lecturing for a liberal suit. Just listen to this from the last issue of his paper: "It is well-known that Johnstown has the thinnest skinned and palest blooded sports in the country."
 —The official ballot for the November election will be larger than usual in off years. The uniform size throughout the state will be ten columns, except in Lackawanna, Union and Snyder counties, each of which is entitled to an additional column.
 —The B. & P. railway is now running excursions to the Pan American exposition at Buffalo every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from all stations, Butler to Falls Creek inclusive, at $3.05 for the round trip. Tickets are limited to six days returning, including date of sale.
 —Officially the term of mourning for President McKinley ended Monday, marking the expiration of the thirty days from the date of the President's death, which was proclaimed as the duration of time in which his memory should be honored by general manifestations of grief in all parts of the country.

A B C
 —OF THE—
J. E. KIRK'S HDW. & FURT. STORE.

A Ammunition, anvils, apple-parers, augers, awls and awl-hafts, axes, axes.
B Balances, barb wire, beams, beaters, bellows, bells, belts, bits, braces, bolts, blocks, borers, brackets, boilers, butts.
C Cages, calipers, cans, caps, cartridges, casters, chains, chalk, checks, chisels, chucks, clamps, cleavers, clippers, collars, coffee mills, compasses, coolers and cord.
 Arm chairs, all styles.
 Beds, bureaus, brussels.
 Couches, cradles, cupboards.
 Diners, dining tables.
 Everything in furniture.
 Do not fail to remember that we carry the largest, cheapest and best line of heating stoves in this city.

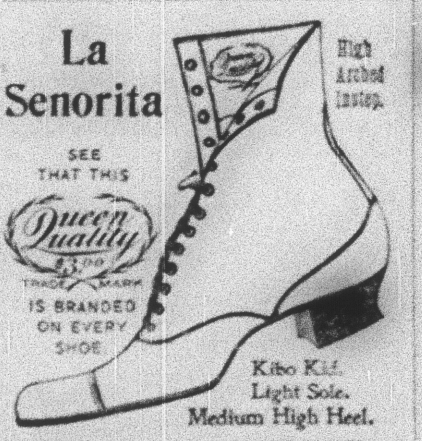

Kirk Furniture & Hardware Co.,
 Magee Ave.,
PATTON, PA.

SEASON-ABLE GOODS!

Soon the chill winds of winter will strike us. Even now it is too cold for comfort without a fire.
That New Heating Stove!
 We have it, and at any price and quality. 20 different varieties to select from. If you examine our stock first you won't go elsewhere.
 Perhaps you need a Range? Don't forget we have them, and at the right price.
 We have just received a large assortment of Oil Cloths and Linoleums in all styles and sizes. The prices are right, too.
 We make stove pipe and set up stoves.
"Everything in Hardware."
J. R. CORDELL & CO.,
 Fifth Ave.,
PATTON, PA.

Tinning and Plumbing!

Having moved to our new location in the Fisher Block we are now better prepared than ever to do all work in this line.
 We are sole agents for Cambria county for the celebrated
Brooks Oil Co.'s Gutta Percha Roofing Paint.
 Estimates cheerfully made for all work in our line.
J. C. Harper Co.

A big reduction in Shoes.

We have several odd lots of children's and Misses' shoes that we are closing out at prices less than they can be bought from the manufacturers; also a few ladies' oxfords, 75c and $1.00.
 We have men's and boys' dress shoes' latest styles, guaranteed all solid leather for $1.25 and $1.35, and men's mining shoes for $1.00. All solid leather. Call and examine stock.
E. L. Miller,
PATTON, PA.

WHY PAY MORE?

Stove pipe joints	15c
Elbows	10c
No. 8 Nickel Tea Kettle	95c
Carpet tacks, per box	1c
Good brooms	15c
Carpets, per yard	12c

All other Goods in proportion.
 Guns and Loaded Shells, under regular prices.
"WHY PAY MORE."

The Bazaar,
PATTON, PA.
Parnell, Cowher & Co.
 Agents for
FIRE, LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE.
 REAL ESTATE AGENTS.
 Good Building, Patton, Pa.—Phone No. 9.

H. A. SEITZ,
Dentist!
 Office up-stairs in Good Building. Of free Hours—8 a. m. to 2 m., and 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Dr. V. A. Murray,
 PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.
 Office in Arlington block, next to Postoffice, Patton, Pa. All night calls responded to promptly. Diseases of the ear, nose and throat given special attention.
OFFICE HOURS—7 to 9 a. m. and 12 to 2 p. m.

GEO. BOONE,
 JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
 Office on corner of Lang and Fifth Avenues. Collections promptly attended to. Properties to sell and rent.

DR. S. W. Worrell,
 PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
 Office in Good Building, Room No. 3.
 General Surgery and the Eye a Specialty. All calls will receive prompt attention.
Patton Courier,
 Promoter of Publicity.
 Advertising Rates made known on application.

MUST BE SOLD!

Our entire Stock must and is being sold at record breaking Prices.
 We are positively going to quit business and can save you from 25 TO 75 per cent on your GROCERIES as long as the stock lasts.
 These Goods Must and Will be Sold, and the opportunity is yours.
 "A Penny Saved is a Penny Earned."
 Call and get prices.
Mellon's Cash Grocery,

In the Fall

A young man's fancy lightly turns to Thoughts of Clothing and instinctively he also thinks of
DINSMORE BROS.,
The Place to Get It.
 New and complete line of all Fall and Winter Goods, comprising the Latest Foreign and Domestic Novelties that will be worn this fall and winter. You know our workmanship—the quality of goods and prices are also right.
DINSMORE BROS.,
 Merchant Tailors, Patton, Pa.

JACK FROST
Is in the Air!
 His early coming reminds you that the summer suit is a thing of the past. We want to remind you that this is the place to come when ready to purchase your Fall Suit—not only because we can show you the choicest and best selected stock of Fall and Winter Wearables in the city, but because we can save you good money and lots of it.
Men's Fall Suits
 and winter weights. The new styles have all arrived. They're stacked high on our tables.
Fall and Winter Hats.
 Dnnlap Styles and all the latest blocks.
 Winter Underwear and all Seasonable Goods.
 We have just received a new and complete line of trunks, valises and dress suit cases.
Wolf & Thompson.

Cheap John Store!

You are invited to call and see my new line of GROCERIES,
Canned Goods, Etc.
 At Lowest Prices.
Flour and Feed
 A SPECIALTY.
 Also best grade of Lime.
 Weighing done Correctly on street scales, located directly in front of store.
FERTILIZERS.
 I will in the future handle Fertilizers of all kinds. Farmers wishing it should leave orders early. I will not keep it in stock, but order direct from the manufacturers.
JOHN GANTZ,
Proprietor

HEATING AND PLUMBING!

The Old Reliable Plumber, John C. Gould, is still on deck and better prepared than ever to do all work in his line. Estimates cheerfully given on all classes of work.
 Repairing promptly attended to.
JOHN C. GOULD,
 Yeager Building,
Patton, Pa.