—W. J. Perry, who recently sold his feed mill to C. K. Croseman, moved his household goods and family to Coalport to-day. Mr. Perry was a good citizen and progressive business man and it is hoped that he will one day see his way clear to again become a resident of Patton.

—John R. Cordell went to Philadelphia yesterday to see his wife, who is in a woman's hospital in that city. The latter underwent a difficult surgical operation last week which was eminently successful and is improving rapidly.
—Chas. F. Pitt has purchased the stock of goods in the Good building and took possession of the same on Monday. He will consolidate this with his store on Fifth avenue and occupy the commodious quarters on Magee avenue.
—"Spring styles" are treated in a comprehensive manner in the advertisement of the Bon Ton store in its usual place. New dress goods are given particular attention and the prices are there in plain figure so that he or she who runs may read. Look up the ad. and save dollars.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stetliffe will leave to-morrow for New York, from which city they will sail on Saturday for Liverpool on the Saxonia of the Cunarder line. They expect to spend several months visiting the scenes of their childhood in England and will return to Patton in the early fall.
—The Feast of the Jewish Passover or "Paschah" will commence Monday evening, or according to the Jewish calendar, the 14th day of Nisan. This holiday is in commemoration of the exodus of the Jews from Egypt under the leadership of Moses and the attainment of their liberty after 430 years of slavery. Unleavened bread or "Matzoh" are eaten for a period of eight days.
—Editor Gregory, of the Johnsonburg Press, is responsible for the following: "Last week we advertised in these columns an elastic band which was found on a street in Johnsonburg. It was too large for a sleeve holder and too small for a belt. To our astonishment a pretty young lady called for the band. We handed it to her with a blush, she took it and right there in our presence slipped it over her Bible.
—The trout season opened on Tuesday. According to the act of legislature, No. 263, section 4, passed in this state last spring, and duly signed by Governor Stone, the minimum limit of brook trout that may be legally taken was changed from five to six inches. Section 18 of said act also prohibits the sale or purchase of brook trout at any time. Artificially bred and raised trout may be sold only during open season, April 15th, to July 31st. Twenty-five dollars fine for every violation.

THE MAN WHO DOUBTS

EVERY year, with the first robin, comes the man who doubts. He "don't believe" he can get a ready-to-wear suit that will fit him; he "don't believe" our advertisements; he don't believe anything or anybody—and yet the chances are ten to one he goes out with one of our Spring Suits on his back.

Why? Because there is proof in our stock to convince the most confirmed unbeliever. There's style here. There's beauty. There's care in make. There's artistic tailoring. There's proper finishing. There's good material. There's a guarantee. And, best of all, the prices are there, proving themselves, in every case, below the figures of other stores.

We want the man who doubts to come in and see some of the novelties we are showing in

SPRING SUITS.

Reader, if "thou art the man," come in and see what we have in store for you.
