

TOUR TO THE YELLOWSTONE PARK.
Exceptionally Low Rates Offered by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The reduced rates authorized by the transcontinental railroads on account of the annual convention of the National Educational Association, to be held in Minneapolis, July 7 to 11, 1902, have enabled the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. to offer to those contemplating attendance at this convention an opportunity, under the direction of its popular personally conducted tour system, not only of visiting the beautiful city in which the convention is to be held, and participating in the deliberations of the convention, but also of visiting the Yellowstone park, at a cost impossible under ordinary conditions of travel.

The Yellowstone park is never more attractive than during the month of July, and the tourists under the care of the Pennsylvania railroad will be afforded the fullest opportunity of visiting all its unique attractions, including the mammoth hot springs, the geysers, the beautiful lake and the grand canon of the Yellowstone.

The tour will leave New York and Philadelphia, Saturday, July 5, and return Sunday, July 20. Round-trip tickets, covering all necessary expenses for the entire trip, including one berth in Pullman sleeper, will be sold at rate of $150 from all points on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh. When two persons occupy one berth, the rate will be $142 for each person. Rates from Pittsburgh will be $15 less than above.

Tourists will use a special train over the entire trip, with the exception of the six days devoted to the tour of the park, when stages and the fine hotels maintained in the park will be utilized. This special train will consist of a Pullman dining car, sleeping cars, and an observation car, all of the highest grade and the passengers will find them fully as comfortable and convenient as the best hotels. During the three days at the convention in Minneapolis, July 7 to 9, inclusive, this special train will be at the command of the tourists, obviating the necessity of securing accommodations at hotels.

The beauties of the Yellowstone National park, most aptly termed nature's wonderland, must be seen to be appreciated. From the top of the stages in which the tour of park is made, there is spread out before the traveler a constantly changing panorama of wonders—snow-crowned mountains; tumbling and tossing rivers; Yellowstone lake, like a great blue sea nestled amongst the heaving crags, at an altitude above that of the summit of Mt. Washington; the curious natural springs, were chemical deposits glisten in the sun's rays with all the colors of the rainbow; and the geysers, ever presenting a scene of varied charm and awe-inspiring wonder.

The accommodations on this tour will necessarily be limited, and intending tourists should apply early in order to secure reservations of space. A detailed itinerary is in course of preparation, and all inquiries regarding accommodations should be addressed to Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent, Pennsylvania railroad, Broad street station, Philadelphia, Pa.

Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

All who use Chamberlain's pain balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. F. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. George F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's pain balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Shot in His Left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds DeWitt's witch hazel salve is a sure cure. Skin disease yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles. Cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a sore caused by a gun shot wound in my left leg," says A. S. Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's witch hazel salve. A few boxes completely cured me." C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Walks Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed C. Nud, Iowa, Sedgwick Co., Kansas, "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's snow liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at C. W. Hodgkins.

Saved Many a Time.

Don't neglect coughs and colds even if it is spring. Such cases often result seriously at this season just because people are careless. A dose of One Minute cough cure will remove all danger. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Sure cure for coughs, cold, croup, grip, bronchitis, an other throat and lung troubles. "I have used One Minute cough cure several years," says Postmaster C. O. Dawson, Barr, Ill. "It is the very best cough medicine on the market. It has saved me many a severe spell of sickness and I warmly recommend it." The children's favorite. C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Wants to Help Others.

"I had stomach trouble all my life," says Edw. Mehler, proprietor of the Union Bottling Works, Erie, Pa., "and tried all kinds of remedies, went to several doctors and spent considerable money trying to get a moment's peace. Finally I read of Kodol Dyspepsia cure and have been taking it to my great satisfaction. I never found its equal for stomach trouble and gladly recommend it in hope that I may help other sufferers." Kodol dyspepsia cure cures all stomach troubles. You don't have to diet. Kodol dyspepsia cure digests what you eat. C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Beauty and Strength

are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—may most—women, fail to properly digest their food and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50 cents at C. W. Hodgkins.

The Best Blood Purifier.

The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this purpose there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Herbive Cures

fever and ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mr. Wm. M. Stroud, Middletown, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used for a grippie, bilious fever and malaria." 50 cents at C. W. Hodgkins.

Neglect Means Danger.

Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little early riser cures such cases. M. E. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says: "DeWitt's little early riser are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripe or cause nausea." C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

Save the Loved Ones.

Mrs. Mary A. Viet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's horshound syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it. Ballard's horshound syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at C. W. Hodgkins.

If troubled by a weak indigestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by C. W. Hodgkins, Patton, and Hastings Pharmacy.

A Famous Square.

There is said to be no equal in the world to the grand and imposing square of Paris, the Place de la Concorde. On one side of it is the Tuilleries, on the opposite side the Champs Elysees and on a third the river Seine. In the center stands the obelisk of Luxor, a magnificent monolith of red Egyptian granite, 74 feet high and weighing 500,000 pounds. This obelisk was one of two of the same shape and size, erected in 1350 B. C. by Rameses the Great at the entrance of the temple of Thebes. Mohammed Ali, pasha of Egypt, presented it to the French government, and in 1836 it was removed to its present position in the Place de la Concorde. The removal and erection on the new site required an outlay of $80,000 and the employment of 800 men, the obelisk being transported to France in a vessel built especially for the purpose.

The Place de la Concorde is rich in historic interest. It was there that the guillotine was erected in the "reign of terror" after the death of Louis XVI, and it was there that the signal was given for the attack on the Bastille in 1789. Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette were beheaded there in 1793, and it was the scene of great rejoicing in 1848, when France was proclaimed a republic. The Place de la Concorde has also been termed the Place Louis XV and Place de la Revolution.

Rattlesnake Poison.

"Years ago, when I was a boy at home," said a southern man, "an uncle of mine, who lived near Montgomery, was out on his plantation one day when he saw an enormous rattlesnake stretched in a furrow of a cotton field. He seized a hoe lying near by and made a pass at the monster. At the same time it struck out at him and broke off one of its fangs on the edge of the hoe blade. My uncle dispatched the snake and then picked up the fang and brought it to the house as a curiosity. It was sharp as a needle, and a faint yellow stain at the tip showed where some of the virus had exuded.

"The bit of bone lay for at least three or four years in an empty box on my uncle's writing table in his study, when one day a stupid negro servant girl, not knowing what it was, used it to extract a splinter from her thumb. In less than an hour her whole lower arm was swollen, and she exhibited all the characteristic symptoms of snake poison.

"My uncle had studied medicine and by prompt measures saved the girl's life, but for some mysterious reason gangrene subsequently appeared in her arm, and amputation was necessary. My uncle had no time in burning his murderous relic."

Two and Four.

"Two" demanded the peremptory conductor as he took a quarter from the woman who had just struggled to a place on the trolley.

"No, four," she replied. "Four fares were rung sharply, and the conductor handed back 5 cents.

"That isn't right!" exclaimed the woman indignantly. "You said you wanted to pay for four," retorted the trolley employee.

"I didn't," denied the woman. "You asked if my little boy was 2 years old, and I said no, he was 4. I suppose 'll have to pay for him by the rule, but I don't think it's right."

The remainder of the sentence was lost in the discords that issued from the throat of the enraged conductor, who thrust ten pennies into the outstretched hand and retired to the rear platform to relieve his feelings more fully by refusing to stop the car for any one for ten blocks.—New York Press.

South Sea Superstitions.

In the south sea islands the old gods are still very close to present life, despite the vigorous profession of the newer faith which the missionaries have introduced. On village greens the stone churches rise into prominence. The people are unforgetting in their attendance upon the services, wearing clean white shirts and gaily bonnets, according to the sex of the worshippers, and carrying their Bibles and hymnbooks wrapped in spotless handkerchiefs. But in the jungles and on the waters no Samoan quite forgets his ancestral gods, the powers of nature, and in the domain of the hunter and the fisher these old gods retain supreme.

Moralists may not assume to blame them as untutored savages practicing absurd superstitions of an inferior race, for if any moralist will only go a-dis-ting with people of the infinitely superior Caucasian race he cannot avoid seeing a few practices which may not be superstitious, but which are certainly believed necessary to luck. What the boy does to the worm after it is on the hook and before it goes into the stream is proof that there is kinship in practice between the savage and the cultured sportsman.—Cor. Forest and Stream.

Custom Influences Language.

Poetologists, like botanists, find it impossible to enforce the rules of priority in names of fruits and flowers. In fruits the names of Bartlett for a pear and Telegraph for a grape have not been changed in spite of the efforts of leading pomologists and pomological societies to support prior names. Those who lead in these good efforts forget that the only law for language is the law of custom. In a famous grammar we are told "the English language requires the pronoun 'it' for all inanimate objects," but custom has so firmly made the sun a he and the moon a she that we have accepted it. Thus it will ever be. To secure the adoption of a prior name reformers must bestir themselves before custom gets possession of the field.—Mechan's Monthly.

A Testimonial from Old England.
 "I consider Chamberlain's cough remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savoye, of Warrington, England.
