HOME HAPPENINGS.

The heavens shed several big gobs of cry this week.

—Miss LaRue Winslow, of Benecette, is visiting relatives in town.

—J. D. Lines is busy collecting borough and school taxes for 1901.

—Miss Mae P. Cowher visited friends and relatives in Altoona last week.

—Prof. B. L. Myers spent the glorious Fourth in Patton and its environs.

—Mrs. J. R. Cornelius and two sons are visiting relatives in Houtzdale.

—Prof. Albert Yeckley, of Gallitzin, visited relatives in town this week.

—John Jenkins, of Uniontown, was visiting relatives in town this week.

—Mrs. T. J. Scholl is on a visit with relatives and friends at Carlisle, Pa.

—Mrs. W. L. Thompson was visiting relatives and friends at Clearfield this week.

—Thos. Cartwright, of this place, has had his pension increased to $12 per month.

—Miss Martha Wandy, of Pittsburgh, is a guest at the residence of E. W. Cowher.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doolinger and children are visiting relatives in Wilkesburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morey spent the Fourth visiting relatives at Williamsport.

—Dr. H. Somerville entertained the members of the Cambria County Medical Society at his residence in Chest Springs to-day.

—Miss Lydia Davis, of Warren, Ohio, visited friends and relatives in town over the Fourth.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sutcliffe returned last week from a six weeks' visit in England.

—Murray Lewis and Harry Mellon, of Johnstown, were here over Sunday visiting relatives.

—The Gallitzin orchestra will furnish music for a private dance in Goldstein's Hall this evening.

—John W. Meade, the new manager for the Patton Industrial Co-operative association, is in town.

—Howard C. Dinsmore was visiting relatives and prospective relatives in Pottsville this week.

—Geo. Langbein is the new American Express Co.'s agent in Patton, succeeding Chas. Cordell, resigned.

—A corps of painters and decorators from Lock Haven are at work on the interior of the Good Building.

—Chas. Heist is doing the honors at Garfield Wilkins' tonsorial parlor during the absence of Mr. Wilkins.

—Rev. T. W. Evans, of Shamokin, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening.

—Misses Georgia Perry and Lillie Perry and Oneida McClintock, of Coalport, were visiting here this week.

—The Miller block on East Magee avenue has been beautified by a coat of white paint. Joe Marks was the artist.

—The corner stone of the new Methodist church at Bakerton will be laid with impressive ceremonies on Sunday next.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Burkhardt, of Johnstown, were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Kinkead, over the Fourth.

—The Keystone Clothing Co. announces their annual summer cleaning up sale next week in their usual advertising space.

—The financial statement of the Patton public schools for the first year ending June 1, 1902, will be found in another column.

—W. H. Burd, the assistant principal of the Patton schools last term, has been elected principal of the Emerson school of Altoona.

—Mr. and Mrs. Al Beer and children, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smale, of Beech avenue over Sunday.

—Miss Katherine Smith, of Salamanca, N. Y., and Mrs. Geo. Myers, of Ashville, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Frank Platt, on Beech avenue.

—Jimmy Wiggins, of this place, announces that he is prepared to wrestle any 135-lb man in America, Sammy Taylor, of Barnesboro, preferred.

—Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Wilkins left Monday on a ten days' vacation trip. They will visit friends at Houtzdale and other places before returning.

—Phillip Burkhardt, Joe Messenger and Barney Litzinger returned from Oak Grove on Tuesday, where they had been engaged at carpenter work for some time.

—Prices are quoted in the new advertisement of the Bon Ton store in this issue that ought to prove trade winners. They embrace a number of reasonable articles.

—Dan Harper drove to Gallitzin on the Fourth and on his return stopped long enough at Loretto to witness the big display of fire works at the summer home of Chas. M. Schwab.

—Fagan, the painter and decorator, is painting Renel Somerville's new house this week and also repainting J. H. Hubbard's residence. He recently did a handsome job of lettering at the Prudential Insurance Co.'s office.

—Patton Fire Co. No. 1 cleared about $40 as the result of the picnic held at Fremont's Park of July 4 and 5. There was good music for dancing and all the concertants of a good time and the boys ought to have been more liberally patronized.

—Attention is directed to the new advertisement of the City Restaurant in this issue. The new proprietors, Hunter & Mitchell, propose to keep a first-class eating house in every particular and will make a specialty of the cream by wholesale.

—Quite a number of members of the local organization of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union attended the convention at Houtzdale this week. A big picnic was held on Wednesday, one of the features being a base ball game between nines from the Patton and Houtzdale unions. Five innings were played and the Patton club was victorious by a score of 2 to 1.

—With this issue John A. Gunn enters the list of regular advertisers in the COURIER and he deserves of a large patronage. He has one of the handsomest pharmacies to be found anywhere in an interior town in the state, is a competent druggist of known probity and his goods are all new and fresh. Don't forget Gunn when in need of anything in his line.

—The base ball project has received considerable impetus during the last few days and about $550 has been raised for the purpose of erecting a grand stand and putting the grounds in proper shape. There is no longer any doubt about the success of the venture. Subscriptions are still being received and a meeting to elect officers will be held some evening next week.
