—J. J. Donnelly was in Johnstown Wednesday on business.

—Hon. Jas. Flynn, of Altoona, was in town Monday on business.

—John Boyce, of Grass Flat, was calling on friends in town this week.

—Joe Z. Rowe, of Bucknell University, Lewisburg, is in town on business.

—Miss Anna Milson, of Smoke Run, is visiting her friend, Miss Mae Cowher.

—Miss Maude Pink, of Mahaffey, was visiting friends in town over Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Mitchell, of Mahaffey, visited relatives in town over Sunday.

—John W. Maude, the manager of the co-operative store, is visiting in South Fork.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kinkead and two children, of Ridgway, are visiting relatives in town.

—Andrew Lantz has purchased the Lafayette Hotel at Hastings of H. C. Pralman for $5,500.

—Miss Nellie Fanning, of Plymouth, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Donnelly.

—Mrs. S. G. Clinger and children, of Edgewood Park, are visiting at the residence of S. K. Snyder.

—The White Shoe Store has a new advertisement in another column of more than usual interest.

—Guy Commons and H. F. Notley represented Hastings at the metropolis of North Cambria on Tuesday.

—Stall's orchestra, of Hastings, furnished music for a select ball in Goldstein's Hall on Tuesday night.

—The annual harvest home picnic at St. Lawrence will be held on Friday and Saturday, August 8 and 9.

—John R. Cordell was confined to the bed a couple of days this week at his residence on West Magee avenue.

—Services of the Episcopal church will be held in the Swedish Lutheran church on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. All are welcome.

—Do you want fine printing at the minimum of cost? Then let the PATTON COURIER do your job work. Best and cheapest.

—Misses Jennie Crain and Anna Goldstein were among the Patton people who attended the carnival at Altoona last week.

—Jonathan Andrews was in town over Sunday. He is now employed as mine foreman at the Steinhorn No. 2 mine at South Fork.

—Ed A. Mellon announces a novel scheme to help the striking miners in the anthracite region in a new advertisement in this issue.

—The proprietor of the Corner Drug Store, Mr. Huber, has not decided as yet whether he will close his Patton store on August 15th or not.

—One of the finest toned and hand-somest musical instruments in town is the new Chase piano recently installed in the residence of Geo. C. Yeager.

—A remnant and odd lot sale at the Bon Ton is announced in a new advertisement on another page. It will last one week only, commencing Monday.

—L. W. Nicholson, formerly proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at this place, has purchased a pool and billiard room at Clearfield and will move his family there from Kittanning.

—Last day of July and the month will go down in weather history as a "wet month." There were few days in which it did not rain and heaven's artillery was firing blank cartridges almost continually.

—Frank Polchla and Mrs. Hortense Papon were married at the home of the bride near the Pardee No. 3 mine on Saturday evening. Squire Jas. Mellon performed the ceremony and A. H. Burkey went along to see that the knot was tied properly.

—A large barn on the Jas. Sharbaugh farm, about three miles from Patton, was struck by lightning and destroyed with its contents early Friday morning. The farm was leased by Sylvester Bradley and his loss is quite heavy. The barn was insured for $300.

—Levi Spangle and wife are visiting friends in Patton. Mr. Spangle has purchased two houses in Patton and moved his household goods to one of them this week. Mr. Spangle is an excellent citizen and we are sorry to see him move from the community. —Conspire Standard.

—H. P. Galer, wife and little daughter, of Patton, were guests at the home of Mrs. Galer's brother, Mr. H. M. Neff, of this place, Sunday. He is one of the most competent hardware men in Central Pennsylvania and is in charge of Dentinger's large hardware store in Patton. —Barnesboro Sentinel.

—The new grounds of the Patton Athletic Association are being rapidly put in order under the direction of Manager Donnelly. The stumps have been removed and the work of putting up the fence and grand stand will commence as soon as the lumber can be procured. When finished it will be one of the best base ball parks in this section. It is the intention to have the first game on the new grounds a week from Saturday if a good club can be secured for that day.

—Geo. H. Curfman has resigned his position as railroad station agent at this place and Mr. Coon, formerly of Westover, is his successor. Mr. Curfman was the only station agent the company ever had here, having opened the office ten years ago this August. He was telegraph operator as well and has seen the business grow from comparatively nothing until now it ranks with the largest of the towns outside of the cities. Mr. Coon assumed charge on Tuesday.

—Mrs. Mary Daus, the wife of Jacob Daus, a former well-known baker of Patton, died of consumption at her home, 1412 Fifteenth avenue, Altoona, where the family have resided since they left here, on Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock. The deceased was born in Austria, January 7, 1874. She was a member of St. Mary's German Catholic church in Altoona and the funeral was held there at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, with interment in St. Mary's cemetery. Mrs. Daus is survived by her husband, little daughter, Louise, about three years old, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fochler, four brother and one sister, all of Altoona.

ARE YOU READY

for that pair of Oxfords? We have a pair waiting for you that will comfort and adorn your feet until Father Time has cut a great big hole in the coming summer.

The new Shoes and Oxfords for the little folks are in. Everything that's new and desirable in the way of shapes and styles. There's a knack in making right shoes for young people—Shoes as shapely and stylish as those for the elders, yet built to stand harder wear.

It took us quite a while to find makers that put these things into Children's Shoes, but we have done it and so good Shoes for Children are here.

A FEAST OF RIBBONS.

Thousands of yards of all silk, fresh, clean, crisp ribbons of desirable sorts and colorings have come to us. There are the popular corded taffeta ribbons, satin-faced ribbons, sash ribbons, velvet ribbons.

We share the feast with you. It is a time of all times to provide ribbons. Fashion puts no limitation to their manifold uses.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

is our Flour Department. Just unloaded two solid cars of flour.

Ben Hur, America's Best and Perfection. There is a supreme satisfaction in using flour that is always good; that always bakes the same. We guarantee all our flour to give the best of satisfaction.
