—Read the new advertisement of Gunn's Pharmacy in this issue. It will interest you.

—R. G. Adams, of St. Augustine, was in town this morning and a pleasant caller at this office.

—No school next week. All the teachers will attend the county institute at Ebensburg.

—The new Magee avenue bridge is rapidly approaching completion and is now open for traffic.

—Ed A. Mellon, John R. Cordell and Wm. Yockley had business at the county seat Monday.

—The official vote of Cambria county at the last election will be found in tabulated form in another column.

—Samuel Helmer, of Philadelphia, and Hon. Jas. Kerr, of Clearfield, were business visitors in town Thursday.

—Mrs. Chas. Makin and daughter, Mammie, of Corning, N. Y. are visiting Engineer Makin at the Commercial Hotel.

—A courteous invitation and one that is appreciated is aptly described in the new advertisement of Ed A. Mellon in this issue.

—Hon. and Mrs. W. C. Lingle and Frank Lingle were in Lock Haven Tuesday attending the funeral of Mr. Lingle's aunt, Mrs. Mowry.

—"Ee on Time" is the pertinent advice given in J. C. Snyder's new advertisement in this issue. Read it and learn how to avoid being tardy.

—Monday will be the regular meeting night of the borough council. Get together, gentlemen, and have a quorum just to vary the monotony.

—St. Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, bishop of the Altoona diocese, will hold confirmation service at St. Mary's R. C. church at this place one week from Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor and son are visiting in Williamsport. Mr. Taylor will join E. S. Hippey in a hunting expedition in Clinton county before he returns.

—The night school will open one week from Monday. Over seventy pupils are already enrolled. Profs. B. I. Myers and Wm. M. Bosserman will be the teachers.

—Walter Ryan, of Chest Springs, a graduate of the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, succeeds Cecil Mitchell with the Geo. S. Good Electric Light Co.

—The third foot ball team of Patton went to Ebensburg Saturday and were defeated by a score of 24 to 0. A return game will be played at Athletic Park Saturday afternoon.

—Rev. T. W. Evans, pastor of the Baptist church, on Monday afternoon at the M. E. parsonage, united in marriage John M. Bell and Miss Annie Nelson, both of Clearfield county.

—The Right Reverend Cortlandt Whitehead, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburg, will hold a confirmation service in the Good Building on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

—Chas. M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, has just completed two residences for his aged aunts in Altoona. They are handsome buildings and cost $15,000 each.

—"Are you getting your share" is the appropriate caption of the new advertisement of the Bon Ton store. If not, read the prices quoted and if you don't in the future it will be your own fault.

—The annual banquet of the Cambria County Medical association will be held at Johnstown Thursday evening, Nov. 20. The regular monthly meeting, which will precede the banquet, will be held in the parlors of the Crystal hotel.
