HOME HAPPENINGS.

Thursday was McKinley's birthday.
The January thaw arrived on time.
Dan Harper was in Arcadia this week on business.
Supplementary license petitions are being circulated.
Dan will be the next chief burgess of Patton.
Borough and township elections two weeks from Tuesday.
The foundation for the new freight station is almost completed.
John Otto, of Nipton, was calling on friends in town Tuesday.
Jas. M. Gillice will take possession of the Miner's Rest hotel Monday.
The "Two Dams" are expected to inaugurate a strenuous campaign.
Christ Ketricher, of New Washington, spent Sunday at J. C. Harper's.
Chas. E. Patton, of Curwensville, was a business visitor in town Monday.
John Thomas succeeds Wesley Merriman as mixologist at the Palmer House.
"Flanigan's 400" played to a crowded house at Firemen's Hall last night.
Mrs. D. B. Beaver, of Irvona, is visiting friends and relatives in town this week.
Episcopal services will be held in Goods Hall Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.
Mrs. Edwin Whitehead is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Croyle, in Phillipsburg.
Two cases of small pox are reported from Baker's Mines and one from Bradley Junction.
H. H. Hubbard came up from Beech Creek this week to attend the Democratic primaries.
An advertisement that is of interest is the new one of Gunn's pharmacy in another column.
Miss Laura Woomer, of Osceola Mills, was visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Crowell, last week.
F. E. Farabaugh is in Ebensburg auditing the accounts of the county with the other auditors.
The residence of F. B. Moray on Palmer avenue has been quarantined on account of diphtheria.
It's up to the voters now, both dominant political parties having put a complete ticket in the field.
Jos. Lehman and Jas. P. Indible took advantage of the fine sleighing Tuesday and drove to Altoona.
S. S. Yabner is at Arcadia putting in an electric haulage plant for the Beech Creek Coal and Coke Co.
Wm. Elms fell down stairs one day last week with the result that he is carrying a broken arm in a sling.
J. Edwin Parnell and Meade B. Clowder were in New York and other eastern cities on business last week.
The difference in men is fully explained in the new advertisement of Ed A. Mellon in this issue. Read it.
The Socialist-Labor party was the only one that made a nomination for constable for the first ward of Patton.
The supreme court Monday refused the petition for a re-argument in the case of Reilly vs Mountain Coal Co.
It has cost $1,000 to keep the snow off the tracks of the N. Y. C. road between Woodland and Patton, during the last month.—Clearfield Journal.
S. E. Stine, formerly manager of the White Shoe Store, was in town over Sunday. Mr. Stine is now a resident of Huntingdon, where he has a good position in a shoe store.
The COURIER office cat suggests that the signature to the Patton correspondence of the Ebensburg Mountaineer-Herald this week would be more appropos if it was spelled backward.
There is no longer any doubt but what an effort will be made to secure an additional law judge for this county. Senator Stineeman introduced a bill for that object in the state legislature Monday.
Walter R. Thompson, the former owner, has purchased an half interest in the Ebensburg Mountaineer-Herald and henceforth that sprightly sheet will be conducted under the firm name of Gibson & Thompson.
R. Peale, the well-known coal operator at Carrolltown, has offered to furnish that borough with electric lights from his operations, if the people will bear the expenses connected with lighting the town. It is thought the liberal offer will be accepted.

The Carroll Comedy Co. in repertoire of late New York successes will open a three nights engagement in Firemen's Hall commencing Monday. "A Klondike Claim," the great western melodrama, will be presented the first night. Prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents.
The calendar for 1903 gives these facts: St. Valentine Day comes on Saturday, Washington's Birthday on Wednesday, Memorial Day and Fourth of July on Saturday, Christmas on Friday, Ash Wednesday on February 24, Good Friday on April 10 and Easter on April 12.
The second week of the big clearance sale of the Keystone Clothing Co. promises to be a record breaker. Twelve thousand dollars worth of goods must be disposed of and the prices quoted in the page advertisement on the fourth page prove conclusively that the goods will be snapped up eagerly.
A mill end sale is something unusual in this section and rarely attempted outside of the cities, but the Bon Ton store is always a little ahead of establishments of that character and will inaugurate one Monday to last for nine days. The big page advertisement in this issue will tell you all about it.
Matt Savage, the editor of the Public Spirit, has been nominated for chief burgess of Clearfield. If devotion to the best interests of the town in which he lives counts for anything, he ought to be elected without a dissenting vote. Much of the present boom that place is now enjoying is due to the energy and intelligent persistency of the genial Matt.
The time for filing remonstrances against liquor license applications expired Monday night. Among other papers filed was one by J. P. Mullen against the granting of a license to S. D. Daggett for the Palmer House, setting forth that he is in possession of the property. One against the application of John S. Douglas, retail, Moss Creek, Barr township, contained thirty-three names and one against the application of Peter Kirkpatrick and William Thomas for a wholesale license Moss Creek, Barr township, had thirty-eight names.
Arden Yinkey, night editor of the Johnstown Democrat, will in two week wed Miss Agnes C. Goff, a nurse in the Memorial hospital in that place. Mr. Yinkey was not always a night editor. Not so very many weeks ago he was a reporter, and it was part of his nightly duty to call up the hospital for news. It was the duty of Miss Goff to answer his calls. There was not always news, but there was always something to talk about. Finally the conversation was carried on at closer range, and finally—well, the telephone is altogether too cold and distant a proposition now.—Ex.

INTERESTING INDENTATIONS.
Three holidays this month. Monday will be Ground Hog Day. Have your watch repaired at Snyder's. You can do better at the White shoe store.
"Duquesne beer is good." ED A. MELLON.
Ask the devil to dine with you once and you can count on him as a regular boarder.
"Duquesne" stands for all that is good, pure and wholesome in beer. ED A. MELLON.
We are closing out our heavy weight trousers at $4, formerly $7 and $7.50. They are suitable for either dress or business. DINSMORE BROS.
Purity and excellence, coupled with age, are what makes a good beer. When you drink Duquesne you are assured of this trio. ED A. MELLON.
Buffalo Bill says he has given his last Wild West show in the United States. He expects to show two years in Europe before he quits finally.
Why drink "green" non-union made beer, when you can get union goods thoroughly aged and not made by a trust. Moral: Drink Duquesne beer. ED A. MELLON.
