HOME HAPPENINGS.

—W. H. Sandford was in Phillipsburg over Sunday.

—E. F. Wise, of Ansonville, was in town Tuesday.

—Bonnie Kusner was in Altoona Tuesday on business.

—Frank Zentmyer, of Clearfield, was in town over Sunday.

—Ralph E. Good was at his home in Look Haven over Sunday.

—Chas. F. Pitt was visiting relatives at Corning, N. Y., this week.

—Mervin Lewis of Johnstown, was visiting relatives here over Sunday.

—Hon. and Mrs. W. C. Lingle spent Sunday via Pitt Phillipsburg relatives.

—The Keystone Clothing Co. announce an extension of their big clearance sale in their advertisement in this issue.

—John Wolfe is again stationed at Patton and is engineer of one of the shifters.

—The first harbingers of spring is the new advertisement of Dinsmore Bros. the tailors.

—The bank and post office observed Lincoln's birthday, a legal holiday, Thursday.

—Wm. Curry, a prominent lumberman of Brockwayville, was in town Tuesday on business.

—Wm. J. Bryan will visit Johnstown the 25th inst. and will deliver a lecture in one of the opera houses.

—An advertisement of interest is the new one of Dave Perell, the photographer, in another column.

—A festival will be held at Chest Springs Saturday night under the auspices of St. Monica's R. C. church.

—Short, but containing excellent advice, is the new advertisement of John R. Cordell & Co. in another column.

—The second annual reception of the Patton dancing class will be held in Goldstein's Hall Thursday evening, the 19th inst.

—The residence of John Shunkwiler was being quarantined. His five-year old daughter has whooping cough and diphtheria.

—Archdeacon Cole, of Pittsburg, will hold Episcopal services in Good's Hall Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All are welcome.

—It is said that County Auditor Farabaugh has discovered a mistake of over $4,000 in the auditors' statement for 1902 and an appeal is probable.

—With election but three days off, the political cauldron refuses to boil with any degree of rapidity. There is no enthusiasm and very little electioneering.

—Patton was not represented at the health convention held at Johnstown Thursday. H. C. Yergler, the regularly elected delegate, was unable to attend on account of illness.

—Walter M. Peters has resigned his position as local representative of the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton and is succeeded by D. W. Noble, of Huntington.

—On the 25th day of March this, the central Pennsylvania, conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, will convene for its thirty-fifth annual session in the new Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal church at Altoona. Bishop Stephen M. Merrill, D. D. LL. D., of Chicago, will preside.

—Next Sunday will be observed by the Methodist church in this place as Missionary Day. Sermon in the morning suitable for the day. In the evening Rev. W. W. Cadle, formerly one of Bishop Taylor's missionaries in Africa, will address the congregation. Everybody welcome, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

—A force of painters are at work on the summer home of Chas. M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, at Loretto, and they have received orders to complete their task by April 1. On this account it is expected that Mr. Schwab will arrive from Europe about that time. The painters are from New York and are decorating the entire interior of the mansion.

—Allegheny township has two more cases of smallpox. Those, Seymour, a son of George Seymour, who lives between Chest Springs and Ambsry, contracted the disease while in Vintondale recently and is now very sick. It is not known whether he came in contact with smallpox victims or not, but he became sick shortly after his return home from that place. Peter Milhorn, Jr., a near neighbor of the Seymours, contracted the disease from young Seymour and is also very sick.

—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Weakland, the wife of S. J. Weakland, was held in the Catholic church at Chest Springs this morning with interment in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Weakland died at her home in Coalport Tuesday afternoon of heart trouble after an illness of three weeks. She is survived by her husband and six children—Mrs. Jennie Conrad, of Chest Springs; Mrs. Mollie Moore, of Harrisburg; Mrs. W. B. Bloom, of Coalport, Pa.; of Pittsburg, Geo., of Dunlo, and Elsworth E. of Coalport.

INTERESTING INDENTATIONS.

Saturday will be St. Valentine's Day. Have your watch repaired at Snyder's.

Patience is virtue, but haste is a better one.

You can do better at the White shoe store.

It's a good thing to know when to stop talking.

Borough and township elections will be held Tuesday.

A fellow can be dressed to kill without carrying a gun.

Some people are always busiest when there is nothing to do.

"Duquesne beer is good."

ED A. MELLON.

The people we can't convince are always those who won't listen to reason. It's all right to grasp an opportunity, but it's also a good thing to know when to let go.

There is some hope for the man who knows he is a fool, but who strives to keep the knowledge to himself.

"Duquesne" stands for all that is good, pure and wholesome in beer.

ED A. MELLON.

We are closing out our heavy weight trousers at $6, formerly $7 and $7.50. They are suitable for either dress or business.

DINSMORE BROS.

Purity and excellence, coupled with age, are what makes a good beer. When you drink Duquesne you are assured of this trio.

ED A. MELLON.

Why drink a "green" non-union made beer, when you can get union goods thoroughly aged and not made by a trust. Moral: Drink Duquesne beer.

ED A. MELLON.

TOUR TO CALIFORNIA.

Under the Personally-Conducted System of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The second Pennsylvania railroad personally-conducted tour to California for the present season will leave New York and Philadelphia on the Golden Gate special, February 19, going via Cincinnati, New Orleans, San Antonio and El Paso to Los Angeles and San Diego. Three days will be spent in New Orleans, during the Mardi-Gras festivities. Should a sufficient number of passengers desire to travel under the care of a tourist agent and chaparron, a delightful month's itinerary in California has been outlined; and a returning itinerary to leave San Francisco March 28, visiting Salt Lake City, Glenwood and Colorado Springs and Denver arriving in New York April 4. Rate, $275 from all points on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburg, covering all expenses of railroad transportation, side trips in California, and berth and meals going on the special train. No hotel expenses in California are included. Tickets are good for return within nine months, but returning cover transportation only. For detailed itinerary apply to ticket agents or address Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent, Broad street station, Philadelphia, Pa.
