

Patton Courier.

HOME HAPPENINGS.

—Friday next will be a legal holiday.
 —A bartenders union will be organized in Patton next week.
 —Jas. Gleason, the Houtzdale attorney, was in town over Sunday.
 —Frank Kane and John Thomas were in DuBois the first of the week.
 —Mrs. John R. Cordell and Mrs. C. E. Walter were in Altoona Thursday.
 —There were less "fittings" in town this moving day than in some years past.
 —Jas. Stratton, of Phillipsburg, was renewing acquaintances in town this week.
 —Miss Pearl Letts, of Jersey Shore, is visiting friends and relatives in town.
 —"Seeing the Elephant" will be the subject of Col. Copeland's lecture Monday night.
 —The residence of E. M. Smale on Beech avenue has been quarantined on account of diphtheria.
 —J. H. Wardle, of Altoona, a United States post office inspector, inspected the local office this week.
 —Rev. E. O. Houk, of Westover, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening.
 —The Ralph Leisch property on Beech avenue has been purchased by I. S. Bell. Consideration $600.
 —The Keystone Clothing Co. has a new Easter advertisement in this issue that is worthy a careful perusal.
 —F. B. Markle, a prominent merchant of Dysart, was in town Monday and a pleasant caller at this office.
 —Irvin Grenninger, who has been in Pittsburg for the past two years, is again in the employ of the Kirk Hardware Co.
 —Chas. D. Holes has vacated the store room in the Fisher building and has opened a tailoring establishment at Glen Campbell.
 —Fisher & Wirtner have opened their new meat market in the room formerly occupied by Young & Yeager on East Magee avenue.
 —Borough Auditors M. B. Cowher, W. A. Mellon and Ed Hunter completed their work of auditing the accounts of the borough last week.
 —Elmer M. Smale was in Pittsburg Wednesday and returned home with Mrs. Smale, who has been in Mercy hospital in that city for several weeks.
 —The population of Jonnstown at present is estimated at 50,000, making it the largest city between Harrisburg and Pittsburg, with Altoona a close second.
 —Attention is directed to the new advertisement of Little Bros. in this issue. They handle nothing but home killed meat and are responsible in every way.
 —The office of the Prudential Insurance Co. has been moved from the Williams block to the room in the Good building formerly used as a stock exchange.
 —A. C. Fisher on Monday purchased the building formerly occupied by Young & Yeager on East Magee avenue of Mrs. Frank Yeager. Consideration, $2,700.
 —Rev. S. A. Potter, of Barnesboro, was in town Wednesday on his way home from Pittsburg, where he placed his little daughter in a hospital. She is ill with typhoid fever.
 —W. H. Sandford attended the meeting of the Laymen's association of the Central Pennsylvania conference at Altoona Saturday. He was chairman of the committee on nominations.
 —The Bon Ton Store's new advertisement in this issue is of particular interest to those looking for spring millinery. Other seasonable goods are told about and the usual low prices quoted.
 —J. W. Hodges, an experienced printer of Philadelphia, has joined the force in the job department of the Courier and we are better prepared than ever to turn out work expeditiously and well.
 —Fred McPherson, son of Reuben McPherson, left for Bledsoe county, Tenn., to do some expert mineral prospecting with the Davis Calyx Drill for Joseph J. Kettell. He expects to be gone at least a year.—Clearfield Public Spirit.
 —A festival will be held in the Festival Hall of the M. E. church Saturday beginning at 5 o'clock p. m. in charge of the young ladies of the Sunday school. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches, coffee, candy, etc., will be served. Everybody welcome.
 —Jesse Dale, of Patton, ex-sheriff of Clearfield county, was shaking hands with his many friends and political associates in Clearfield yesterday. The sheriff is hale and hearty and enjoying life to its utmost.—Clearfield Daily Spirit, Saturday.
 —The Patton division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians have leased the rooms over Weekland & Ryan's wholesale liquor store and will have a lodge room of their own. Heretofore they have occupied quarters with the Young Men's Institute in the Buck building on Fifth avenue.

—The entire equipment of the Palmer House, including furniture, dishes, carpet, etc., will be disposed of at auction Saturday night. The new landlord, Thos. Mullen, will take charge of the hotel a week later and it will be re-furnished throughout.
 —The Jewish Passover, or "Feast of Passach," will begin on the evening of April 12 and will last eight days. This holiday, which is rigidly observed by the Jewish world, is in commemoration of the exodus of the Jews from Egypt under the leadership of Moses. During this period unleavened bread is eaten.
 —About the neatest place in town is the new restaurant opened in the Yeager building on East Magee avenue by Mrs. Ada C. Bennett. Mrs. Bennett is an expert in serving toothsome things for the inner man, and woman, too, and can be depended upon to maintain her reputation in that line. Read her new advertisement in another column.
 —The law prohibits the catching of trout before April 15. Fine for violation is $25. It further provides that no trout less than six inches in length shall be taken from any stream. Fish wardens say the law requires them to examine baskets and they propose to do so. The fine is $10 for each and every one trout found in any one's possession that is under lawful size.
 —Jas. Waldron was taken to the county jail Thursday morning in default of $400 bail to answer charges at the next term of court of carrying concealed weapons and pointing fire arms. He was raising a disturbance at Langbein & Scheid's saloon Wednesday afternoon and was ejected from the premises. When he returned he pulled a revolver and threatened to shoot Mr. Scheid. He was given a hearing before Justice-of-the-Peace Boone.
 —A small sized riot occurred in front of Goldstein's department store Wednesday afternoon. Fists and stones were flying through the air in a promiscuous manner for a few minutes and both landed every once or twice in a second. About six or seven men were in the mix up and three of them were arrested by Chief Gill, while the others escaped. Those arrested were given a hearing before Justice-of-the-Peace Boone who fined them each $3 and costs.
 —The entire equipment of the Mountain House at Cresson will be offered at auction sale on Wednesday, the 22nd of April. A Philadelphia firm of auctioneers will have charge, and they announce that the sale will be without reserve. The articles offered will include bedroom suites and other equipment of a hotel from basement to attic. The Mountain House is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, but it has not been opened for several seasons because it did not pay.
