ANTONIO MAZALOSKI is another example and victim of the strenuous life.

JUPITER PLUVIOUS and his sprinkling can have been working over time this week.

In the mean time, there will be no dearth of "German disturbance" in this section, pending the erecting of that new brewery.

This product of that new Patton brewery will have to be of the best if it is in keeping with the town, and it undoubtedly will be.

UNNATURALIZED foreigners and non-resident hunters will have to procure a license before they can hunt in this state in the future.

THE amount of "hot air" expended by some of the young men in this place, and older ones, too, would heat every building in Cambria county.

HAS Pennsylvania a live man or a dead fossil for governor? The COURIER will answer this question the same time it reports his action on the Salus bill.

THE roasting that that six feet, four inches of assiduity, gall and feet, Senator Boies Penrose, is getting at the hands of the newspapers of the state on account of his connection with the Salus libel bill is deserved as well as enjoy.

THE editor of the COURIER acknowledges the receipt of a handsome invitation to attend the opening of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. Now if the committee will furnish the transportation and board while there we'll make an effort to attend.

THE success of the Patton night school for the first term, recently ended, augers well for a second term, and is most gratifying to its projectors, especially as it has proven a failure in a number of places considerably larger than this, notably Johnstown.

IT is a pleasure to his friends to know that Senator Patton was one of the very few in the upper branch of the state legislature who refused to vote for the Salus monstrosity. It is refreshing sometimes to hear of a man who refuses to take orders from the cock-eyed boss or Me Too Penrose.

CONSIDERING the near approach of the Republican county convention, there is very little activity in politics. The most important officer to be nominated is sheriff and in these piping times of prosperity the shrewdly doesn't pay as well as it once did. Hence the apathy and lack of candidates.

WITH Grover Cleveland patting the "cooties" on the back at the Tuskegee meeting and Mark Hanna championing a bill to pension ex-slaves, the battle for presidential delegates in the South can be said to have begun. Both, however, have about as much chance of being president this century as the COURIER editor has of being elected a bishop.

THE Hon. Captain Thos. Davis, of Ebensburg, did not make any new friends by taking orders and voting for the Salus outrage. Neither did the Hon. James Knocks the Persimmons Hall, of Elk county, by sitting quietly in his seat and refusing to vote when the obnoxious measure came up. On this particular occasion "Jeems" was neither "a man, a mouse or a long-tailed rat."

THERE are local dealers who are furnishing cigarettes and cigarette papers to boys who are liable to run against a snag "if they don't watch out." The new law provides: "That if any person or persons shall sell cigarettes or cigarette paper to any person or persons under the age of 21 years he or she so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $300 nor less than $100."

A YOUNG man by the name of Vanderbilt married a young lady named Neilson the other day. There is nothing so very strange in this, as they had a perfect right to have the ceremony performed, but why the metropolitan newspapers should seize upon the event as an excuse to slop over to the extent of seven columns a day for a week is beyond the COURIER's comprehension. Both "the high contracting parties" may be very nice people, but beyond the fact that the groom is a lineal descendant of "The Public be Damned" Vanderbilt, there does not seem to be much occasion for "gush." Lots of young people their superior in every way get married every day in the year, without as much as a single column head or a four line local.

THE COURIER has received the centennial number of the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin and it is in thorough keeping with the progressiveness that marks the publication of that enterprising daily newspaper. It is alike a credit to the publishers and the city that make it possible.

HOW THE KOCH LUNG CURE Came to Altoona.

A number of public spirited business men of Altoona had heard of the remarkable cures that had been achieved by means of this treatment by inhalation and the vaporizing of the tuberculin or lymph discovered by Prof. Robt. Koch, of Berlin, Germany. In a dozen cities these institutes were doing effectual and wonderful work, in the permanent cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh.

Careful inquiry was made by a number of citizens residing in Altoona by visits personally made to the Koch Institutes in other cities and the results of their thorough investigations made it clear that Altoona would be benefited served and blessed by the presence of such an Institute in Central Pennsylvania.

It was ascertained by these gentlemen that it would cost $25,000 to secure the territorial rights under authority of the New York company to do business in Altoona and vicinity, with this treatment. Having satisfied themselves of the merit and unquestioned value of this treatment for Respiratory Diseases, a meeting of some forty business men of Altoona was held and the money subscribed and paid in by these gentlemen.

By means of this action on their part a Koch Lung Cure Institute, owned by the business men of Altoona, with all the good to mankind that the presence of this treatment implies, was secured to the residents of Central Pennsylvania for all time to come. A permanent, lasting benefit to those who are or may hereafter be afflicted with these dreaded and fatal diseases.

The services of an able, skilled physician and specialist in diseases of the Nose, Throat and Lungs, and trained nurses were secured for the Koch Lung Cure, of Altoona. Offices 9, 10, 11, 12, Altoona Trust Co. Building, where all callers will receive a careful examination free. Office Hours, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. Sunday, 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Pamphlet sent free to any address on application.

Out of town patients can be treated at home with our Home Treatment Apparatus without extra charge.
