HOME HAPPENINGS.

—There were a few little snow squalls early this morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Schwab are now at their Loretto home.

—Mrs. S. W. Worrell and daughter were visiting in Clearfield over Sunday.

—J. C. Hamer, the baker, has put a handsome new delivery wagon on the road.

—Rev. Father Quinn, of St. Augustin's, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, of Nipton, were renewing acquaintances in town this week.

—A handsome white and gold sign has been erected in front of the new Hotel Windsor.

—Ed A. Mellon has a little thesis in another column of this issue that is well worth reading.

—Albert Itell, a former Patton drug clerk, is again employed in the pharmacy of C. W. Hodgkins.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Denlinger attended a Masonic banquet at Phillipsburg Wednesday night.

—An enjoyable ball was held in Goldstein's Hall Tuesday night under the auspices of the Patton Social Club.

—Peter J. Little, the well known Ebensburg attorney, is said to be a candidate for Democratic county chairman.

—The new billiard hall, bowling alley and shooting gallery in the post office block has been christened "The Acappon."

—Services of the Episcopal church will be held in the Good Building Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

—The White Shoe Store has a new advertisement in this issue that will repay a careful perusal by anyone in need of good foot gear.

—The Patton public schools are closed to-day. The teachers and directors are in Clearfield inspecting the schools of the steel town.

—J. Wesley Hason, the father of Mrs. C. C. Holtzer, of this place, died at his home in Phillipsburg, Tuesday, aged 79 years and 11 days.

—Pittsburg parties have been in town this week trying to interest local capitalists in the establishment of another National bank here.

—Philip Link and Miss Jane N. Barkley, both of this place, will be married in St. Mary's R. C. church Tuesday morning, May 26, at 8 o'clock.

—Chas. Bender was called to Pittsburg Wednesday on account of the serious illness of his wife, who is receiving medical treatment in that city.

—H. N. Aspden, E. Will Greene, W. H. Denlinger, Jesse E. Dale, S. O. Daggett, H. P. Galer and Alex. Montalith attended Masonic lodge at Coalport Monday night.

—The late John C. Snyder had his life insured for $2,500. He had also made application for $5,000 more, but the matter had not been closed at the time of his death.

—John Nedimyer, of St. Lawrence, has been appointed fire detective by the county commissioners for the townships of Clearfield, Chest, Elder, Susquehanna and Reade.

—Loretto local talent will present "A Russian Honeymoon," a play in three acts, at the parochial hall in St. Augustine Saturday night for the benefit of the Catholic church.

—An "Under Price Sale" is now on at the Bon Ton store and the prices quoted in the advertisement in this issue prove that it is not a misnomer. Many money saving bargains are offered.

—The Patton lodge of Odd Fellows attended the M. E. church in a body Sunday morning and listened to an excellent sermon by Rev. E. H. Witman. His subject was "The Good Samaritan."

—Two new advertisements of the Keystone Clothing Co. in this issue contain much of interest to anyone in need of anything in the immense line of goods now shown in that popular establishment.

—W. E. Probert has opened a barber shop in the basement of the Nolan building on West Magee avenue, having purchased the equipment of the Italian who was located in the fruit store building on the same street.

—Indian Bill's Wild West Show was wrecked near Elizabeth, on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad, Friday morning, while en route to Connellsville. Six horses were killed, a number injured, an Indian perhaps fatally hurt and two cars demolished.

—One of the most stirring departments of Indian Bill's Wild West must naturally be its hippodrome which is unlike any thing hitherto given in either equestrianism or public sports. It is classical because it is distinctive typical. It is educational because it is part and parcel of the sports of a people of whom little is known here by the average citizen. Persons engage in these contests for supremacy who have ever been rivals in equestrianism. Will exhibit at Patton Tuesday, May 5.
