COURT NEWS.

Business Transacted up to the Time the Courier Went to Press.

June term of Cambria county court is in session this week. It convened Monday morning, at which time Judge O'Connor took occasion in his charge to the grand jury to call the attention of the supervisors to the recent law requiring such township officials to remove loose stones from the highways under their control at least once a month.

His Honor said this law was enacted in 1901, but had been generally ignored, probably by reason of ignorance of its existence. He said it would be the duty of the supervisors to do what the law required, and gave the constables instructions regarding their duty in returning supervisors who failed to remove the stones from the township roads.

He also "called down" the constables for failing to make proper returns and instructed them to visit licensed places and make an honest report in regard to the same. He said that to a large extent the enforcement of the laws depends on the fidelity of constables, and endeavored to impress upon them the moral as well as legal obligation they incurred in taking the oath of office.

Among the constables returns was one by Constable Lilly, of Cresson township, charging John Brown, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at Cresson, with selling liquor to minors.

Business disposed of at the time the COURIER went to press will be found appended:

Petition of Martha G. Kerbey for the appointment of a guardian for Catherine and other minor children of Ed Kerbey, late of Allegheny township, Dr. F. C. Jones, of Ebensburg, appointed.

In the case of Samuel Hammond vs. the Gardner Shingle company and A. M. McClain, leave granted to amend plaintiff's statement.

Henry L. Miller vs. the borough of Hastings. Appeal. Motion for a new trial overruled and judgment directed to be entered for plaintiff.

S. M. Youcum vs. the Hastings Building & Loan association and P. W. Helrick, trespass. Motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment overruled and judgment directed to be entered for the plaintiff for amount of verdict and costs.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to use of County of Cambria vs. Joseph A. Gray, et al. sur recognizances. Application of defendant to have recognizances remitted refused and rule to show cause made absolute and judgment directed to be entered against the defendant for $1,500, with costs.

It will be remembered that the ex-sheriff was bail for John Hipps, who was indicted for forgery and perjury and failed to appear at court.

"TOM THUMB WEDDING"

It was the Leading Feature of the School Entertainment Last Week.

Long before the time for the school entertainment that was given last Wednesday night to begin, the Assembly room was crowded with patrons and pupils. Many, for lack of room, were turned away. The entertainment was given by pupils from the first, second, third and fourth intermediate grades, with three members from the primary grades.

The leading number was the "Tom Thumb Wedding" and the way the little ladies and gentlemen performed their parts was a credit to themselves and the teachers who drilled them. The "gentlemen" were in full dress (thanks to the much appreciated assistance of Howard Dinsmore) and presented a very pleasing appearance. The "ladies" too were very tastefully and beautifully dressed and the whole affair passed off with the pomp and dignity of a real wedding. The volume of the applause was the measure of its success.
