HOME HAPPENINGS.

Wm. Yeckley made a business trip to Pittsburg last week.

Sidney Rounsley has returned from a week's visit with DuBois relatives.

Presiding Elder Bell will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shaffer, of Flemington, are guests at the residence of W. C. Hubbard.

Jacob Thomas has sold his coal land at Thomas Mill to the Webster Coal and Coke Co.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McKenzie, of Crosson, were guests at the Commercial Hotel this week.

The Patton orchestra will furnish music for a public dance at Firemen's Park Monday night.

An advertisement of unusual interest is the new one in this issue of the Keystone Clothing Store.

Mrs. Gussie McIntosh and Miss Marie Cramer, of Altoona, are guests at the residence of Chas. Rhody.

County Surveyor John L. Elder and Attorney P. J. Little, of Ebensburg, were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Arvilla Hurst returned to her home at Flemington Tuesday after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ed S. Moore.

Wesley Merriman and Miss Mary Jane Nagle, both of Patton, were married by Justice of the Peace Boone on Monday.

The July clearance sale at the Bon Ton store will begin Monday. The big advertisement in this issue will tell you all about it.

Vice President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America, is expected in this section soon to deliver a number of addresses.

The gross receipts from the Catholic picnic held at Highland Grove July 4 and 6 were $1,900.55. Of this amount $1,247 was net.

The COURIER office has been short of help for the past couple of weeks, which accounts for the thin appearance of its news columns.

The quarterly meeting of the Federation of Catholic Societies of Cambria county is to be held at Lilly on Wednesday the 15th inst.

The Cresson Record has been sold by Swope Bros. to F. M. Harrington, a Pittsburg printer. Mr. Harrington was in Patton Monday.

A basket picnic will be held under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sewing Society of the Swedish Ev. Lutheran church at Anna's Grove Saturday.

Rev. John Feltwell, of Altoona, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening. Rev. Feltwell is a renowned evangelist and a pulpit orator of force and power.

R. J. Kaylor, of the Cambria Tribune at Ebensburg, is making preparations to start a new Democratic daily paper at Johnstown. It is said $50,000 will be invested in the business.

The Episcopals will have services in Good's Hall Sunday at 10:30 a. m. (Holy Communion) and 7:30 p. m. Rev. J. S. Hartwell, of Barnesboro, will officiate. Also Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

D. W. Ritchey, the local representative of the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, has an advertisement in this issue that cannot help but appeal to all who are striving to better their condition in life. It will repay a careful perusal.

At a meeting of the Patton school board held Monday night Miss Elizabeth A. Strop, of Millersburg, and Miss Elsie Eisenhart, of Abbottstown, were elected teachers to fill the two vacancies caused by the demotions of the Misses Ivory, of Hastings.

Thos. Hogan, supervisor of Allegheny township, was fined $5 and costs before Justice of the Peace Waiters at Ebensburg Monday for failing to remove the loose stones from the highway. He plead guilty to the charge which was preferred by William Baker.

The new bridge across the Viaduct, on the Beech Creek district, which is one of the highest in this part of the state and erected by the American Bridge company, has been completed. The structure is very high and the new bridge a fine piece of the bridge maker's art.

The Patton lodge of the P. O. S. of A. entertained the district president from Johnstown and a number of brethren from Blainburg at the meeting held Monday night. Mrs. Bennett furnished refreshments at midnight and an excellent musical and literary program was rendered.

A private dance was held at Goldstein's Hall Wednesday night. Findlay's orchestra, of Johnstown, furnished the music. The committee having the affair in charge was composed of Geo. E. Prindible, Arthur Dismore, Dr. H. A. Seltz, Walter Mellon, Ollie Lansbery and Duncan Sandford.

One of the best base ball games in this section this year was the one at Benedict Saturday afternoon between the club of that place and the Patton nine. The latter was defeated in a most interesting contest by a score of 4 to 3. Davis, the Princeton college pitcher, did the twirling for the Benedict club.

Fourth of July statistics, as gathered so far, show that 58 people were killed and nearly four thousand and five hundred were injured in the celebrations the country over. These are not complete figures as it would be next to impossible to include all, but they will do to show that patriotism is not an empty dream.

The county commissioners have awarded the stone work for the new bridge to be built across Walnut Run at Barnesboro to J. A. Lord, of Hastings, for $2,634.60. Other bidders were A. K. Huber, of Patton, $2,685; J. G. Lloyd, of Ebensburg, $3,840; T. N. Bowman, of Clinton county, $3,400, and a firm of Italian contractors at Barnesboro, $4,195.

Ex-County Commissioner Joseph W. Hubbard, a farmer in Beech Creek township, is still able to work in the harvest field, although he is past 79 years old. Owing to the scarcity of farm hands, Mr. Hubbard found it necessary to take a hand himself and used a hand rake and tied sheaves of wheat during the hottest days of last week—Lock Haven Express.

Marken Maragolies, a peddler, went to Alderman Crawford Tuesday and wanted to make information against a Hungarian at Ashville, Cambria county. He stated that he went to Ashville to collect $3 that was owed him and instead of getting the money the Hungarian gave him a beating. He was somewhat put out when informed by the alderman that he could not take the case and that he would have to make an information in Cambria county.—Altoona Tribune.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Commences Monday, July 20, 1903, continues until July 31st.

This sale means a big saving to everyone that takes advantage of the reduced prices and the prices are reduced just as stated. When we say an article is reduced from 49c to 25c, that's the case. There's no raising of the former price in order to make the price for this sale sound cheap. Some of the items will not last a week, some not a day, but there'll be bargains here as long as the sale lasts and good genuine bargains at that.
