HOME HAPPENINGS.

The trout season will close next Friday.
 Barnum's circus will be in DuBois August 21.
 Miss Virginia Dale, of DuBois, is visiting Patton relatives.
 It was a surfeit of wetness this section had the first of the week.
 Welsh Bros. circus will exhibit in Patton some day next month.
 Chas. De Gorden, of Lilly, was visiting Patton relatives last week.
 Read the new advertisement of Gunn's Pharmacy in another column.
 John T. Sauter, the jeweler, has an announcement of interest in this issue.
 The new post office block is rapidly nearing completion and is now under roof.
 Miss Margaret Barnett, of Washington, D. C., is visiting friends in town.
 Miss Jennie Waters, of Chambersburg, is visiting friends and relatives in town.
 Miss Mary Lewis, of Houtzdale, is a guest at the residence of Geo. Humphrey.
 The residence of Jas. Barnwell has been quarantined on account of diphtheria.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rhody were taking in the sights at Niagara Falls this week.
 Hastings has organized a base ball club with Editor Williams as manager and secretary.
 Misses Emma Geib and Jessie Herr, of Altoona, are the guests of Miss Myrtle Hoover.
 Ed A. Mellon tells the story of a home industry, and a popular one, in another column.
 The regular borough council meeting was not held Monday night for the usual reason.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barton were visiting relatives and friends in Elk county this week.
 R. H. Curry, of Mill Hill, was a Patton visitor Monday and a welcome caller at this office.
 A steam merry-go-round has located on the lot in the rear of Doll's erstwhile shoe factory.
 Mrs. E. W. Gallaber, of New Washington, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. I. Dowler, this week.
 The county commissioners have a notice of interest to stone contractors in another column of this issue.
 The firemen's dance at Electric Park Monday night was well attended despite the inclement weather.
 The Sunday closing order of Chief Burgess Harper appears to have been obeyed, as no arrests were made.
 J. W. Leech, of Ebensburg, the chairman of the Republican county committee, was in town Tuesday.
 Carrie Nation, the joint smasher, was in Johnstown Monday and delivered one of her characteristic addresses.
 Rt. Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, bishop of this Catholic diocese, moved into the new Episcopal residence at Altoona Tuesday.
 The insurance firm of Helmbold, Stewart & Miller now occupy offices in the Williams Block on West Magee avenue.
 J. J. McGovern, the contractor who built the Lang avenue sewer, has moved from Gallitzin to Stewart, where he has a big contract.
 The rummage sale recently inaugurated by B. Kusner is attracting considerable attention. Read all about it in his new advertisement in this issue.
 Ex-Judge Barker is the attorney for the citizens of Lilly who propose to test the new mining law limiting to sixteen years the age at which boys can work in the mines.
 Our own Charley Schwab has received more attention in the columns of the metropolitan journals during the past week than "old man Grant" did in his palmyest days.
 For the information of the editor of the Hastings News the COURIER has been requested to state that it was the second base ball nine of Patton that played at that place last week.
 A two-year old bay colt, which was stolen from J. H. De Haven's pasture at Garmantown, was found in the possession of the gang of gypsies who were camping near town last week.
 These are dog days and will continue until August 22. There is a general superstition that during this period dogs are more vicious than at any other time of the year, but there is nothing in it.

Dick Burr, the sign painter of Ebensburg, was in town this week. Mr. Burr has been working in the Monongahela valley for some time past and expects to move his family to Charleroi in the near future.
 The big clearance sale at the Bon Ton store is attracting large crowds of bargain seekers. It will continue during the month. Additional money saving items are quoted in the new advertisement this week.
 The state board of health announces that there have been 1,062 cases of smallpox in the state since the board's May meeting, with a total of sixty-six deaths. Patton furnished one of the cases.
 There are thousands of people who do not know that the size in underwear is two inches, in a sock an inch, in a collar half an inch, in trousers one inch, in hats an eighth of an inch and in gloves a quarter of an inch.
 John L. Sechler the Republican candidate for sheriff, has been suffering for two weeks from a severe attack of rheumatism. He left last week for Mt. Clemens, Mich., in the hope of being permanently benefited.
 The county commissioners have contracted with the Ebensburg Light, Heat and Power Co. to heat the court house and jail for a consideration of $1,300 a year. It is said that this will effect a saving of about $600 per annum.
 Allen Rumbarger returned to his home in Philadelphia Monday after being here two weeks taking the place of his brother Albert in the office of the Central Supply Co. The latter returned Saturday from a vacation trip to Bellefonte.
 Why can't Patton have a street fair or carnival? Other places with not half the "git up and git" of the "North Star" have found them profitable and pleasing diversions. Respectfully referred to the Business Men's association.
 Thomas Hagan, one of the supervisors of Allegheny township, has resigned as the result of his being fined for neglecting to keep the loose stones off the road in his bailiwick. The other supervisor, Jacob Sherry, died last week, so that the township is without a supervisor.
 It is reported that at the next regular meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation in New York August 4th the resignation of Charles M. Schwab as president of the combine will be presented and accepted and that Wm. E. Corey, at present assistant to President Schwab, will be chosen to succeed the Loretto man.
 The strike of the brick makers at Blandburg is a good thing for the brewing companies if for nobody else. The Harbison-Walker company is distributing free beer among their new employees, most of whom are Italians, to keep them from deserting. Their action is being freely criticized, as the men become intoxicated and make intolerable nuisances of themselves. It is said that little or no work is being done.
INTERESTING INDENTATIONS.
 Lockjaw seems to be becoming epidemic.
 The summer girl prefers quantity to quality.
 For high grade wall-paper see Fagan, the painter.
