The head was severed from his body and crushed and his left arm was ground off. It is supposed that he was on his way home and was run down by a shifting engine. Collins leaves a wife and several children.

—A pair of hotel thieves visited Cresson last Thursday night and got away with over a hundred dollars, a diamond ring and other jewelry. About nine o'clock two men entered the hotel of Frank McTague, formerly of Patton, and asked for rooms. They registered and were given a room opposite those of McTague. They went immediately to bed and when McTague and wife retired they discovered that their room had been entered and the men gone. McTague found he was short $80 and his wife lost her chateleine bag containing $10 and some jewelry.

—The Mabel Williams case, in which Albert Itell figured, is to come up again at the next session of the Lawrence county court. The trio who were convicted of conspiracy have been granted a new trial. It will be remembered that at the former trial Itell entered a plea of guilty of conspiracy to have a criminal operation performed and turned state's evidence, implicating Dr. Cooper and Mrs. Mary Talbitzer, of New Castle, and Dr. Hahn, of Edinboro. Itell has not yet been sentenced for his part in the affair and will not be until the cases of the others are finally disposed of.
