A DISINTERESTED OPINION.

What the Editor of the Puny Spirit Says of the Ball Game.

The COURIER has refrained from commenting on the base ball game at DuBois last Friday for the reason that it did not have a representative there, but the following from a paper published in another town, whose editor has no axe to grind and publishes the news as he sees it, is so near to what has been told the COURIER by different spectators that it is appended:

"About a dozen base ball enthusiasts went to DuBois last Friday to see the game between the tail-enders of the Interstate league and the Patton nine. Garvey was on the slab for Patton and Wisotaky for DuBois. The two twirlers were evenly matched and the game, as conducted from the center of the diamond, was a good one until the eighth inning. When DuBois went to the bat at that stage the visitors had two runs and DuBois one. The local gamblers realized that unless something was done soon their money would be gone, as the DuBois team had been unable to hit safely for four innings.

Something was done. Some of the DuBois players, assisted by citizens of DuBois, who had bet every cent they had or could borrow, charged up and down in front of the bleachers and called upon the fans to root. And root they did. The visiting pitcher was called all the vile names that had ever been coined, the visiting team was subjected to the most infamous indignities, flats were shaken and curses were heaped a mile high on the heads of the Cambria county aggregation. A meek-looking policeman had the temerity to ask the crowd to sit down and he was summarily kicked away from the front of the bleachers. The bleacherites were cursed for not howling loud enough. The local players cursed one another, the umpire was openly charged with selling the game and in the pandemonium Garvey went up in the air long enough to allow three runs to come in. No sane pitcher could have kept his nerve through that bedlam of curses and Billingsgate. It was strictly a bleacher's game.

Manager Brown, of the home team, who witnessed the game, found abundant evidence to vindicate his judgment in refusing to play independent ball with a team whose backers will resort to such cheap and degrading tactics to win a game of ball.

Earl Hewitt umpired the game fearlessly, but the cursing he received when it appeared to be all up with DuBois he will not soon forget."

Triple Wedding at Ashville.

St. Thomas Catholic church at Ashville was the scene of a triple wedding Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. The first wedding was that of Lawrence Ivory, of Altoona, and Miss Katharine Hamlin, of Ashville. They were attended by Michael Tomlinson and Miss Edna Callahan. This wedding was followed by the celebrating of the nuptial banns of Arthur Litzinger, of Patton, and Miss Gertrude McConnell, of Ashville. This couple was attended by Alfonso Sheridan and Miss Susan Fitzpatrick. The third couple were Wm. Lamadue and Miss Ellen Delosier. Charles Nagle and Miss Susan Bender were the attendants.

NOW ABOUT OUR NEW SHOE DEPARTMENT!

As stated before, we have leased the old reliable shoe stand, The White Shoe Store, and will open it with a bang up stock of footwear for the men, women, boys, children—all prices—all shapes—and at living prices.

We have secured the services of Mr. J. P. Carroll, formerly of Lock Haven, Pa., a shoe man of large experience, who shall have charge of this stock. He will fit you correctly and treat you courteously.

We trust you will accept this as an introduction and get acquainted with him.

We want to say that if any pair of shoes does not give satisfaction this shall be adjusted with you. Sometimes we sell a shoe that don't come up to standard, but as no one is infallible, we trust you will allow us to correct any deficiency.

We desire to add also that we are selling-agents for all shoes we sell. No other house can buy them here.

At this time allow us to say that all Shoes will be sold for strictly One Price and for Cash. No shoes shall leave the house that are not paid for at the time of purchase. This rule will be strictly adhered to and no deviations made. Again asking you to pay this stock a visit and see what a neat up-to-date store looks like. If there is anything called for that we have not got we shall be glad to order it for you at once.

Soliciting a share of your trade we are as ever,

Respectfully yours,

A FOOLISH PLAN

"It's a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; because I root indigestion with August Flower!"

Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.
 "I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in "letting nature take its course."
 What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills.
 August Flower gives new life to the liver and insures healthy stools.
 Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.
