CARROLLTOWN POST OFFICE ROBBED.

Safe Blown Open and Money and Stamps to Considerable Amount Taken.

Early Monday morning burglars gained an entrance to the Carrolltown post office, where they blew open the safe and made off with $110 in cash and about $300 worth of stamps. The report of the explosion awakened the entire town and a posse immediately started a man hunt for the robbers, but at this writing they have not been apprehended. The Cambria county bloodhounds were taken to the scene, but they failed to pick up the trail of the bandits.

The post office is located in the Stoltz building and the postmaster is Frank M. Donahue, who also conducts a store. Mrs. Margaret Stoltz occupies the living apartments over the store and a section of the first floor in the rear. The robbers gained an entrance to Mrs. Stoltz's home through a rear window and stole $10 from a sideboard. They then vacated the house and entered the post office by way of the front door with a skeleton key and attacked the safe. Mrs. Stoltz was awakened and looking out of a window saw a man standing in front of the office. He warned her to make no outcry and get to bed or he would "drill" her with cold lead.

Shortly afterwards there was a terrific explosion which awakened the entire populace of the town and lights soon flashed in the houses in the immediate vicinity and this caused the robbers to hastily grab what they could and flee. Mrs. Stoltz sounded an alarm and soon Postmaster Donahue, United States Revenue Officer Strayer, who was a guest at the Central hotel, and others arrived at the building. The safe was a wreck, having been blown by nitro-glycerine, and the front of the building was shattered.

A posse of men was immediately formed and a hunt for the robbers was begun. The county authorities were notified and Warden McMullen with the county bloodhounds was sent to the scene. The crowd had so trampled around the building that the hounds were unable to strike a scent and it was decided to try them out in the open country along the roads by which the robbers might have taken to effect an escape.

The robbery is supposed to have been committed by three or four men who had been in attendance at the recent fair held at Carrolltown and at that time obtained all the information they desired for the robbery. Saturday was pay day at the town and the robbers undoubtedly expected to make a good haul. Postmaster Donahue fortunately had placed the principal part of the funds of the office, $300 in cash and about $400 worth of stamps, together with private funds, in the Carrolltown bank for safety and saved himself and the government from a greater loss.

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Hyomei Guaranteed to Cure by O. F. Wolf or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomei are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remedy that the proprietors have authorized O. F. Wolf to sell every package of Hyomei under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by O. F. Wolf.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows Nature in her methods of treating diseases of the respiratory organs. Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and your catarrh is cured. That's all. If not cured, O. F. Wolf will refund your money.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Ordinance Passed for the Construction of Another Sewer.

Very little business of importance was transacted at the regular meeting of the borough council held Monday evening. Those in attendance were President Lingle, Secretary Moore and Councilman Berkey, Anstatt and Emigh. The following ordinance was adopted:

ORDINANCE NO. 51.

An ordinance authorizing the construction of a sewer on Fourth avenue in the borough of Patton and providing for the cost of the same:

Be it enacted and ordained by the burgess and town council of the borough of Patton, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same. That, whereas two-thirds of the property owners in interest and number on Fourth avenue have petitioned for a public sewer on said street, it is therefore enacted and ordained that a public sewer be constructed on said street, beginning at the north-east corner of land of Cole Brothers and extending south and intersecting with Palmer avenue sewer at Flannagan run. That the same be constructed of eight-inch terra cotta pipe, and that the cost of constructing the same be taxed to the property owners adjacent to the same according to the foot front rate according to law.

Enacted and ordained this, the 18th day of September, A. D. 1905.
 H. S. LINGLE,
 President of Council.

Towns Get Rebate From State.

Many boroughs throughout Pennsylvania are taking advantage of a law passed by the last legislature authorizing boroughs to construct brick or macadam roads, and upon petitioning the state highway department to receive three-fourths of the cost from the Commonwealth. Among the boroughs that have taken advantage of this law is Saltsburg, Indiana county, which has under construction one mile of brick pavement. The borough of Ligonier, Westmoreland county, is also paving its streets with macadam under this act.
