INTERESTING INDENTATIONS.

—Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Mellon on Tuesday—a son.
 —H. Lee Love, of Mansfield, is the new clerk in the Patton post office.
 —J. J. Donnelly made a business trip to St. Louis last week.
 —The first sleighing the residents of Patton enjoyed this winter occurred Monday.
 —Philip Kirkpatrick, of Bradley Junction, was a business visitor in town Thursday.
 —Misses Pearl and Mabel Beaver, of Expedit, were visiting relatives and friends in town this week.
 —Mrs. Clement Hackenberg and little daughter, Margaret, are guests at the residence of T. N. Nagle.
 —Mrs. Joseph Sponske fell at her home near Highland grove and broke her right arm Wednesday afternoon.
 —The last day for filing certificates of nomination for borough offices is February 2 and for the townships February 5.
 —Mrs. Mary Kiss, of Bakerton has filed a petition in divorce against her husband, Louis Kiss, who she says, has deserted her.
 —The firm name of the Platt-Barber company, the well known wholesale grocers, has been changed to the Land-erbach-Barber Company.
 —William Jennings Bryan will be one of the features of the lecture course at the Mountain Summer assembly at Ebensburg next summer.
 —The Patton base ball minstrels will give two performances here and one in the opera house at Barnesboro the second week in February.
 —The ladies of Trinity Guild will hold a cake and candy sale at the establishment of Dinsmore Bros. Saturday afternoon. A variety of other edibles will also be placed on sale.
 —H. S. Lingle was in Ridgway this week attending the funeral of A. M. McClain. Mr. McClain was a frequent visitor to Patton and was one of the best known and most prominent citizens of Elk county.

—Patrick A. Youngquist, the ubiquitous and hustling special agent of the New York Life Insurance company, has a new broad gauge advertisement in this issue of the COURIER that is worthy of a careful perusal.
 —Rt. Rev. Courtlandt Whitehead, of Pittsburg, bishop of this diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, will be in Patton Wednesday evening and confirm a class at Trinity Episcopal church at eight o'clock. Everybody welcome.
 —Saturday was the Russian Christmas and was faithfully observed by the Greek Catholics of Patton. By the Greek calendar of festivals, the birth of Christ is observed just 12 days after that holiday is commemorated by the greater part of the Christian world.
 —At the annual meeting of the Northern Cambria Street Railroad company held at this place Monday the following officers were elected: President, W. H. Denlinger; Vice President, Rembrandt Peale; Secretary, James H. Allport; Treasurer, H. F. Bigler.
 —Senator J. K. P. Hall, of Ridgway, chairman of the Democratic state committee, sailed from New York on Saturday with his family for Egypt. He has not been in good health for several months and has arranged to spend the remainder of the winter in a warmer climate.
 —A very strong campaign is being made to bring the railroads issuing mileage books on illiberal terms to more liberal dealing, especially the Pennsylvania railroad, which requires a deposit of ten dollars above the price of the mileage book to be held until the mileage is used, and restricts the use of it to a single individual.
 —The case of the Benedictine Brotherhood against the borough of Carrolltown will be argued at Ebensburg Tuesday. The brotherhood petitions to have its property at Carrolltown separated from borough control so far as assessments and taxes are concerned. The Benedictine community owns a farm of 125 acres, of which twenty acres are in the Carrolltown borough limits, with the monastery buildings. Up to this time the community has been assessed and has paid taxes as if all its property were in the corporation, but now it is proposed to reverse this practice.

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

Dr. Green arranges with the Niece of Dr. Boschee to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases. Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles. The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

CLOTHES DON'T MAKE THE MAN

But they do make a man feel better and put up a better appearance if they are well fitting and in style. We are tailors most of the best dressed men in Northern Cambria county—they are the best advertisement we have. We keep abreast of the times in both style and goods and our prices are as low as is consistent with good sartorial work.

Let us make your next suit, overcoat or trousers and be convinced of this truth.
