OPENING OF NEW BANK.

As Others See Progressiveness of Cambria County Grangers.

The progressive and enterprising Patrons of Cambria county have organized a Grange National bank at Patton, that county. It is capitalized at $60,000 and is all paid in. They have purchased a building at a cost of $21,000 on the very best site in that prosperous borough. They have arranged to rent office rooms enough in the building so that from the rentals the bank will receive six per cent upon its investment above insurance, taxes and have the banking room free.

Of course, the officers are all members of the Grange and the opening day has been set for August 5th, when a celebration will be held in keeping with the importance of the event. Patrons in Cambria and bordering counties are invited to attend and make a personal investigation as to the character of this financial institution. It will be ready to receive deposits that day and every legal working day thereafter from patrons and their friends and will give to its customers every accommodation that is in keeping with safe banking regulations.

Brother John G. McHenry, the special state grange representative on banking interests; State Master Hill, and doubtless other prominent grange workers will be present from a distance. Celebrate "Harvest Home" by bringing the boys and girls—the whole family—and let them start in the right time on a business life by becoming depositors of a few dollars or their savings of a few pennies in this Grange National bank. Don't forget the date—August 5th.—Pennsylvania Grange News.

Value of a Familiar Face.

An employee of the Chicago Tribune once found the fact that his face was familiar to the late Joseph Medill decidedly to his advantage. In the last years of his life Mr. Medill did not spend much time in Chicago and took no active part in the management of his paper, but when he was in the city he went to his office pretty regularly. He knew all the old faces, but few of the new ones, and it was too late in life for him to accustom himself to them. He never knew to whom to give "copy" that he wished printed if the managing editor happened to be absent. On one occasion he handed some to a representative of another paper who chanced to be in the building. The man had been employed on The Tribune some years previously, so his face was familiar to Mr. Medill, while the faces of the men then actually in his employ were not.

One day he suddenly inquired what had become of the old night editor. "He's in Boston," was the reply. "Well, I want him," said Mr. Medill. It was explained that the man had an excellent place in Boston and probably would not care to come back, but Mr. Medill persisted that he wanted him. "I know him," he said, "and I want a familiar face in that room. I want some one who isn't a stranger to me. Telegraph him that Medill wants him." So the man with "the old familiar face," although he was not an old man by any means, went back to The Tribune on his own terms.—Youth's Companion

Curious Mexican Laws.

They have some very curious criminal laws in Mexico. For instance, it is twice as much of an offense to mutilate the face of a woman as that of a man. The law seems to be based on the idea that a woman's best possession is her beauty and that to mar it does her a great injury. There is another curious law. If a person should be wounded in an encounter, the punishment to the offender is fixed by the number of days his victim has to stay in the hospital or under a doctor's care. A fine is fixed at 40 days in the way of a general division. If the injured man occupies more than 40 days in his recovery, the penalty doubles up.

An Impudent Fraud.

An impudent fraud was perpetrated upon a Manchester bank by one of its customers, who opened an account with some few hundreds of pounds. The man, after a few weeks, drew two checks, each within a pound or so of his balance, and, selecting a busy day, presented himself at one end of the counter, while an accomplice, when he saw that his friend's check had been cashed, immediately presented his own to a cashier at the other end. Both cashiers referred the checks to the ledger clerk, who, thinking the same cashier had asked him twice, said "right" to both checks. The thieves were never caught.

THE COURIER,

consists simply in presenting before the people the goods you have to sell in an intelligent manner, whether it is a house and lot or a pair of shoes. It is too late at this day to expatiate on the merits of advertising. That has been demonstrated so often that iteration is futile. Everybody now days knows that advertising pays. The main question is, what medium to use? Advertising experts long ago settled it by declaring that newspaper advertising was by far the most effective and brings better returns than any other extant. The merchants of this section long ago declared that better results were obtained by using the COURIER than by any other means. It is read every week by hundreds of families and goes into the homes of the majority of the people of Northern Cambria county. The rates are low, just and equitable—one price to all and the small advertiser gets just as good a rate as the large one.

If your business needs a tonic, come in and let us talk the matter over with you or send us word and we will have a representative call on you and explain everything about our plan. You may do business without advertising, but you are certain to do more by advertising. It is an investment that will repay you an hundred fold.

We will prepare your copy and take complete charge of your advertising campaign, however large or small, without extra cost.
