Letter to R. Williams. Patton, Pa.

Dear Sir: A man fed his hens half meal and half sawdust; he thought they wouldn't know the difference. He concluded they did when the eggs hatched woodpeckers.

Another man painted his house with a paint that was made of half paint-substitutes. He didn't know the difference—not till he paid the painter.

He had 20 gallons to pay for, 20 instead of 10. Got fooled $12.50 on the paint.

He had 20 days' wages to pay for, 20 instead of 10. Fooled $30 in wages.

He got a poor job besides. He paid too much for his eggs, and they hatched woodpeckers.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co. P. S. Binder & Starrett sell our paint.

Ten Dollars Reward. The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any one destroying property at the Firemen's Park or molesting anything at that place in any manner.

We're digging out from under the entire store, cementing the sides and floor. The space will be used for Toys and Holiday Goods. The goods we formerly stocked in the cellar were taken up to the ware room and with the Fall Stock of Underwear, Stockings, Blankets, Haps, Etc., it's crowded to the doors. On account of pending advances we bought in large quantities, and we must make room for our line of Toys and Holiday Goods.
