P. C. KNOX TO SEEK UNITED STATES SENATE

Reports from over the State indicate strongly that former Secretary of State Philander C. Knox will shortly enter the field as a Republican candidate for United States Senator to succeed Senator George T. Oliver. It is believed that Mr. Knox has about concluded to become a candidate at the primaries to be held in May.

There is a bare possibility that Republican State Chairman, W. E. Crow, of Fayette County, may yet enter the field as a candidate. Business interests, however, may require him to adhere to his declaration of some weeks ago that he probably would not be a candidate. E. V. Babcock, of Pittsburgh, prominent as a lumberman and recently engaged extensively in iron and steel enterprises has determined not to be a candidate to succeed Senator Oliver. This information comes from friends of the latter and has been accepted that both Knox and Babcock would become candidates when he handed in Johnstown Saturday. The summary:

Pittsburgh man, who say that he likely will become a candidate for Governor to succeed Brumbaugh.

State Senator Charles Snyder, of Schuylkill County, is openly in the field for Republican nomination for Auditor General and indications are that Herman Keplart, of Fayette County, will be supported by many county leaders for nomination for State Treasurer.

Charles H. Kline, of Pittsburgh, has been regarded as an aspirant for State Treasurer, but with Knox in the field for United States Senator it would not be surprising were Mr. Kline to withdraw on the ground that two nominees on the State ticket should not hail from one county.

The Knox boom gained considerable strength following a large gubernatorial conference in Philadelphia last night of influential Republican from all parts of the State. Prior to that time it was generally conceded that Governor Brumbaugh would be a candidate for re-election.

Opinion among Republican leaders did not come back empty-handed when he handed in Johnstown Saturday. The summary:

Fleyolert Emmanuel of Latrie, alien; hunting with a gun; paid $25 and costs.

Antonio Tarbaldi, of Latrie, alien; owning a hunting dog; paid $25 and costs.

Frank Dildo of Moss Creek, alien; hunting game; paid $25 and costs.

Game Prosecutor Kinter hunting with a dog; paid $25 and costs.

The investigation into the facts in all these cases and the prosecutions and arrest of the offenders culminated in the entire week and Game Warden Rodkey with his assistant, Constable Edsel Miller of Ebensburg, who in each of the cases was a deputy game warden, were busy men throughout that period. All of the offenders paid their fines rather than go behind the bars. The game wardens are on the trail of similar cases, and more arrests are expected to be forthcoming in the near future.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES' MIDWINTER NUMBER

There is no more noted newspaper of the Los Angeles Times, whose annual that the Midwinter Number is one of the most unique publications that a newspaper can issue. The Midwinter Number for 1916 is just at hand. Southern California has so many features of interest to all parts of the country, and which reflects them in a class by itself and the "Midwinter" is so classified by everyone who sees it. It is made up of five beautiful magazines in addition to the usual news sheets. Five magazines of thirty-two pages each, with art covers, all printed on fine book paper in bright colors. The art work is surpassingly fine and the text is illuminating. One can visualize the charms of the Southwest by looking through this pleasing publication. It tells once everything he wants to know about the resources, prosperity and delights of the Southland—the climate, the crops, the industries, the peculiarities of life and cost of living, the habits of each town and county, the financial conditions and business prosperity, tourist accommodations and openings for settlers. It is truthful and sincere as well as dressed in beautiful garb. Gen. Otis Chandler has every reason to be proud of his State great section in issuing such a noble annual.
