James Walsh, a wealthy clubman of Baltimore and president of an automobile concern, has just been sentenced to spend two years in the penitentiary for running over a woman with his auto and killing her.

He was drunk at the time. If anything, the punishment in this case is too light, but it is good as far as it goes. We hope to see the day when a man who gets drunk and thereby brings disaster on innocent persons will be made to suffer to the utmost of the law.

The drunkenness, instead of being considered as an excuse, should be considered as an aggravation of the offense. Everyone knows that a large part of the danger that menaces peaceable people comes from men who are under the influence of liquor and are not thus in command of their actions.

The time has come when this menace has got to be removed. A majority of people are not constantly under the control of alcohol. It is not right that this majority should be continually at the mercy and in terror of the small minority of degenerates who choose to make maniacs of themselves by seeking themselves full of liquor.

Let every community insist unequivocally that men who commit wrongful acts when under the influence of liquor shall feel the severest penalty, and after a little the worst features of the drink evil will be cleared away.

Fines are not sufficient to teach drunkards the lesson; since by getting drunk they show that they care not for money. They must be made to feel, on their own person, the physical effects of their wrongdoing.

And a second offense should be sufficient to send them to permanent confinement, where they can't get liquor and where they will be compelled to do good hard honest labor for the benefit of the community whom they have outraged.

A little more firmness and a little less pink sentimentality in dealing with these classes will produce a revolutionary improvement. The community which lets it be known, by unmistakable methods, that it will not tolerate a man who gets drunk, who no matter how high or how low his social position, will soon be rid, in part, of this drink menace which is such a disgrace to civilization.

BOLTING MEALS

Man is an omnivorous animal and cannot afford to permit himself to be hurried at meals. It is impossible to bolt such food as the average person eats without injuring the health.

With the animal kingdom the sense of smell, as well as the sense of taste, enters largely into the enjoyment of the meal. This should be borne in mind. Odor and a pleasant tendency to stimulate the fluids, essential to proper digestion.

Chewing the food a reasonable length of time should assist us in enjoying the taste and flavor. One of the essentials to good digestion is to eat those things which we relish unless the contrary is indicated by well established scientific and empirical knowledge. Civilization has dulled our instincts in this respect but it survives to a certain degree in our relish for certain food stuffs.

This relish should be not mistaken for the inordinate fondness for certain things. Everyone can distinguish between an occasional immoderate indulgence and a natural taste and relish.

The proper flow of the digestive fluids is essential to good digestion. A liberal portion of fruit is suggested by most dietitians and it is a common belief that fruit is a wholesome food. It should be remembered however, that acid fruits are often irritating to the mucous membrane and if the habit is long continued on a naturally weak digestion or with babies, it will still further interfere with digestion.

Almost everyone who is using grapefruit or other acid fruit for food, makes a mistake by eating it before breakfast or at any time on an empty stomach. It should be eaten after breakfast instead of before as it the habit.

NEWS OF TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO

Taken From the Patton Courier of Thursday March 7, 1895

The Old and The New
The borough council met Tuesday evening to wind up its affairs for the past year and go out of business, to be succeeded immediately by the organization of the new council. The meeting was held at the office of Dale & Patterson, and councilmen Bell, Wilson, Young, Bonner and Beck were present. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. A. J. Burkey appeared and asked for duplicate orders to take the place of orders he had lost. On motion the clerk was instructed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

The following accounts were then ordered paid:
Phillip Burkhardt $ .75
C. C. Crowell .50
E. Short, dray .25
S. Adleman 4.00

Treasurer Sandford submitted financial report, which was placed on file, and will appear in the Courier next week.

This completed the business up to date and council adjourned sine die.

New Council Organized
The new council proceeded to business by electing P. P. Young president, and John Boyce secretary pro tem. J. F. Bonner was then chosen permanent president and Harry Patterson secretary. W. H. Sandford was elected treasurer for the ensuing year.

Several applications for the position of street commissioner were present, and on motion were held over until the next meeting.

Adjoined to meet the first Tuesday in April.

A Corner Drug Store
Adam Woleslagle, the manager of the City Drug Store, owned by Dr. C. E. Belcher, which place of business was sold out by the Sheriff last week, is now busily engaged in opening up what will be known as the Corner Drug Store, in the store room lately vacated by John E. Reilly's Dry Run store opposite the Palmer House. Mr. Woleslagle expects to carry a full line of drugs, patent medicines and will pay particular attention to the filling and compounding of prescriptions. He will also carry a full line of choice cigars. Adam has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of his opening up in the drug business and hope he may meet with abundant success.

Laundry Sold
D. A. Buck wishes to announce to the public that he has purchased the Patton Laundry from Mr. J. T. Haines and will endeavor to turn out good work and turn it out on time and see that each patron receives the apparel he leaves to be laundered instead of some one else's. The business has been run "to the wall" by all not tolerate a man who gets drunk, who is well-known in Patton as a reliable party, will try and build the trade up and should be given liberal support.

Patronize home industry by all means.

A Good Entertainment
Prof. A. H. List, of Pittsburgh, gave a piano, organ and song recital in the Patton Methodist Episcopal Church on Saturday evening to quite a large and appreciative audience. His elocutionary recitals were elegant and his wit and humor very clear notwithstanding that some of his jokes were quite local. His rendition of the Battle of Gettysburg was grand. He is an elegant performer on the piano.

Hurt in the Mines
Ed Dolen, who works at McCormick's mine met quite a very painful accident by breaking his right foot, while on duty on Tuesday. He was brought to his boarding place, Mrs. Bennett's and a physician summoned who alleviated his sufferings. He will be compelled to remain idle for a few weeks.

Grist Mill Burned
The grist mill of Mr. Jacob Thomas two miles from Patton, was burned to the ground Monday night between 10 and 11 o'clock. The miller left the mill about 8 o'clock and left a small fire in the stove. About two hours later a son of Mr. Thomas' who had retired, was awakened and saw a bright light shining in his window. Looking out it was discovered the grist mill was involved in flames. An alarm was raised but nothing could be done to save the mill. Mr. Thomas places his loss at $6,000, partly covered by insurance. The mill was run regular and at the time of the fire had considerable wheat, rye, oats, corn and buckwheat in stock. It was purchased by Mr. Thomas in 1874 and remodeled, being considered the best water mill in the country. It will be rebuilt in the spring.

Personals
Found—A peculiar musical instrument between Patton and Frenchtown. Owner can have same by calling on John Boyce and paying for this notice.

Dr. B. F. Wendell, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., spent a few days among his many friends in Patton last week. The Doctor was formerly located in Patton.

Dr. J. I. Hatch, has moved to Philadelphia. There is a chance for a first class dentist in town. Who will locate?
