ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PATTON NORMAL SCHOOL

Term Six weeks, Opens May 22, '16

INSTRUCTORS-W. M. BOSSERMAN and LORETTO PRINDIBLE. LENGTH OF TERM

. Term opens May 22, 1916, and will continue for a period of six weeks, closing June 30, 1916.

COURSES OF STUDY

TEACHERS' COURSE-This course is for the benefit of those preparing to take the examination for a Provisional or Professional Certificate. Classes will be conducted in all subjects required for these certificates; and classes in all High School subjects will be maintained if the number of applicants is sufficient. In this course an excellent opportunity is offered to all who contemplate taking the County or the State Permanent Examinations for Teachers.

GRAMMAR AND INTERMEDIATE-Classes especially adapted for pupils of grammar and intermediate grades, including the sixth, seventh and eighth, will be organized and maintained. The primary purpose of this course is to give pupils an opportunity to make up work in which they have failed, or get credit in the regular grades for additional work mastered during the summer school

SESSIONS Daily sessions will be conducted in the First Ward School Building, Patton, Pa, beginning at 7:00 o'clock and continuing until noon. Special sessions, if desired by the pupils, will be conducted each after-

YEXT BOOKS AND SUPPLIES

Pupils living in Patton Borough are entitled to and will be given the use of the text books without any charges; all others will be charged a small sum for their use. All supplies will be sold to the pupils at wholesale prices.

The Classics used will be those recommended by County Superintendent Bentz, namely Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" Those preparing for Provisional Certificates will study "Better Schools" by Gregory; and those preparing to take the examination for Professional Certificates will study both "The Rural School" by Colter and Strong. and "New School Management" by Seeley.

In Pennsylvania History we will use "History of Fennsylvania" by Morris.

Pupils who are taking work in the Grammar and Intermediate Grades will use the books which are regularly used in these grades. BOARDING

Boarding, either in private homes or hotels, may be obtained at

TUITION

The tuition for the entire term is payable in advance and for each course is as follows:

Grammar and Intermediate ..... 6.00 EXAMINATIONS

Arrangements have been made with County Superintendent M S. Bentz to hold an examination for Provisional Certificates in the High School Auditorium at the close of the term, June 30, 1916. On July 1. 1916, an examination will be given to those who have been making up conditions in their regular school work or have been striving to obtain additional credit in their grades for work mastered in the Normal.

ADVANTAGES Patton, for many teachers and students, is centrally located, being accessible by the New York Central Railroad, the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the Northern Cambria Street Railway. The High School is well equipped with books of reference and a library of over twelve hundred volumes to which the students will have access without any additional cost. Persons living near the trolley line will be able to secure tickets at reduced rates.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Normal School will be conducted by W. M. Bosserman, Supervising Principal of the Patton Borough schools, and Miss Loretto E. Prindible, teacher of History, English and Literature in the Patton High School. Arrangements have been made with a competent teacher to assist if the enrollment is large enough to employ such an additional instructor.

It is our determination to make this session of the Patton Normal School the most thorough and practical of any in its history. Miss Prindible will have charge of the History, Literature, English, etc. in her work she is one of the strongest and most successful teachers that can be found, and the pupils who have taken work in her classes in the past know that they may expect from her the very hest during the summer school.

If you expect to attend our school, will you kindly let me know at an early date, so that I can make adequate arrangements for the school and preparations to have a full and complete session of work the first day
