

NEWS OF TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO

Taken From The Patton Courier, May 2nd, 1895.

Beech Avenue Opened
Street Commissioner Jackson has commenced working on the streets in good earnest. During last week he had a large crew of men working on the extension of Beech Avenue which was completed. This affords the residents of the Anna addition better access to their properties as well as Jas. Mellon, who has considerable amount of real estate on the west end of Beech Avenue.

John R. Cordell, late of Thomas Mills, but now a resident of Patton, has purchased a lot on the north side of Magee avenue, near Mr. Letts' property, and will erect a dwelling thereon this summer. The Courier is pleased to welcome Mr. Cordell in our midst. He was proprietor of the only hotel at Thomas Mills, which was consumed by fire last winter.

Lost His Tail Short
St. Richards is still unfortunate. He lost his famous dog, Tiger. He either strayed or was stolen about the 18th. He had sold him a few days before to Lide Hill, of Lumber City, for $99.31 and was to deliver him the next day. He now expects to see him for damage. He was a blooded dog being part setter and part hunter, but more setter than hunter. St. offers a reward of $75 and no questions asked for his return.—Bower Correspondent to Clearfield Monitor.

To Members of Board of Trade
There will be a meeting in the club rooms in the Good building tonight, at 8 o'clock. Business relative to the Sewer Pipe Works. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Lincoln S. Bell, Sec Must Not Be Soid

The people who enjoy fishing for trout are reminded that it is a violation of the law punishable by fine to catch trout and sell them. The fine is $2 for fish sold. The object of the law is to prevent the depletion of the trout streams. There is nothing to prevent a person from catching all he wants for his own family in season, so long as the fish are not less than five inches long, but it is not legal to make a money-making scheme out of cleaning the stream of trout, and the resident fish warden propose to look about and see that the law is not ignored.

Leg Broken
On Monday morning Lewis Johnson who is an employe at Magee and Linkies colliery, met with a serious accident. While attending to his duties a large rock fell from the roof of the mine striking him on his leg below the knee breaking it. He was removed to his boarding place and a physician summoned who set the injured member. At present writing Mr. Johnson is doing as well as could be expected.

J. P. McCane and son Robert, both of St. Augustine, visited friends in Patton and vicinity this week.

E. C. Brown has been making several decided improvements on his lot on Beech avenue during the past week. John Truman has had charge of the work.

HOW TO PRESERVE HEARING

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D. LL. D. Commissioner of Health

The ear is one of the most delicately formed organs in the human body. It is in direct and close relation to the brain. It's three parts, the external, middle and internal are most intimately connected. The abuse of the external ear or that part which stands out from the head and is known even by children as the ear, is often reflected to those parts that cannot be seen and do permanent harm.

Those in care of children should never permit a child's ear to be pulled or slapped as such abuse will frequently cause inflammation of the middle ear and when that is diseased the inner ear may take on the same condition.

The external ear is thin and when exposed to cold will become frost bitten sooner than other parts of the body. It should therefore be protected from freezing.

When exposed to heavy air pressure in a tunnel or when there is heavy cannonading or blasting, the mouth should be partly open to permit equal pressure on either side of the drum which is an extremely thin membrane that divides the external from the middle ear.

The healthy ear should never be cleaned beyond the surface that is plainly seen by the eye. The wax will naturally accumulate and work out into the external ear, where it can be removed without danger of hurting the more delicate part of the organ.

Children should be taught that it is dangerous to put things in the ear. If any little object like a bean, button or insect should get into the ear it should not be dug after. Many ears have been destroyed by those ignorant of the formation of the ear, digging after some foreign body that has lodged well in the orifice. If the object cannot be lifted out a doctor should be consulted. If medical aid cannot be had, a careful syringing is the best and most innocent method of removing obstacles. In case of animate things such as insects, getting into the ear, it is advisable to pour olive, cotton seed or another pure neutral oil in to kill and remove the same. The common use of oil for an ear ache is a mistake as it is hard to remove and frequently gets gummy and collects dirt. The ear is often injured by sniffing fluids up the nostrils which cause inflammation of the eustachian tube, which is a little duct that leads from the mouth to the ear. The ear is such a useful and delicate organ it should be cared for by a physician when trouble occurs.

DR. EDWARDS IS PRESCRIBING IT TO HIS PATIENTS

Prominent Georgia Physician Gives Master Medicine Taniac His Unqualified Endorsement

Dr. J. T. Edwards, of Fayetteville, Ga., one of the best-known members of the medical profession in the state of Georgia, makes a statement that will undoubtedly produce a profound impression throughout the country.

"In my thirty years of active practice as a licensed physician in the state of Georgia," said Dr. Edwards, "I have never seen anything to equal Taniac as a medicine to produce results. I hear people on all sides talking of the benefit they have derived from its use.

"Taniac is simply the talk of my town. I have no hesitancy in recommending the medicine, and, as a matter of fact, I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day.

"People in all walks of life in and around our little city are giving endorsements to the medicine. Seldom a day passes that some one does not come to me and say something about the good results they are getting from the use of Taniac.

"Several unusual gains in weight have been reported by some of our most prominent people, and I have treated some stubborn cases of indigestion, catarrhal conditions, and organic disorders and secured splendid results with Taniac."

Taniac is now sold in Patton exclusively by Gunn Drug Company, where the premier preparation can be had.—Adv.
