

I. T. LINCOLN TO BE EXTRADICTED

TRIAL FOR FORGERY AWAITS
HIM—MADE FIGHT

Washington—The Supreme Court held that Ignatius Timothy Tribich Lincoln, former member of the British Parliament and confessed German spy, must go back to England for trial on a charge of forgery.

Lincoln was arrested in New York and made a sensational escape. He was rearrested and from the order for his extradition he sought release through habeas corpus proceedings. The New York Federal District Court refused to release him and Lincoln appealed to the Supreme Court, which affirmed the lower court.

I. T. LINCOLN

Lincoln contended that if returned to England he would be tried as a spy, contrary to the extradition treaty between the United States and Great Britain.

STREET CAR STRIKE SETTLED

Pittsburgh Men Return to Work After Gaining Wage Increase.

Pittsburgh—A half million people breathed a sigh of relief when street car traffic was resumed following the settlement of the motormen's and conductors' strike that paralyzed the entire system of the Pittsburgh Railway Company—not only in Pittsburgh proper, but in adjacent towns—for more than 28 hours. Car men voted 1,312 to 392 to accept the company's proposition.

A new scale effective at once gives the men a substantial increase in wages.

Government Plans Investigations

Washington—The most extensive investigations into foreign-market conditions ever undertaken at one time by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, will be under way soon after the beginning of the new fiscal year in July. These investigations will be aimed at the newer and more undeveloped markets lying well outside of the fighting zone, especially those in South America, China, India, Africa and Australia. Twelve different lines are to be investigated and fifteen distinct examinations to find suitable agents for the work have been announced.

STRIKES LOST 23 CENTURIES IN ONE YEAR

Albany, N. Y.—Twenty-three centuries of lost time is the record of New York's strikes and lockouts during the year ended September 30, 1915. The total cost in money was over $1,000,000.

Plan Peace Army of 180,000

Washington—A regular army of 180,000 men at peace strength practically has been agreed upon by Senate and House conferees on the army bill. With the plans of expansion as provided in the bill which has passed the Senate, this would produce an army of about 250,000 men in war strength.

Wilkes Booth's Double Dies.

Ashtabula, Ohio—B. A. Clark, 75 years old, double of J. Wilkes Booth, assassin of Lincoln, died at his home here. Clark closely resembled Booth, and after the assassination he was arrested and taken to Washington under guard, where the mistake was discovered.

Embargo in Effect.

Washington—Pending the outcome of the Scott-Oregon conference and the demand of Gen. Carranza for the withdrawal of the American forces from Mexico, the United States is refusing to permit any shipments of arms or ammunition to cross the American boundary line.

Maine to Have Park.

Washington—President Wilson was asked to accept on behalf of the government a tract of 5,000 acres of land on Mount Desert Island, Maine, as a National Park and memorial to early settlers. The park will be accepted.

179 Buildings Burned in Dublin.

Dublin—A total of 179 buildings were destroyed or damaged during the seven days' rebellion, the chief of the Dublin fire department stated. He estimated the fire loss in the Sackville street district at $8,000,000.

IRISH REBEL LEADERS SHOT

PEARSE'S DREAM OF EIGHT DAYS ENDED

FOUR FACE FIRING SQUAD

Sir Roger Casement in His Cell Hears
Shots—Awaits Trial for Treason—Birrell Resigns
Portfolio.

London—As the sun rose over the high grim walls of the Tower of London it witnessed, down in the historic execution court, the last act of the drama of the "Easter Republic of Ireland," played to the tune of rifle bullets from four successive firing squads that snuffed out the lives of the four chief rebel leaders who eight days ago had raised the curtain to let rebellion play its piece of terrorism unconfined.

Patrick H. Pearse, the "Provisional President of Ireland," James Connolly, "Commander and General of the Irish Republican Army," Thomas J. Clark and Thomas MacDonagh, court-martialed and convicted of treason, were shot to death to pay the penalty of their Easter dream.

In a cell not far from the scene of the execution sat Sir Roger Casement, a prisoner in the Tower awaiting trial for treason. The rifle shots could be plainly heard in the solitary prison room of the Knight who was arrested a few days before the rebellion broke out while attempting to land arms from a German auxiliary on the Irish Coast.

Shortly after Asquith, in opening this morning's session of Parliament, had announced the fate of the four Sinn Fein leaders, Augustus Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, handed in his resignation.

Premier Asquith promptly accepted
Four More Leaders Shot.

Dublin—Four more rebel prisoners were court-martialed and shot. This was announced officially. The men were Joseph Plunkett, Edward Daly, William Pearse and Michael O'Hanrahan.

Fifteen others sentenced to death were commuted to 10 years' penal servitude.

Joseph Plunkett was one of the seven original signers of the proclamation of the Irish provisional government. William Pearse was a brother of Patrick H. Pearse. He was a sculptor and was once a tutor in the Irish boys' school, of which his brother was head master.
